Rights Of Peoples:

The African Charter of Human and People's Rights Fatsah Ouguerouz, 2003-01-01 PART ONE Challenges to the Human Rights of People with Intellectual Disabilities Frances Owen, Dorothy Griffiths, 2008-12-15 This book provides a multidisciplinary examination of human rights and the lives of people with intellectual disabilities It combines historical psychological philosophical social educational medical and legal perspectives to form a unique and insightful account of the subject Selected State and Federal Laws Affecting Employment and Certain Rights of People with Disabilities United States. President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped, 1980 Nations, Identities, Cultures V. Y. Mudimbe, 1997 This volume investigates the concepts of nation identity and culture as they have evolved within the context of exile Contributors explore various theoretical issues involved in reconfiguring these concepts since the 19th century as well as the manifestations of these issues in specific regions of the world International Human Rights Philip Alston, Ryan Goodman, 2013 The successor to International human rights in context law politics and morals Bulletin, 1917 Global Intersectionality and Contemporary Human Rights Johanna Bond, 2021-07-22 Global Intersectionality and Contemporary Human Rights argues for an expansive definition of human rights one that encompasses the harm caused by multiple intersecting forms of subordination Intersectionality theory posits that aspects of identity such as race and gender are mutually constitutive and intersect to create unique experiences of discrimination and subordination Perpetrators of sexual violence in armed conflict of example often target women based on both gender and ethnicity Human rights remedies that fail to capture the intersectional nature of human rights violations do not offer comprehensive redress to victims This title explores the influence of intersectionality theory on human rights in the modern era and traces the evolution of intersectionality as a theoretical framework in the United States and around the world It draws upon feminist theory and human rights jurisprudence to argue that scholars and activists have under utilized intersectionality theory in the global discourse of human rights As the central intergovernmental organization charged with the protection of human rights the United Nations has been slow to embrace the insights gained from intersectionality theory This work argues that the United Nations and other human rights organizations must more actively embrace intersectionality as an analytical framework in order to fully address the complexity of human rights violations around the world Arctic Wars, Animal Rights, Endangered Peoples Finn Lynge, 2002-06 This analysis of animal rights movements from a native and northern viewpoint focusses on Inuit groups and discusses cultural imperialism endangered species and a philosophy of wise use rather than no use of natural resources Health, Rights and Globalisation Belinda Bennett, 2017-03-02 This volume draws together essays from leading scholars on the challenges that arise for health law policy and ethics at the intersections of health rights and globalization The papers in this volume address global issues in public health globalization and bioethics and globalization and biotechnology This volume will be invaluable to all those interested in global issues in health The Road

Current History ,1918 Young People, Rights and Place Stuart Aitken,2018-05-16 Concern is growing about children s rights and the curtailment of those rights through the excesses of neoliberal governance This book discusses children s spatial and citizenship rights and the ways young people and their families push against diminished rights Armed initially with theoretical concerns about the construction of children through the political status quo and the ways youth rights are spatially segregated the book begins with a disarmingly simple supposition Young people have the right to make and remake their spaces and as a consequence themselves This book de centers monadic ideas of children in favor of a post humanist perspective which embraces the radical relationality of children as more than children more than human Its empirical focus begins with the struggles of Slovenian Izbrisani erased youth from 1992 to the present day and reaches out to child rights and youth activists elsewhere in the world with examples from South America Eastern Europe and the USA The author argues that universal child rights have not worked and pushes for a more radical sustainable ethics which dares to admit that children s humanity is something more than we as adults can imagine Chapters in this groundbreaking contribution will be of interest to students researchers and practitioners in the social sciences humanities and public policy The African
