Knox,2023-03-27 For every human on earth the clock is ticking towards their inevitable death Whether one lives to the oldest of ages expiring quietly or death comes suddenly with a slip on the ice or in any other of the myriad of ways people die the end of biological life is the outcome for everyone For the Christian however there is the expectation of continuation beyond this fleeting life on earth Naturalists have no such optimism and can only hope that their time on earth is a pleasant one Because Christians have a divine assurance they want to share that hope with others Still theological questions remain Can near death experiences help lead those far from Christ to him Can they be added to the repertoire of apologetic arguments for Christianity This book examines the truth surrounding near death experiences how they have been seen in human culture what the scientific community is learning about those who have near death experiences and how near death experiences can be used or not used in your evangelistic encounters Theology of Hope Jürgen Moltmann,2021-10-08 Causing a considerable stir when it was first published in Germany in 1965 Theology of Hope represents a comprehensive statement of the importance for theology of eschatology and of an eschatological theology which emphasizes the revolutionary effect of Christian hope upon the thought institutions and conditions of life in the here and now Jürgen Moltmann understands Christian faith essentially as hope for the future of humankind and creation as this has been promised by the God of the exodus and the resurrection of the crucified Jesus God s promise is the compulsory force of history awakening hope which keeps human beings unreconciled to present experience sets them in contradistinction to prevailing natural and social powers and makes the church the source of continual new impulses towards in Moltmann's own words the realization of righteousness freedom and humanity in the light of the promised future that is to come This new expanded edition of a theological classic includes his 2020 Charles Gore lecture A Theology of Hope for the 21st Century in which he offers a powerful reflection on the nature of hope in our current times
