Right After Sundown Marilyne Virginia Mabery, 1991 Twelve Navajo tales some creation myths others featuring Coyote all reflecting the traditional values of Navajo society

A Place to Be Navajo Teresa L. McCarty, 2002-02-01 A Place To Be Navajo is the only book length ethnographic account of a revolutionary Indigenous self determination movement that began in 1966 with the Rough Rock Demonstration School Called Din Bi Ita The People s School in recognition of its status as the first American Indian community controlled school Rough Rock was the first to teach in the Native language and to produce a body of quality children s literature by and about Navajo people These innovations have positioned the school as a leader in American Indian and bilingual bicultural education and have enabled school participants to wield considerable influence on national policy This book is a critical life history of this singular school and community McCarty s account grows out of 20 years of ethnographic work by the author with the Din Navajo community of Rough Rock The story is told primarily through written text but also through the striking black and white images of photographer Fred Bia a member of the Rough Rock community Unlike most accounts of Indigenous schooling this study involves the active participation of Navajo community members Their oral testimony and that of other leaders in Indigenous Navajo education frame and texture the account Informed by critical theories of education this book is not just the story of a single school and community It is also an inquiry into the larger struggle for self determination by Indigenous and other minoritized communities raising issues of identity voice and community empowerment A Place To Be Navajo asks whether school can be a place where children learn question and grow in an environment that values and builds upon who they are The author argues that the questions Rough Rock raises and the responses they summon implicate us all

The Earth Memory Compass Farina King, 2018-10-01 The Din or Navajo have their own ways of knowing and being in the world a cultural identity linked to their homelands through ancestral memory The Earth Memory Compass traces this tradition as it is imparted from generation to generation and as it has been transformed and often obscured by modern modes of education An autoethnography of sorts the book follows Farina King s search for her own Din identity as she investigates the interconnections among Navajo students their people and Din Bik yah or Navajo lands across the twentieth century In her exploration of how historical changes in education have reshaped Din identity and community King draws on the insights of ethnohistory cultural history and Navajo language At the center of her study is the Din idea of the Four Directions in which each of the cardinal directions takes its meaning from a sacred mountain and its accompanying element East for instance is Sis Naajin Blanca Peak and white shell West Dook o oos d San Francisco Peaks and abalone North Dib Nitsaa Hesperus Peak and black jet South Tsoodzi Mount Taylor and turquoise King elaborates on the meanings and teachings of the mountains and directions throughout her book to illuminate how Navajos have embedded memories in landmarks to serve as a compass for their people a compass threatened by the dislocation and disconnection of Din students from their land communities and Navajo ways of learning Critical to this story is how inextricably Indigenous education and experience is intertwined with American dynamics of power and history As environmental catastrophes and struggles over resources sever the connections among peoplehood land and water King s book holds out hope that the teachings guidance and knowledge of an earth memory compass still have the power to bring the people and the earth together Multicultural Issues in Literacy Research and Practice Arlette Ingram Willis,Georgia Earnest Garcia,Rosalinda B. Barrera,Violet J. Harris,2014-04-04 Brings together current research that addresses multicultural issues in literacy theory research practice Included are a range of methodologies naturalistic ethnographic

Native Presence and Sovereignty in College Amanda R. Tachine,2022-04-29 What is at stake when our young people attempt to belong to a college environment that reflects a world that does not want them for who they are In this compelling book Navajo scholar Amanda Tachine takes a personal look at 10 Navajo teenagers following their experiences during their last year in high school and into their first year in college It is common to think of this life transition as a time for creating new connections to a campus community but what if there are systemic mechanisms lurking in that community that hurt Native students chances of earning a degree Tachine describes these mechanisms as systemic monsters and shows how campus environments can be sites of harm for Indigenous students due to factors that she terms monsters sense of belonging namely assimilating diminishing harming the worldviews of those not rooted in White supremacy heteropatriarchy capitalism racism and Indigenous erasure This book addresses the nature of those monsters and details the Indigenous weapons that students use to defeat them Rooted in love life sacredness and sovereignty these weapons reawaken students presence and power Book Features Introduces an Indigenous methodological approach called story rug that demonstrates how research can be expanded to encompass all our senses Weaves together Navajo youths stories of struggle and hope in educational settings making visible systemic monsters and Indigenous weaponry Draws from Navajo knowledge systems as an analytic tool to connect history to present and future realities Speaks to the contemporary situation of Native peoples illuminating the challenges that Native students face in making the transition to college Examines historical and contemporary realities of Navajo systemic monsters such as the financial hardship monster deficit not enough monster failure monster and in visibility monster Offers insights for higher education institutions that are seeking ways to create belonging for diverse students

Language, Literacy, and Power in Schooling Teresa L. McCarty,2006-04-21 This text brings critical ethnographic perspectives to bear on the negotiation of language literacy and power in culturally and linguistically diverse contexts showing how literacy and schooling are negotiated by children and adults and how schooling becomes a key site of struggle over whose knowledge discourses and literacy practices count Resources in Education ,2001 New Mexico Magazine ,1995 Reclaiming Indigenous Research in Higher Education Robin Starr Minthorn,Heather J. Shotton,2018-02-27 No detailed description available for Reclaiming Indigenous Research in Higher Education Navajos, Apaches and Pueblos Since 1940 Nancy Jill Howard,1995 Lists works which exam the socioeconomic and political history cultural history and governmental and legal history of Navajos Apaches and Pueblos Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 Resources in Education ,1993 Reference Encyclopedia of the American Indian Barry T. Klein, 2000 Ákó hoo t'éeé ñt'éeé' Barbara Van Slyke Anderson, 2010-04-13 This memoir describes the experience of a woman who came from northern New York to teach on the Navajo Reservation in the 1940 s the life she found the students she taught the neighbors she came to understand the wisdom she found and the home she made there for the next forty years It was a complex wild and beautiful place in which a complex and rich interaction took place between two cultures the Navajo and the Anglo Barbara recounts in intimate and well lived detail her understanding of place time culture and change and her story is enhanced by the photographic record of pictures taken mostly by her husband Douglas Anderson over the span of those forty years Teaching With Dear America Books Jeannette Sanderson, 2001 Covers time periods Colonial America Revolutionary War Westward expansion Civil War Immigration American Folk Art Kristin G. Congdon, Kara Kelley Hallmark, 2012-03-19 Folk art is as varied as it is indicative of person and place informed by innovation and grounded in cultural context The variety and versatility of 300 American folk artists is captured in this collection of informative and thoroughly engaging essays American Folk Art A Regional Reference offers a collection of fascinating essays on the life and work of 300 individual artists Some of the men and women profiled in these two volumes are well known while others are important practitioners who have yet to receive the notice they merit Because many of the artists in both categories have a clear identity with their land and culture the work is organized by geographical region and includes an essay on each region to help make connections visible There is also an introductory essay on U S folk art as a whole Those writing about folk art to date tend to view each artist as either traditional or innovative One of the major contributions of this work is that it demonstrates that folk artists more often exhibit both traits they are grounded in their cultural context and creative in the way they make work their own Such insights expand the study of folk art even as they readjust readers understanding of who folk artists are Sunset ,1923 Dark Revelation - The Role Playing Game - Player's Guide C.N. Constantin, Jason Cable Hall, 2014-12-07 The Hodgepocalypse takes North America and the d20 system and makes it a diverse world filled with magical rites modern technology and bizarre cultures Spider Woman Gladys Amanda Reichard, 1997 This lively account of a pioneering anthropologist s experiences with a Navajo family grew out of the author s desire to learn to weave as a way of participating in Navajo culture rather than observing it from the outside In 1930 when Gladys Reichard came to stay with the family of Red Point a well known Navajo singer it was unusual for an anthropologist to live with a family and become intimately connected with women s activities First published in 1934 for a popular audience Spider Woman is valued today not just for its information on Navajo culture but as an early example of the kind of personal honest ethnography that presents actual experiences and conversations rather than generalizing the beliefs and behaviors of a whole culture Readers interested in Navajo weaving will find it especially useful but Spider Woman s picture of daily life goes far beyond rugs to describe trips to the trading post tribal council meetings curing ceremonies and the deaths of family members

Near-Death Experiences, The Rest of the Story P.M.H. Atwater, 2009-01-09 Real life stories of out of body experiences encountering a special light greeters from the afterlife life reviews tunnels and 360 degree vision are all part of this intriguing look at near death experiences NDEs by one of the world's noted authorities P M H Atwater Atwater shares her amazing findings based on her sessions with more than 4 000 adults and children and over 40 years of research a breathtaking culmination to a successful and controversial career Atwater examines every aspect of the near death phenomenon from first hand accounts of survivors experiencing flash forwards waking up in morgues and developing psychic abilities to stunning cases of groups experiencing NDEs together Atwater offers statistics from her findings to show the distinctive common patterns that people experience as well as the common aftereffects and how it changed their lives She also explores the physiological and spiritual changes that result from near death experiences and looks at the connections between the NDE experience and what is often called enlightenment Near Death Experiences not only provides a glimpse of what lies beyond the veil of our temporal existence but points to what or who we really are and what we are meant to be Right After Sundown Teaching Stories Of The Navajo: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Right After Sundown Teaching Stories Of The Navajo : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Right After Sundown Teaching Stories Of The Navajo : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
