A Man of Letters V.S. Pritchett,2011-10-28 V S Pritchett is widely and justly regarded not only as one of the finest short story writers of this century but as a critic and essayist of astonishing range perception and originality Combining an unpretentious common sense with a rare genius for the illuminating insight into the familiar and the neglected alike his criticism is all the more valuable in an age in which the study of literature has become increasingly arid and arcane and unlike so many of his academic counterparts V S Pritchett has always had a remarkable ability to epitomise a writer s work and convey his own enthusiasm for it within the compass of a short and eminently accessible essay First published in 1985 A Man of Letters brings together a selection of his finest and most representative work from the past forty years ranging from Smollett and Peacock to Evelyn Waugh and Cyril Connolly from Henry James and Nathanael West to Stendhal and Proust from Nabokov and Machado de Assis to Manzoni and Dostoevsky This wise and sparkling collection is in itself a lasting tribute to one of the greatest Men of Letters of our time through vivid personal correspondence draws a picture of a powerful friendship and of a young man's dilemma the man of letters of the title finds himself split between and in love with two cultures essentially incompatible East and West In his desperate struggle to reconcile them his soul is estranged and he is thrown or escapes deeper into the backstreet abyss of First World War Paris In the end it is perhaps the very impracticality of his own morality that destroys him      George Tucker, Moral Philosopher and Man of Letters Robert Colin McLean, 1961      American Notes Daniel Aaron, 1994 This first collection of Aaron's influential writings focuses on American novels poems biographies and auto biographies that are viewed largely as cultural artifacts Many of the selections explore the relation of literature and history a theme that runs through much of Aaron's work      *Letters to a man of the world ...
