The Rise of Modern China Immanuel Chung-Yueh Hsü,1983 The third edition of this outstanding textbook vividly describes China's extraordinary metamorphosis from a traditional self-sufficient empire into a modern nation. Professor Hsü surveys the main currents of modern Chinese history from 1600 to the present, focusing throughout on the forces that shaped China's political, diplomatic, intellectual, social and economic history. Literary Representations of Christianity in Late Qing and Republican China John T. P. Lai,2019-03-27 Literary Representations of Christianity in Late Qing and Republican China contributes to the literary turn in the study of Chinese Christianity by foregrounding the importance of literary texts, including the major genres of Chinese Christian literature: novels, drama and poetry of the late Qing and Republican periods. These multifarious types of texts demonstrated the multiple representations and dynamic scenes of Christianity where Christian imageries and symbolism were transformed by linguistic manipulation into new contextualized forms which nurtured distinctive new fruits of literature and modernized the literary landscape of Chinese literature. The study of the composition and poetics of Chinese Christian literary works helps us rediscover the concerns, priorities, textual strategies of the Christian writers, the cross-cultural challenges involved and the reception of the Bible.

division and the democracy dictatorship division Is the world heading for doomsday We wait and see      Social Ties, Resources, and Migrant Labor Contention in Contemporary China Jeffrey Becker, 2014-07-22 The growth of China's internal migrant labor population is one of the most important issues emerging from the Hu Jintao regime As China continues to undergo an urbanization process as profound as any in modern history there is little doubt migrant workers are affecting economic and political decision making at the central and local levels Relying on interviews with over 250 Chinese migrant workers peasant farmers who have moved to the cities in search of work as well as interviews with Chinese labor activists this book explores the evolution of migrant labor protest in China over the past three decades It examines how migrant workers engage in protest today and how they choose from available protest strategies While past studies of Chinese rural to urban migration have long acknowledged the importance of traditional rural ties between family members this book demonstrates how new urban ties help migrant workers learn of new protest options navigate the legal system connect with others sharing similar disputes and identify additional resources The book also examines the growth and importance of Chinese migrant labor rights organizations and the role of information communication technology in migrant labor protest activity The findings presented here shed new light on Chinese state society relations and economic development Moreover the findings from this book which demonstrate how economic reforms create opportunities for protest and how migrant workers take advantages of these opportunities have implications for our understanding of contentious politics in other authoritarian states undergoing similar economic and demographic transition      Discourse and Socio-political Transformations in Contemporary China Paul Chilton, Hailong Tian, Ruth Wodak, 2012-09-05 China's opening up to the West its extraordinary economic rise and the subsequent internal and global issues are an object of huge interest and concern Discourse and Socio-political Transformations in Contemporary China focuses on one aspect of the contemporary Chinese phenomenon one that is so obvious that it is generally ignored in the mainstream academic departments that politics society and transformation are the product of myriad collective linguistic interchanges some stabilized some competing some agonistic some new and emerging As an outcome of dialogue between Chinese and Western scholars the present volume contains case studies that offer a survey of the discourse aspect of Chinese society in social stratification government service policy consultancy higher education foreign policy and TV The conceptual reflections on discourse and critique in different cultures offer new considerations for discourse analysis including critical discourse analysis in the context of Chinese society today This volume was originally published as a special issue of Journal of Language and Politics 9 4 2010      Modern China's Ethnic Frontiers Hsiao-ting Lin, 2010-09-13 The purpose of this book is to examine the strategies and practices of the Han Chinese Nationalists vis vis post Qing China's ethnic minorities as well as to explore the role they played in the formation of contemporary China's Central Asian frontier territoriality and border security The Chinese Revolution of 1911 initiated by Sun Yat sen liberated the Han Chinese from the rule of the Manchus and ended the Qing dynastic order that had existed for centuries With the collapse of the Qing dynasty the Mongols and the Tibetans who had been dominated by the Manchus took advantage of the revolution and declared their independence Under the leadership of Yuan Shikai the new Chinese Republican government in Peking in turn proclaimed the similar five nationality Republic proposed by the Revolutionaries as a model with which to sustain the deteriorating Qing territorial order The shifting politics of the multi ethnic state during the regime transition and the role those politics played in defining the identity of the modern Chinese state were issues that would haunt the new Chinese Republic from its inception to its downfall Modern China s Ethnic Frontiers will be of interest to students and scholars of Chinese history Asian history and modern history
