lassies the poems by Campbell by Sir Walter Scott by Burns by the Scottish song writers and the Scottish minstrels of the ballad are in an unexpectedly large proportion to the poems by English authors The Editor believes that this predominance of Northern verse is not due to any exorbitant local patriotism of his own The singers of the North for some reason or other do excel in poems of action and of adventure or to him they seem to excel He is acquainted with no modern ballad by a Southern Englishman setting aside Christabel and the Ancient Mariner poems hardly to be called ballads which equals Pg viii The Eve of St John For spirit stirring martial strains few Englishmen since Drayton have been rivals of Campbell of Scott of Burns of Hogg with his song of Donald McDonald Two names indeed might be mentioned here the names of the late Sir Francis Doyle and of Lord Tennyson But the scheme of this book excludes a choice from contemporary poets      The Rose of Sharon
