What is Time? G. J. Whitrow, 2003 In this engaging volume Professor G J Whitrow 1912 2000 takes us on a good humored and wide ranging tour of the thing that clocks keep more or less He discusses how our ideas of time originated and coaxes the layment to contemplate with pleasure the differences between cyclic linear biological cosmic and space time while providing frequent diversions into fascinating topics such as the Mayan calendar the migration of birds and the dances of bees This reissue of the classic and authoritative What is Time includes a new introduction by Dr J T Fraser founder of the International Society for the Study of Time and a bibliographic essay by Dr Fraser and Professor M P Soulsby of the Pennsylvania State University

Ecocriticism and the Idea of Culture Helena Feder, 2016-04-29 Ecocriticism and the Idea of Culture Biology and the Bildungsroman draws on work by Kinji Imanishi Frans de Waal and other biologists to create an interdisciplinary materialist notion of culture for ecocritical analysis In this timely intervention Feder examines the humanist idea of culture by taking a fresh look at the stories it explicitly tells about itself These stories fall into the genre of the Bildungsroman the tale of individual acculturation that participates in the myth of its complete separation from and opposition to nature which Feder argues is culture s own origin story Moving from Voltaire s Candide to Mary Shelley s Frankenstein and from Virginia Woolf s Orlando to Jamaica Kincaid s Lucy the book dramatizes humanism s own awareness of the fallacy of this foundational binary In the final chapters Feder examines the discourse of animality at work in this narrative as a humanist fantasy about empathy one that paradoxically excludes other animals from the ethical community to justify the continued domination of both human and nonhuman others

Dynamis of Healing Pia Sophia Chaudhari, 2019-08-06 This book explores how traces of the energies and dynamics of Orthodox Christian theology and anthropology may be observed in the clinical work of depth psychology Looking to theology to express its own religious truths and to psychology to see whether these truth claims show up in healing modalities the author creatively engages both disciplines in order to highlight the possibilities for healing contained therein Dynamis of Healing elucidates how theology and psychology are by no means fundamentally at odds with each other but rather can work together in a beautiful and powerful synergia to address both the deepest needs and deepest desires of the human person for healing and flourishing

The Ecocriticism Reader Cheryll Glotfelty, Harold Fromm, 1996 This book is the first collection of its kind an anthology of classic and cutting edge writings in the rapidly emerging field of literary ecology

Exploring the relationship between literature and the physical environment literary ecology is the study of the ways that writing from novels and folktales to U S government reports and corporate advertisements both reflects and influences our interactions with the natural world The Sunflower Forest William R. Jordan, 2012-02-07 Ecological restoration the attempt to guide damaged ecosystems back to a previous usually healthier or more natural condition is rapidly gaining recognition as one of the most promising approaches to conservation In this book William R Jordan III who coined the term restoration ecology and who is widely respected as an intellectual leader in the field outlines a vision for a restoration based environmentalism that has emerged from his work over twenty five years Drawing on a provocative range of thinkers from anthropologists Victor Turner Roy Rappaport and Mary Douglas to literary critics Frederick Turner Leo Marx and R W B Lewis Jordan explores the promise of restoration both as a way of reversing environmental damage and as a context for negotiating our relationship with nature Exploring restoration not only as a technology but also as an experience and a performing art Jordan claims that it is the indispensable key to conservation At the same time he argues restoration is valuable because it provides a context for confronting the most troubling aspects of our relationship with nature For this reason it offers a way past the essentially sentimental idea of nature that environmental thinkers have taken for granted since the time of Emerson and Muir Frederick Hart Frederick Hart, Michael Novak, 2005 Frederick Hart s sculpture is at once traditional in its adherence to the importance of the human figure and radical in its sensuality and innovative use of materials This publication is a comprehensive look into the life and talent of a classical sculptor whose passion for the spiritual and figurative aspects of his craft is represented in both his public commissions and private work Daughters of Odessa one of Hart s masterworks is traced from its first inspiration to the final bronze The Creation Sculptures which grace the west facade of Washington National Cathedral are explored in an in depth analysis of his epic interpretation of Creation Hart s public monuments including Three Soldiers at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial are brought to life through the artist s own writings Additionally new works are comprehensively explored building from the previous book Frederick Hart Sculptor 1994 now in its fifth printing 12 colour 83 b w illustrations Beyond Preservation A. Dwight Baldwin, Judith De Luce, Carl Pletsch, 1994 Beyond Preservation was first published in 1993 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions Addressing current ecological issues from the philosophical to the practical Frederick Turner and William R Jordan III Here offer a new paradigm for understanding the relationship between the humans and nature Challenging the idea that preserving nature is the only solution to environmental problems they advocate going beyond preservation to restoration and actual construction of our landscape Fifteen respondents reflect on the implications and consequences of Turner s and Jordan s bold proposals Ecological restoration is the most helpful and provocative contribution to our thinking about nature to come along in many years and Beyond Preservation is without a doubt the best book on the subject to date Michael Polan Harper s

Healing Breath Ruben L. F. Habito,2013-02-08 Healing our wounded Earth is not unrelated to healing our own personal wounds The pains of the Earth and those of the individuals making up our Earth community cannot be separated Thus the healing of our individual lives can become the basis of the healing of Earth This book sheds light on Zen as a spiritual path that leads to healing in the personal social and ecological dimensions of our being If you are seeking a form of spiritual practice that addresses all three of these dimensions or simply seeking to deepen your understanding of the Zen path it is written for you If instead of fragmentation disorientation and vacuity you seek wholeness groundedness and integrity in your life it is written for you Perhaps you too have come to realize that our global community is in a sad state of affairs that we need to radically change how we live and relate to one another and to the Earth You may already be engaged in some form of social or ecological action addressing these issues and you may feel overwhelmed by the magnitude of the task If you ve been tempted to pessimism or have thrown up your hands in despair when your best efforts don t seem to make a dent this book is for you Healing Breath offers a way to integrate a spiritual path with active socio ecological engagement as the ground This book also addresses another set of questions can a Christian genuinely practice Zen How is Zen practice compatible with a Christian faith commitment To fully engage in a Zen practice what kind of belief system is presupposed or required How can spiritual practice in an Eastern tradition inform Christian life and understanding In the process of describing the Zen way of life Healing Breath will consider various Christian expressions symbols and practices not as an apologetic for that belief system but to show how they too point to the transformative and healing perspectives and experiences provided by Zen

Shakespeare's Twenty-First Century Economics Frederick Turner,1999-09-23 I love you according to my bond says

Cordelia to her father in King Lear As the play turns out Cordelia proves to be an exemplary and loving daughter A bond is both a legal or financial obligation and a connection of mutual love How are these things connected In As You Like It Shakespeare describes marriage as a blessed bond of board and bed the emotional religious and sexual sides of marriage cannot be detached from its status as a legal and economic contract These examples are the pith of Frederick Turner s fascinating new book Based on the proven maxim that money makes the world go round this engaging study draws from Shakespeare s texts to present a lexicon of common words as well as a variety of familiar familial and cultural situations in an economic context Making constant recourse to well known material from Shakespeare s plays Turner demonstrates that the terms of money and value permeate our minds and lives even in our most mundane moments His book offers a new humane evolutionary economics that fully expresses the moral spiritual and aesthetic relationships among persons and between humans and nature Playful and incisive Turner s book offers a way to engage the wisdom of Shakespeare in everyday life in a trenchant prose that is accessible to lovers of Shakespeare at all levels Religion without Belief Jean Ellen

Petrolle,2008-06-05 Shows there is a strong religious impulse in postmodern literature and film Centering Educational Administration Robert J. Starratt,2003-04-02 In this book Starratt enters the national conversation among educational administration scholars and practitioners about what constitutes the core of their knowledge and practice In Part I he develops three main themes cultivating meaning community and moral responsibility which he then positions against national themes about the core of educational administration school improvement democratic community and social justice Rather than focusing on the routine managerial tasks normally associated with school administration budgeting personnel and legal problems time and resource management etc this text asks aspiring school leaders to reflect first on the underlying philosophical and sociological perspectives that constitute the substance of administrative work in education Centering Educational Administration provides A Unique Perspective on Leadership The author views leadership as organically related to teaching and learning as concerned with internal capacity building in response to state imposed accountability pressures and as an existential process of writing one s autobiography through their day to day work An Interdisciplinary View of Educational Administration Centering Educational Administration asks educational administrators to bring contemporary philosophical ethical and anthropological issues as well as learning theory social theory and political theory into their thinking about the daily operation of the school A Unique Perspective on School Improvement This text asserts that school improvement narrowly defined as improving results on high stakes tests can likewise place the nation at risk An equally important agenda is teaching the young the basic satisfactions norms and potential of using their knowledge in the service of the community and of a wider humanity Exercises in Reflective Practice This book challenges the reader to use the ideas of each chapter to analyze the current practices in their school and to propose concrete changes to improve the teaching and learning environment of their school A Marriage of Philosophy and Music Erich Welling,2014-04 How to use philosophy and music to open your horizons and enjoy being yourself put theory to work and help you experience personal growth is discussed in A Marriage of Philosophy and Music. It is all about after. After having a liberal education you are comfortable in modern culture and after further education and becoming a specialist in some field you enjoy using your skills. We learn the ideas and methods of many social cultures and our own chosen specialty but we often neglect the liberal art of disciplining and enjoying the ideas and methods of our own individuality. This book offers a path toward the education of privacy with the key words being selection, design, and beauty. The book relates five areas of general human interest: spirituality, philosophy, science, art, and body awareness. The interrelation is accomplished by using personal patterns of experience that are available from philosophy and music. Because of the plurality of subject matters and methods used in philosophy and music, their patterns of discipline are comparable to self-discipline. A Marriage of Philosophy and Music attempts to create a path in this direction because besides the enjoyment of social culture and personal skills, there is enjoyment in being yourself, which is a neglected liberal art.

Redeeming the Time Stephen Bede Scharper, 1998-06-01. A thoughtful and interesting contribution to environmental theology literature. Choice. Richly informative and provocative. Review for Religious Stephen Bede Scharper has added a significant new book to the growing collection of Christian ecotheological offerings; an admirable job of summarizing the main strands of Christian environmental theologies and highlighting the most valuable contributions of each. heartfelt. There is much to celebrate in this book; it presents a comprehensible and accessible guide to the major varieties of what Scharper calls Christian ecological theology. In this book, he succeeds not just in coherently summarizing a number of the most important voices in ecotheology but also in giving us a blueprint for the changed consciousness necessary to motivate a conversion from our destructive, earth-damaging behavior to a more earth-friendly way of living.
