Rita Hayworth A Memoir:

Rita Hayworth, a Memoir James Hill, 1983 Screenwriter producer James Hill was Rita Hayworth's fifth and last husband When love bloomed and though marriage soon followed the relationship was doomed Hill wanted to revitalize Rita's career getting her a serious role in Separate Tables pairing her with Gary Cooper in They Came to Cordura and obsessively pushing her to reveal her comedienne talents to the world Rita on the other hand preferred reading and painting and quiet finally revealing her utter lack of interest in movies of all varieties Hill thought to rescue her from the sharks of the film business but found that he too was using her There are a few intriguing movie making details and copious anecdotal in this often gushy likable yet murky view of the star herself Not the usual star bio by a long shot with only intermittent appeal for the legion of Hayworth fans

Lancaster is perhaps most widely remembered as the tough iron jawed star of films such as Gunfight at the OK Corral and Airport But as this superbly readable and insightful biography demonstrates he was an actor with much broader ambitions brilliantly realised in Visconti s The Leopard as well as the founder of the first actor led production company in Hollywood Lancaster s liberal political views led not only to frequent clashes with the House Un American Activities Committee and a voluminous FBI file but also a private life that was colourful even by Hollywood standards Although a devoted father and husband to three wives the actor took numerous lovers of both sexes In his sexual tastes as in his choice of roles he defied classification Kate Buford s definitive biography offers a full frank sensitive and compelling portrait of the star of Atlantic City From Here to Eternity and Elmer Gantry for which he won a Best Actor Oscar Lancaster emerges as a man of restless energy relentless curiosity and continual development as an actor a star every bit as interesting offscreen as on As one American reviewer put it Not many film stars receive first class biographies Burt Lancaster not only deserved one he got one Acclaimed biographer Kate Buford has been a regular commentator on National Public Radio in the United States since 1994
