Modern Mosaic Art And Modernism In The United States:

A Modern Mosaic Townsend Ludington, 2000 Examines the impact of the modernist art movement on American popular culture in a collection of critical essays The Art and Life of Clarence Major Keith E. Byerman, 2012-06 Clarence Major is an award winning painter fiction writer and poet as well as an essayist editor anthologist lexicographer and memoirist He has been part of twenty eight group exhibitions has had fifteen one man shows and has published fourteen collections of poetry and nine works of fiction The Art and Life of Clarence Major is the first critical biography of this innovative African American writer and visual artist Given the full cooperation of his subject Keith E Byerman traces Major s life and career from his complex family history in Georgia through his encounters with important literary and artistic figures in Chicago and New York to his present status as a respected writer artist teacher and scholar living in California In his introduction Byerman asks How does a black man who does not take race as his principal identity an artist who deliberately defies mainstream rules a social and cultural critic who wants to be admired by the world he attacks and a creator who refuses to commit to one expressive form make his way in the world Tasking himself with opening up the multiple layers of problems and solutions in both the work and the life to consider the successes and the failures Byerman reveals Major as one who has devoted himself to a life of experimental art that has challenged both literary and painterly practice and the conventional understanding of the nature of African American art Major s refusal to follow the rules has challenged readers and critics but through it all he has continued to produce quality work as a painter poet and novelist His is the life of someone totally devoted to his creative work one who has put his artistic vision ahead of fame wealth and sometimes even family A Sarah Mills Hodge Fund Publication Modernist America Richard Pells, 2011-03-29 America s global cultural impact is largely seen as one sided with critics claiming that it has undermined other countries languages and traditions But contrary to popular belief the cultural relationship between the United States and the world has been reciprocal says Richard Pells The United States not only plays a large role in shaping international entertainment and tastes it is also a consumer of foreign intellectual and artistic influences Pells reveals how the American artists novelists composers jazz musicians and filmmakers who were part of the Modernist movement were greatly influenced by outside ideas and techniques People across the globe found familiarities in American entertainment resulting in a universal culture that has dominated the twentieth and twenty first centuries and fulfilled the aim of the Modernist movement to make the modern world seem more intelligible Modernist America brilliantly explains why George Gershwin s music Cole Porter s lyrics Jackson Pollock s paintings Bob Fosse s choreography Marlon Brando s acting and Orson Welles s storytelling were so influential and why these and other artists and entertainers simultaneously represent both an American and a modern global culture Dramaturgy of Sound in the Avant-garde and Postdramatic Theatre Mladen Ovadija, 2013-07-01 Sound is born and dies with action In this surprising resourceful study Mladen Ovadija makes a case for the centrality of sound as an integral element of contemporary theatre He argues that sound in theatre inevitably betrays the dramatic text and that sound is performance Until recently theatrical sound has largely been regarded as supplemental to the dramatic plot Now however sound is the subject of renewed interest in theatrical discourse Dramaturgy of sound Ovadija argues reads and writes a theatrical idiom based on two inseparable intertwined strands the gestural corporeal power of the performer's voice and the structural value of stage sound His extensive research in experimental performance and his examination of the pioneering work by Futurists Dadaists and Expressionists enable Ovadija to create a powerful study of autonomous sound as an essential element in the creation of synesthetic theatre Dramaturgy of Sound in the Avant garde and Postdramatic Theatre presents a cogent argument about a continuous tradition in experimental theatre running from early modernist to contemporary works Flash! Kate Flint, 2017 A lively history of flash photography from the nineteenth century to the present that covers diverse topics like race poverty and the paparazzi It surveys the work of professionals and amateurs news hounds and art photographers and photographers of crime and wildlife to highlight the role of flash in popular culture literature and film Peering Behind the Curtain Kimball King, Tom Fahy, 2013-10-15 This volume addresses disability in theater and features all new work including critical essays interviews personal essays and an original play It fills a gap in scholarship while promoting the profile of disability in theater Peering Behind the Curtain examines the issues surrounding disability in many well known plays including Children of a Lesser God The Elephant Man night Mother and Wit as well as an original play by James McDonald The Music and Sound of Experimental Film Holly Rogers, Jeremy Barham, 2017-06-29 This book explores music sound image relationships in non mainstream screen repertoire from the earliest examples of experimental audiovisuality to the most recent forms of expanded and digital technology It challenges presumptions of visual primacy in experimental cinema and rethinks screen music discourse in light of the aesthetics of non commercial imperatives Several themes run through the book connecting with and significantly enlarging upon current critical discourse surrounding realism and audibility in the fiction film the role of music in mainstream cinema and the audiovisual strategies of experimental film The contributors investigate repertoires and artists from Europe and the USA through the critical lenses of synchronicity and animated sound interrelations of experimentation in image and sound audiovisual synchresis and dissonance experimental soundscape traditions found footage film re mediation of pre existent music and sound popular and queer sound cultures and a diversity of radical technological aesthetic tropes in film media traversing the work of early pioneers such as Walther Ruttmann and Len Lye through the mid century innovations of Norman McLaren Stan Brakhage Lis Rhodes Kenneth Anger Andy Warhol and studio collectives in Poland to latter day experimentalists John Smith and Bill Morrison as well as the contemporary practices of Vjing Boxing Kasia Boddy, 2013-06-01 Throughout history potters sculptors painters poets novelists cartoonists song writers photographers and filmmakers have recorded and tried to make sense of boxing From Daniel Mendoza to Mike Tyson boxers have embodied and enacted our anxieties about race ethnicity gender and sexuality In her encyclopedic investigation of the shifting social political and cultural resonances of this most visceral of sports Kasia Boddy throws new light on an elemental struggle for dominance whose weapons are nothing more than fists Looking afresh at everything from neoclassical sculpture to hip hop lyrics Boddy explores the ways in which the history of boxing has intersected with the history of mass media Boddy pulls no punches looking to the work of such diverse figures as Henry Fielding and Spike Lee Charlie Chaplin and Philip Roth James Joyce and Mae West Bertolt Brecht and Charles Dickens in an all encompassing study that tells us just how and why boxing has mattered so much to so many How To Do Things with Dance Rebekah J. Kowal,2010-10-01 Winner of the CORD Outstanding Publication Award 2012 In postwar America any assertion of difference from the mainstream anticommunist culture carried professional and personal risks For this reason modern dance artists left much of what they thought unsaid Instead they expressed themselves in movement How To Do Things with Dance positions modern dance as a vital critical discourse and suggests that dances of the late 1940s and the 1950s can be seen as compelling agents of social change Concentrating on choreographers whose artistic work conceived dance in terms of action Rebekah J Kowal shows how specific choreographic projects demonstrated increasing awareness of the stage as a penetrable space one on which socially suspect or marginalized modes of being could be performed with relative impunity and exerted in the real world Artists covered include Martha Graham Jos Lim n Anna Sokolow Katherine Dunham Pearl Primus Merce Cunningham Paul Taylor Donald McKayle Talley Beatty and Anna Halprin Ebook Edition Note All images have been redacted

Sacrificing Soldiers on the National Mall Kristin Ann Hass,2013-03-22 For the city s first two hundred years the story told at Washington DC s symbolic center the National Mall was about triumphant American leaders Since 1982 when the Vietnam Veterans Memorial was dedicated the narrative has shifted to emphasize the memory of American wars In the last thirty years five significant war memorials have been built on or very nearly on the Mall The Vietnam Veterans Memorial the Korean War Veterans Memorial the Women in Military Service for America Memorial The National Japanese American Memorial to Patriotism During WWII and the National World War II Memorial have not only transformed the physical space of the Mall but have also dramatically rewritten ideas about U S nationalism expressed there In Sacrificing Soldiers on the National Mall Kristin Ann Hass examines this war memorial boom the debates about war and race and gender and patriotism that shaped the memorials and the new narratives about the nature of American citizenship that they spawned Sacrificing Soldiers on the National Mall explores the meanings we have made in exchange for the lives of our soldiers and asks if we have made good on our enormous responsibility to them On the Edge of Your Seat Patricia McDonnell,Robert Clyde Allen,Frederick R. Weisman Art Museum,2002-01-01 This book is published in conjunction with the exhibition On the edge of your seat Popular theater and film in early twentieth century American art organized by the Frederick R Weisman Art Museum University of Minnesota Minneapolis Financialization Of Daily Life Randy Martin,2002-10 While trillions of dollars came and went in the stock market boom of the 1990s the image of every man and woman a CEO may turn out to be the era's lasting legacy Business news once reserved to specialized papers or sections of the larger news of the day came to the forefront in cable television and in cultural images of how ordinary people through the internet and other avenues could not only master their financial life but move money and equity around with the ease of a financial titan Financialization of Daily Life looks at how this transformation occurred and how it is just now becoming a significant and troubling aspect of our political and cultural life Randy Martin takes us through all of the aspects of our financialization He examines how the shift in economic life arose not only from changes in culture but also from new policy priorities that emphasize controlling inflation over promoting growth He offers a close reading of self help literature that teaches parents how to rear financially literate children and to instruct adults in the fundamentals of fiscal management He examines just what a society that treats financial investment as a national past time really looks like and how that society is transforming the world In a country rocked by scandals in accounting and banking the identification ordinary citizens make with and the risk with which they engage in the stock market calls into question the very basis of our economic system Randy Martin spells out in clear terms the implications our financial doings and undoing have for the way we organize our lives and especially our money

Cubism and Futurism R. Bruce Elder,2018-06-30 Cubism and futurism were closely related movements that vied with each other in the economy of renown Perception dynamism and the dynamism of perception these were the issues that passed back and forth between the two Cubism and Futurism Spiritual Machines and the Cinematic Effect shows how movement became in the traditional visual arts a central factor with the advent of the cinema gone were the days when an artwork strived merely to lift experience out the realm of change and flow The cinema at this time was understood as an electric art akin to X rays coloured light and sonic energy In this book celebrated filmmaker and author Bruce Elder connects the dynamism that the cinema made an essential feature of the new artwork to the new science of electromagnetism Cubism is a movement on the cusp of the transition from the Cartesian world of standardized Cartesian coordinates and interchangeable machine parts to a Galvanic world of continuities and flows In contrast futurism embraced completely the emerging electromagnetic view of reality Cubism and Futurism examines the similarity and differences between the two movements engagement with the new science of energy and shows that the notion of energy made central to the new artwork by the cinema assumed a spiritual dimension as the cinema itself came to be seen as a pneumatic machine

Hope in Hard Times Mary Murphy, 2003 Arthur Rothstein Russell Lee John Vachon and Marion Post Wolcott became some of the United States best known photographers through their pictures of Depression era America Their assignment as one of their associates described it was to have a long look at the whole vast complicated rural U S landscape with all that was built on it and all those who built and wrecked and worked in it and bore kids and dragged them up and played games and paraded and picnicked and suffered and died and were buried in it In Montana the four photographers traveled to forty of the state s fifty six counties creating a rich record of the many facets of the Depression and recovery rural and urban agricultural and industrial work and play hard times and the promise of a brighter future The photographers captured the dignity of Montanans as they struggled to scratch out livings from dried up fields nurture families in the shadows of Butte head frames and foster communities on the vast expanses of the northern plains Hope in Hard Times features over 140 Farm Security Administration photographs to illustrate the story of the Great Depression in Montana and the experiences of the photographers who documented it Today these striking images from cities like Butte to small towns like Terry present an unforgettable portrait of a little studied period in the history of Montana Selected from the Farm Security Administration Collection at the Library of Congress in Washington D C the photographs in Hope in Hard Times offer viewers an unparalleled look at life in Montana in the years preceding the United States entry into World War II

Shadows Raymond Carney, 2019-07-25 Shadows 1959 John Cassavetes first film as director ends with the title card The film you have just seen was an improvisation Just before his death however Cassavetes confessed to Ray Carney something he had never before revealed that much of his so called masterpiece of improvisation was actually written by him and Robert Alan Aurthur a professional Hollywood screenwriter In the ten years that followed Carney tracked down all of the surviving members of the cast and crew in order to piece together the true story of the making of Shadows This book is the result of that research Carney takes the reader behind the scenes to follow every step in the creation of the film chronicling the hopes and dreams the struggles and frustrations and the ultimate triumph of their collaboration on one of the seminal masterworks of American independent film making

The Routledge Introduction to American Modernism Linda

Wagner-Martin, 2016-02-12 The modernist period was crucial for American literature as it gave writers the chance to be truly innovative and create their own distinct identity Starting slightly earlier than many guides to modernism this lucid and comprehensive guide introduces the reader to the essential history of the period including technology religion economy class gender and immigration These contexts are woven of into discussions of many significant authors and texts from the period Wagner Martin brings her years of writing about American modernism to explicate poetry and drama as well as fiction and life writing Among the authors emphasized are Ernest Hemingway William Faulkner Zora Neale Hurston Langston Hughes F

Scott Fitzgerald Gertrude Stein Willa Cather John Dos Passos William Carlos Williams Mike Gold James T Farrell Clifford Odets John Steinbeck and countless others A clear and engaging introduction to an exciting period of literature this is the ultimate guide for those seeking an overview of American Modernism Art History for Filmmakers Gillian McIver,2017-03-23 Since cinema's earliest days literary adaptation has provided the movies with stories and so we use literary terms like metaphor metonymy and synecdoche to describe visual things But there is another way of looking at film and that is through its relationship with the visual arts mainly painting the oldest of the art forms Art History for Filmmakers is an inspiring guide to how images from art can be used by filmmakers to establish period detail and to teach composition color theory and lighting The book looks at the key moments in the development of the Western painting and how these became part of the Western visual culture from which cinema emerges before exploring how paintings can be representative of different genres such as horror sex violence realism and fantasy and how the images in these paintings connect with cinema Insightful case studies explore the links between art and cinema through the work of seven high profile filmmakers including Peter Greenaway Peter Webber Jack Cardiff Martin Scorsese Guillermo del Toro Quentin Tarantino and Stan Douglas A range of practical exercises are included in the text which can be carried out singly or in small teams Featuring stunning full color images Art History for Filmmakers provides budding filmmakers with a practical guide to how images from art can help to develop their understanding of the visual language of film Houdini, Tarzan, and the Perfect Man John F. Kasson,2002-07-02 A remarkable new work from one of our premier historians In his exciting new book John F. Kasson examines the signs of crisis in American life a century ago signs that new forces of modernity were affecting men's sense of who and what they really were When the Prussian born Eugene Sandow an international vaudeville star and bodybuilder toured the United States in the 1890s Florenz Ziegfeld cannily presented him as the Perfect Man representing both an ancient ideal of manhood and a modern commodity extolling self development and self fulfillment Then when Edgar Rice Burroughs's Tarzan swung down a vine into the public eye in 1912 the fantasy of a perfect white Anglo Saxon male was taken further escaping the confines of civilization but reasserting its values beating his chest and bellowing his triumph to the world With Harry Houdini the dream of escape was literally embodied in spectacular performances in which he triumphed over every kind of threat to masculine integrity bondage imprisonment insanity and death Kasson's liberally illustrated and persuasively argued study analyzes the themes linking these figures and places them in their rich historical and cultural context Concern with the white male body with exhibiting it and with the perils to it reached a climax in World War I he suggests and continues with us today The Genesis of Mass Culture J. Springhall,2008-04-14 A thorough survey of the origins and development of the major distinct American commercial entertainments that emerged between over the course of the 19th century and into the 20th including P T Barnum's American Museum freak show and circus as well as blackface minstrelry Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show and vaudeville
