Patio and Pavilion Penelope Curtis, 2008 This book examines the relationship between modern sculpture and architecture in the mid twentieth century an interplay that has laid the ground for the semi sculptural or semi architectural works by architects such as Frank Gehry and artists such as Dan Graham The first half of the book looks at how the addition of sculpture enhanced several architectural projects including Mies van der Rohe s Barcelona Pavilion 1929 and Eliel Saarinen s Cranbrook Campus 1934 The second half of the book uses several additional case studies including Philip Johnson s sculpture court for New York s Museum of Modern Art 1953 to explore what architectural spaces can add to the sculpture they are designed to contain Curtis argues that it was in the middle of the twentieth century before sculptural and architectural forms began to converge that the complementary nature of though essential difference between the two art forms began to clearly emerge how figurative sculpture highlighted the modernist architectural experience and how the abstract qualities of that architecture imparted to sculpture a heightened role Architects' Drawings Kendra Schank Smith,2006-08-11 Sketches from prominent architects drawn from an international selection A unique insight into how architects use sketches to develop and transfer complex concepts into physical form enabling readers to improve the connection between their own ideas and designs Reveals the secrets of the most successful sketching techniques used by architects for today s designers The Secret Life of the Modern House Dominic Bradbury,2021-04-01 Informative and entertaining this publication is a feast for the eyes while also thought provoking and offers excellent inspiration for daydreaming about what makes the perfect modern house Wallpaper A fascinating selection of innovative homes this is a thoughtful journey through the evolution of domestic architecture Sunday Express Over the last century the way that we live at home has changed dramatically Nothing short of a design revolution has transformed our houses and the spaces within them moving from traditional patterns of living all the way through to an era of more fluid open plan and modern styles Whether we live in a new home or a period house our spaces will have been shaped one way or another by the pioneering Modernists and Mid century architects and designers who argued for a fresh way of life Architectural and design writer Dominic Bradbury charts the course of this voyage all the way from the late 19th century through to the houses of today in this ground breaking book Over nineteen thematic chapters he explains the way our houses have been reinvented while taking in along the way the giants of Art Deco influential Modernists including Le Corbusier and Frank Lloyd Wright as well as post war innovators such as Eero Saarinen and Philip Johnson Taking us from the 20th to the 21st century Bradbury explores the progress of modernity itself and reveals the secret history of our very own homes Neue Sachlichkeit and Avant-Garde Ralf Grüttemeier,Klaus Beekman,Ben Rebel,2013 One of the aims of the book is to shed more light on the notion Neue Sachlichkeit in its appearance in a variety of fields as painting architecture music photography and literature in order to get a clearer idea of its scope Several contributions will do so by analysing the heterogeneity in the use of the term concerning its function in the fight for recognition in the art fields around 1930 in other words Neue Sachlichkeit will be analysed as a positioning strategy Especially its participation in the broader discourse on modernity as well as its international and intermedial dimension will be highlighted often using the historical avant garde as point of reference From this perspective the present volume wants to be read as a plea for a differentiated description of the many shared aspects and some differences between the avant garde and Neue Sachlichkeit
