Marsh, 2004-09-01 Since the attacks of September 11 2001 the tension between civil rights and public safety has dominated public discourse On issues ranging from racial profiling to military tribunals Americans have had to ask whether it is possible for the United States to defend itself against terrorism without violating the values and principles that lie at the heart of its democratic order In Rights vs Public Safety after 9 11 some of the nation s leading legal experts and social critics confront this question head on The contributors offer measured often communitarian approaches to topics such as the changes in United States immigration policy after September 11th the practical and moral difficulties of racial profiling the ethical dilemmas of an emergency response to a bioterrorist attack and the role of the government in promoting national service This balanced compilation of essays highlights where government will need to expand its authority in the fight against terrorism where it risks overreaching and how this new era might strengthen American society

Transcultural Identities in Contemporary Literature Irene Gilsenan Nordin, Julie Hansen, Carmen Zamorano Llena, 2013-10-01 In recent decades globalization has led to increased mobility and interconnectedness For a growing number of people contemporary life entails new local and transnational interdependencies which transform individual and collective allegiances Contemporary literature often reflects these changes through its exploration of migrant experiences and transcultural identities Calling into question traditional definitions of culture many recent works of poetry and prose fiction go beyond the spatial boundaries of a given state emphasizing instead the mixing and collision of languages cultures and identities In doing so they also challenge recent and contemporary discourses about cultural identities fostering a more nuanced understanding of the complexities of identity formation processes in diverse transcultural frameworks This volume analyses how traditional understandings of culture as well as literary representations of identity constructs can be reconceptualized from a transcultural perspective In four thematic sections focusing on migration cosmopolitanism multiculturalism and literary translingualism the twelve essays included in this volume explore various facets of transculturality in contemporary poetry and fiction from around the world Contributors Malin Lidström Brock Katherina Dodou Pilar Cuder Domínguez Stefan Helgesson Christoph Houswitschka Carly McLaughlin Kristin Rebien J B Rollins Karen L Ryan Eric Sellin Mats Tegmark Carmen Zamorano Llena Irene Gilsenan Nordin is Professor of English Literature at Dalarna University Sweden She is founder and director of DUCIS Dalarna University Centre for Irish Studies and leads Dalarna University's Transcultural Identities research group Julie Hansen is Research Fellow at the Uppsala Centre for Russian and Eurasian Studies and teaches Russian literature in the Department of Modern Languages at Uppsala University Sweden Carmen Zamorano Llena is Associate Professor of English Literature at Dalarna University Sweden and member of Dalarna University's Transcultural Identities research group

The Moral Dimension of Asymmetrical Warfare Th.A. van Baarda, D.E.M. Verweij, 2009-06-30 During the Cold War an era in which the term asymmetric warfare was not well known the issue of the laws and ethics of war seemed simple enough to most soldiers being concerned mainly with leadership management and morale Post Cold War reality revealed a very different set of challenges including a significantly wider moral dimension particularly when forces initially under UN leadership and later under the NATO flag were deployed in different parts of the turbulent Balkans Military observers by now with legal advisers close by watched events in the Balkans East Timor and then in central and West Africa with professional interest and some were involved there A few years later soldiers were subsequently caught as much by surprise by the events of 9 11 a graphic example of asymmetric warfare as most of the rest of the world The initial post 9 11 response in Afghanistan and Iraq brought the notion of the fragile or collapsed state and the blurring of the roles of military forces international organisations non governmental organisations non state actors and indigenous administrators and their uniformed organisations and with them the moral dilemmas to much wider notice More recent conflicts have indeed shown the need for commanders and soldiers in all types of conflict to have a much better understanding of the complex moral and legal environments and opened new debates about the principle of winning hearts and minds in counter insurgency and peace support operations Moreover technological superiority by the West has also produced mixed benefits in the field of military operations and posed additional dilemmas many of them moral The trend towards defining human rights and fundamental freedoms poses further questions for the soldier today This collection of essays written by a wide variety of practising experts and scholars touches on all these issues It links the medieval traditions of jus in bello codified by Saint Thomas Aquinas in the Christian Church nearly eight centuries ago to examination of modern challenges and moral dilemmas relating to the ethics and laws of conflict and crises of all types in the twenty first century and in a global context among people of many different faiths and beliefs and none It is an important collection for all those researching or practically involved in conflict and post conflict situations
