African Cities Through Local Eyes Giuseppe Faldi, Axel Fisher, Luisa Moretto, 2021-10-16 This book provides readers with a wide overview of place based planning and design experiments addressing such powerful transformations in the African built environment This continent is currently undergoing fast paced urban institutional and environmental changes which have stimulated an increasing interest for alternative architectural solutions urban designs and comprehensive planning experiments The international and balanced array of the collected contributions explore emerging research concepts for understanding urban and peri urban processes in Africa discuss bottom up planning and design practices and present inspirational and innovative co design methods and participatory tools for steering such change through public spaces sustainable services and infrastructures The book is intended for students researchers decision makers and practitioners engaged in planning and design for the built environment in Africa and the Global South at large Ethnicity, Hunter-Gatherers, and the "Other" Susan Kent, 2014-05-20 As the world continues to shrink owing to globalization the need to understand the diversity of culturally distinct societies and their interactions with neighboring groups becomes greater than ever Susan Kent has invited an international team of experts to present their insights into how one type of society African hunter gatherers has managed to survive long past the first contact between foragers farmers and pastoralists The contributors explore many issues including culture change trade tribute inter group relations autonomy dependence and differential contact histories and rates of change They consider why the association of hunter gatherers with non hunter gatherers has sometimes led to trade between autonomous societies and in other cases has led to assimilation Ethnicity Hunter Gatherers and the Other illuminates both past and present foraging societies by presenting new data and reinterpreting previously collected data within the framework of inter group interactions Migration and the Global Landscapes of Religion David Garbin, 2023-06-29 This book draws upon case studies of the Congolese Christian diaspora in the UK and US and an ethnography of religious urbanization in the Democratic Republic of Congo DRC to explore the making of religious spaces and moral landscapes in an era of globalization Religion is a key aspect of the community social and political life of Congolese migrants many of whom have to address the predicaments of displacement relocation and the status of being a minority within a minority as Francophone black African migrants in English speaking countries The book demonstrates the role of religion in the production of moral worlds and the ways in which for Congolese Christians this process both results from and facilitates a process of regrouping in the midst of ambivalent urban environments Through a multi sited ethnography the book also examines the impact of transnational religious practices on development and city making in the homeland in a context of increasing informalization and infrastructural deficit Drawing on extensive ethnographic data David Garbin captures the nuances of a complex and changing social political and religious landscape for Congolese migrants relying on the construction of moral worlds and revealing the role of a range of connections but also disconnections between diaspora and homeland across multiple scales An essential resource for scholars and researchers interested in the intersections of religion migration and urbanization in both Global North and Global South contexts

Richard F. Burton ... Francis Hitchman, 1887 Breaking Rocks Joe Trapido, 2016-12-01 Based on fieldwork in Kinshasa and Paris Breaking Rocks examines patronage payments within Congolese popular music where a love song dedication can cost 6 000 dollars and a simple name check can trade for 500 or 600 dollars Tracing this system of prestige through networks of musicians and patrons who include gangsters based in Europe kleptocratic politicians in Congo and lawless diamond dealers in northern Angola this book offers insights into ideologies of power and value in central Africa s troubled post colonial political economy as well as a glimpse into the economic flows that make up the hidden side of the globalization
