Prosperity and Torment in France Chantal Delsol, 2025-08-01 A philosophical and historical analysis of the paradox of French democracy that illuminates the challenges of the current democratic age In Prosperity and Torment in France philosopher Chantal Delsol provides an analysis of the current state of affairs in French politics economics and cultural life that reveals key lessons for modern democracies around the world She examines the seeming paradox of France as a wealthy country that provides almost unrivaled social services to its citizens at no extra cost but one whose citizens are unsatisfied with the current state of affairs Delsol traces this current dilemma back several hundred years and examines the principle of the common good and its inherent tension with concepts like democracy and egalitarianism that often emphasize individualism Likewise Delsol emphasizes this concept also stands in contrast to the centralization of power in Paris throughout its history In the end Delsol notes that these historical tensions set the stage for many of the current tensions in France secularism versus religion economic liberalism versus the welfare state civil service versus the private sector and material wealth versus status By examining the paradox of France Delsol brings to the forefront the challenges democracies are facing around the globe and asks the broader question of how governments should best serve their people in our contemporary world

The Human Rights of Aliens Under International and Comparative Law Carmen Tiburcio, 2001-01-01 This volume deals with the basic human rights of aliens from the perspective of international and comparative law It examines the rules regarding treatment of aliens and the extent to which these rules have been adopted in the domestic legislation of more than 40 different states It aims to achieve two basic goals 1 to define the status of aliens under international law that is which rights are granted to every person by international instruments and 2 to establish whether this set of rules has been adopted by the domestic legislation of the states under review The author classifies the basic human rights of aliens into seven different categories namely 1 fundamental rights 2 private rights 3 social and cultural rights 4 economic rights 5 political rights 6 public rights and 7 procedural rights For each of these categories she reviews opinions of international legal commentators decisions of international and regional tribunals as well as national legislation domestic court decisions and opinions of local authorities
