performers and listeners alike This volume contains the work of eleven North American scholars who have been recipients of the Ralph Vaughan Williams Fellowship based at the composer's own school Charterhouse which was created and has been supported by the Carthusian Trust since 1985 This wide ranging and detailed collection of essays covers the spectrum of genres in which Vaughan Williams wrote including dance symphony opera song hymnody and film music The contributors also employ a range of analytical and historical methods of investigation to illuminate aspects of Vaughan Williams's compositional techniques and influences musical literary and visual Catalogue May and May (Firm),1984 An Imperishable Heritage: British Choral Music from Parry to Dyson Stephen Town,2016-04-15 The rehabilitation of British music began with Hubert Parry and Charles Villiers Stanford Ralph Vaughan Williams assisted in its emancipation from continental models while Gerald Finzi Edmund Rubbra and George Dyson flourished in its independence Stephen Town's survey of Choral Music of the English Musical Renaissance is rooted in close examination of selected works from these composers Town collates the substantial secondary literature on these composers and brings to bear his own study of the autograph manuscripts The latter form an unparalleled record of compositional process and shed new light on the compositions as they have come down to us in their published and recorded form This close study of the sources allows Town to identify for the first time instances of similarity and imitation continuities and connections between the works The Quarterly Journal of the Library of Congress ,1974 Gustav Holst Mary Christison Huismann,2011-04-26 First published in 2011 this text provides citations to the core Holst literature The volume is intended for students and researchers as well as those seeking an introduction to Holst The inclusion of materials for the non specialist seems entirely appropriate as Holst devoted much of his career to teaching amateur musicians The contents of this book presents a selective annotated list of essential materials published through the end of 2009 although a very few exceptions were made for a limited number of post 2009 print and web resources The Musical Times ,1973 Quarterly Journal of Current Acquisitions Library of Congress,1974 A Song of Thanksgiving by Ralph Vaughan Williams Craig D.
