Lieu, 1985 A unique and thrilling insight into the brilliant mind of Anne Lister Sally Wainwright creator of Gentleman Jack Female Fortune is the book which inspired Sally Wainwright to write Gentleman Jack now a major drama series for the BBC and HBO Lesbian landowner Anne Lister inherited Shibden Hall in 1826 She was an impressive scholar fearless traveller and successful businesswoman even developing her own coalmines Her extraordinary diaries running to 4 5 million words were partly written in her own secret code and recorded her love affairs with startling candour The diaries were included on UNESCO s Memory of the World Register in 2011 Jill Liddington s classic edition of the diaries tells the story of how Anne Lister wooed and seduced neighbouring heiress Ann Walker who moved in to live with Anne and her family in 1834 Politically active Anne Lister door stepped her tenants at the 1835 Election to vote Tory And socially very ambitious she employed architects to redesign both the Hall and the estate Yet Ann Walker had an inconvenient number of local relatives suspicious of exactly how Anne Lister could pay for all her grand improvements Tensions grew to a melodramatic crescendo when news reached Shibden of the pair being burnt in effigy This 2022 edition includes a fascinating Afterword on the recent discovery of Ann Walker s own diary Female Fortune is essential reading for those who watched Gentleman Jack and want to know more about the extraordinary woman that was Anne Lister

Gwynn, 2014-11-20 This sourcebook gathers into a single collection the writings that illuminate one of the most fundamental periods in the history of Christian Europe Beginning from the Great Persecution of Diocletian and the conversion of Constantine the first Christian Roman emperor the volume explores Christianity s rise as the dominant religion of the Later Roman empire and how the Church survived the decline and fall of Roman power in the west and converted the Germanic tribes who swept into the western empire These years of crisis and transformation inspired generations of great writers among them Eusebius of Caesarea Ammianus Marcellinus Julian the Apostate Ambrose of Milan John Chrysostom Jerome and Augustine of Hippo They were also years which saw Christianity face huge challenges on many crucial questions from the evolution of Christian doctrine and the rise of asceticism to the place of women in the early Church and the emerging relationship between Church and state All these themes will be made accessible to specialists and general readers alike and the sourcebook will be invaluable for students and teachers of courses in history and church history the world of late antiquity and religious studies Tang China and the Collapse of the Uighur Empire Michael Drompp, 2021-11-29 The extant writings of the late Tang chief minister Li Deyu form the basis for Michael Drompp s reconstruction of the Tang dynasty s response to a threatening event viz the collapse of the Uighur steppe empire in 840 C E and the subsequent fleeing of large numbers of Uighur refugees to China s northern frontier Through a translation of seventy relevant documents the author analyzes the rhetoric of the crisis as well as its aftermath The extant writings of Li Deyu uniquely allow an in depth look into Chinese Inner Asian relations very unusual for such an early period This volume permits us a close look at the workings of the late Tang government particularly in terms of policy formation and implementation as well as the rhetoric surrounding such activities The Cultural Turn in Late Ancient Studies Philip Rousseau,2005-04-28 Collection of essays that focuses on questions of gender and culture in early Christianity Christians in Conversation Alberto

Rigolio,2019-02-13 To study Christian dialogues means to recognize that the dialogue form notably employed by Plato and Aristotle did not exhaust itself with the philosophical schools of Classical and Hellenistic Greece but emerged transformed and reinvigorated in the religiously diverse world of Late Antiquity The Christians s use of the dialogue form within religious controversy resulted in a burgeoning activity of composition of prose dialogues which now opposed a Christian and a Jew a Christian and a pagan a Christian and a Manichaean an orthodox and a heretic or later a Christian and a Muslim The present work offers the first comprehensive analysis of Christian dialogues in Greek and in Syriac from the earliest examples in the second century to the end of the sixth century Mass and Elite in the Greek and Roman Worlds Richard

Evans,2017-02-10 This volume has its origin in the 14th University of South Africa Classics Colloquium in which the topic and title of the event were inspired by Josiah Ober s seminal work Mass and Elite in Democratic Athens 1989 Indeed the influence this work has had on later research in all aspects of the Greek and Roman world is reflected by the diversity of the papers collected here which take their cue and starting point from the argument that in Ober s words 1989 338 Rhetorical communication between masses and elites was a primary means by which the strategic ends of social stability and political order were achieved However the contributors to the volume have also sought to build further on such conclusions and to offer new perceptions about a spread of issues affecting mass and elite interaction in a far wider number of locations around the ancient Mediterranean over a much longer chronological span Thus the conclusions here suggest that once the concept of mass and elite was established in the minds of Greeks and later Romans it became a universal component of political life and from there was easily transferred to economic activity or religion In casting the net beyond the confines of Athens although the city is also represented here to amongst others Syracuse the cities of Asia Minor Pompeii and Rome and to literary and philosophical discourse in each instance that interplay between the wider body of the community and the hierarchically privileged can be shown to have governed and directed the thoughts and actions of the participants
