Marxism Domination New Hegelian Femini:

The Alienated Subject James A. Tyner, 2022-03-08 A timely and provocative discussion of alienation as an intersectional category of life under racial capitalism and white supremacy From the divisiveness of the Trump era to the Covid 19 pandemic alienation has become an all too familiar contemporary concept In this groundbreaking book James A Tyner offers a novel framework for understanding the alienated subject situating it within racial capitalism and white supremacy Directly addressing current economic trends and their rhetoric of xenophobia discrimination and violence The Alienated Subject exposes the universal whitewashing of alienation Drawing insight from a variety of sources including Marxism feminism existentialism and critical race theory Tyner develops a critique of both the liberal subject and the alienated subject Through an engagement with the recent pandemic and the Black Lives Matter movement he demonstrates how the alienated subject is capable of both compassion and cruelty it is a sadomasochist Tyner goes on to emphasize the importance of the particular places we find the alienated subject and how the revolutionary transformation of alienation is inherently a spatial struggle Returning to key interlocutors from Sartre to Fromm he examines political notions of distance and the spatial practices of everyday life as well as the capitalist conditions that give rise to the alienated subject For Tyner the alienated subject is not the iconic romanticized image of Marx's proletariat Here he calls for an affirmation of love as a revolutionary concept necessary for the transformation of a society marred by capitalism into an emancipated caring society conditioned by socially just relations

Hegel, Marx, And The English State David MacGregor,2019-04-08 In this radically revised intellectual portrait of Hegel and Marx that challenges standard interpretations of their political theory David MacGregor considers the nature of the state in capitalist society This is the first book to place Marx s and Hegel s political thought directly into social and historical context Revealing the revolutionary c The Greening of Sovereignty in World Politics Karen Litfin,1998 This is the first book to connect two important subfields in international relations global environmental politics and the study of sovereignty the state s exclusive authority within its territorial boundaries The authors argue that the relationship between environmental practices and sovereignty is by no means straightforward and in fact elucidates some of the core issues and challenges in world politics today Although a number of international relations scholars have assumed that transnational environmental organizations and institutions are eroding sovereignty this book makes the case that ecological integrity and state sovereignty are not necessarily in opposition It shows that the norms of sovereignty are now shifting in the face of attempts to cope with ecological destruction but that this greening of sovereignty is an uneven variegated and highly contested process By establishing that sovereignty is a socially constructed institution that varies according to time and place with multiple meanings and changing practices The Greening of Sovereignty in World Politics illuminates the complexity of the relationship between sovereignty and environmental matters and casts both in a new light Contributors Daniel Deudney Margaret Scully Granzeier Joseph Henri Jupille Sheldon Kamieniecki Thom Kuehls Ronnie D Lipschutz Karen T Litfin Marian A L Miller Ronald B Mitchell Paul Wapner Veronica Ward Franke Wilmer Social Reconstruction of the Feminine Character Sondra Farganis,1986 Sympathy and Solidarity Sandra Lee Bartky,2002-01-21 In a rare full length volume renowned feminist thinker Sandra Lee Bartky brings together eight essays in one volume Sympathy and Solidarity A philosophical work accessible to an educated general audience the essays reflect the intersection of the author s eye work and sometimes her politics Two motifs connect the works first all deal with feminist topics and themes second most deal with the reality of oppression especially in the disguised and subtle ways it can be manifested Critical Theory and the Critique of Antisemitism Marcel Stoetzler,2023-11-16 This volume provides a systematic re examination of the Frankfurt School s theory of antisemitism and employing this critical theory investigates the presence of antisemitism in 20th and 21st century politics and society Critical Theory and the Critique of Antisemitism uncovers how critical theory differs from mainstream socialist or liberal critiques of antisemitism as it frames its rejection of antisemitism in the critique of other aspects of modern capitalist society which traditional theories leave unchallenged or critique only in passing Amongst others these include issues of identity nation race and sexuality In exploring the Frankfurt School s writings on antisemitism therefore the chapters in this book reveal connections to other pressing societal issues such as racism more broadly patriarchy statism and the societal dynamics of the ever evolving capitalist mode of production Putting the theory to practice this volume brings together interdisciplinary scholars and activists who employ critical theory to scrutinise right and left wing manifestations of antisemitism They develop in their critique of antisemitism a critique of capitalism as the authors ask why does modern capitalist society seem bound to produce antisemitism And how do we challenge it At a time when the rise of populism internationally has brought with it new strains of antisemitism this is an essential resource that demonstrates the continuing relevance of the critical theory of the Frankfurt School for the struggle against antisemitism today The Owl's Flight Stefania Achella, Francesca Iannelli, Gabriella Baptist, Serena Feloj, Fiorinda Li Vigni, Claudia Melica, 2021-10-25 This book presents a unique rethinking of G W F Hegel s philosophy from unusual and controversial perspectives in order to liberate new energies from his philosophy The role Hegel ascribes to women in the shaping of society and family the reconstruction of his anthropological and psychological perspective his approach to human nature the relationship between mental illness and social disease the role of the unconscious and the relevance of intercultural and interreligious pathways All these themes reveal new and inspiring aspects of Hegel s thought for our time
