What's Love Got to Do With It Dr. John Chirban, 2012-06-04 Having trouble talking to your kids about sex Their friends at school don't Unfortunately for many parents the most important conversations are the hardest Ninety three percent of adults are dissatisfied with the sex education they received as children which is precisely why they are so bad at teaching their kids they have no frame of reference Renowned Harvard Medical School psychologist and frequent Dr Phil guest John Chirban helps parents talk to their kids about sex Kids are going to learn about sex and it is up to parents to decide if their kids are going to learn from them or from MTV How parents address sex their openness the context and their attitudes will impact how their children view their own sexuality and self worth Dr Chirban helps parents know when how and how much He uses humor compassion and real life examples to prepare parents for a healthy and ongoing conversation that will equip their kids to own their own sexuality and an understanding of the larger issues of relationships love commitment and intimacy In addition parents understand how helping their children understand these veiled yet critical keys of a fulfilling life deepens their own connection with their children

Self-Advocacy Cheryl Gerson Tuttle, JoAnn Augeri Silva, 2007-06-22 Young people come to realize sometimes painfully early that it isn't always possible to depend on adults to make sure they are treated safely fairly and legally When teens are faced with situations that are unfair immoral illegal and unjust they do not need to be victims They can learn to speak up for themselves effectively to improve their own lives and the lives of others The skill of self advocacy rarely comes naturally for teens Self Advocacy The Ultimate Teen Guide offers a set of skills for young people to sort through and acquire and encourages them to speak up about what is bothering them The book gives them helpful tools they can adapt to deal with adults they must work with and in some cases against in order to come to a solution to their problem Self Advocacy provides information teens need to have to advocate for themselves The introduction and first three chapters explain what self advocacy is identify when and why it might be necessary for teens to speak up for themselves provide a step by step guide on how to self advocate successfully and offer specific real world advice about how to wisely use the power of the media to publicize their cause Seven issue specific chapters follow Each topic is treated in a dignified organized and comprehensive way providing information teens can use and resources they can draw upon The issues and information in those chapters deal with the real world and don't shy away from the difficulties young people encounter every day such as personal rights school issues learning disabilities physical disability sexuality legal issues and foster care Each chapter includes the voices and experiences of teens who have encountered issues and decided to speak up for and get what they need Teens who learn how to advocate for themselves and then act are not only taking steps to right whatever wrong they have been facing they are also preparing themselves for a successful adult life     HIV/AIDS Update Colorado.
