Seaing through the Past Joanna Rostek, 2011-01-01 From Daniel Defoe to Joseph Conrad from Virginia Woolf to Derek Walcott the sea has always been an inspiring setting and a powerful symbol for generations of British and Anglophone writers Sealing through the Past is the first study to explicitly address the enduring relevance of the maritime metaphor in contemporary Anglophone fiction through in depth readings of fourteen influential and acclaimed novels published in the course of the last three decades The book trenchantly argues that in contemporary fiction maritime imagery gives expression to postmodernism's troubled relationship with historical knowledge as theorised by Hayden White Linda Hutcheon and others The texts in question are interpreted against the backdrop of four aspects of metahistorical problematisation Thus among others Iris Murdoch's The Sea 1978 is read in the context of auto biographical writing John Banville's The Sea 2005 as a narrative of personal trauma Julian Barnes's A History of the World in 10 1/2 Chapters 1989 as investigating the connection between discourses of origin and the politics of power and Fred D Aguiar's Feeding the Ghosts 1997 as opening up a postcolonial perspective on the sea and history

Persuasive and topical Sealing through the Past offers a compelling guide to the literary oceans of today A Question of Attraction David Nicholls, 2004-04-13 The year is 1985 Brian Jackson a working class kid on full scholarship has started his first term at university The usual freshman anxiety over fitting in is compounded by the gap between his own humble origins and the privileged backgrounds of his better off classmates Brian also has a dark secret a long held burning ambition stoked by his late father to appear on the wildly popular TV quiz show University Challenge and now finally it seems the dream is about to become reality He's made the school team and they've completed the qualifying rounds and are limbering up for their first televised match And what's more he's fallen head over heels for one of his teammates the beautiful brainy and intimidatingly posh Alice Harbinson Life seems perfect and triumph inevitable but as his world opens up Brian learns that a little knowledge can be a dangerous thing Reminiscent of such classic coming of age works as The Graduate and Goodbye Columbus A Question of Attraction marks the literary debut of David Nicholls one of England's most highly praised television writers It is an unforgettable story of love class finding one's place in the world and the all important difference between knowledge and wisdom From the Hardcover edition Marvellous Mince Meals, 2014 Shoeshoe, 1991 Debatable Land Candia McWilliam, 2011-08-15 _____ WINNER OF THE GUARDIAN FICTION PRIZE _____
