Minding the Body Patricia Foster, 2011-05-18 A multicultural anthology of fiction and non fiction literary narratives which addresses the psychological and political aspects of a woman's body in today's culture. An important and much needed book for women who seek to understand their bodies and find independent imaginative ways to cope with aging beauty expectations, beauty expectations and ethnic comparisons. Franz Rosenzweig and Jehuda Halevi Barbara Ellen Galli, Franz Rosenzweig, 1995 Franz Rosenzweig 1886-1929 one of the most daunting modern Jewish thinkers exercises a profound influence on contemporary philosophy and modern Jewish thought. In this seminal study Barbara Galli provides the first English translation of Franz Rosenzweig's Jehuda Halevi: Zweiundneunzig Hymnen und Gedichte a German translation of the poems of the great medieval Jewish poet Jehuda Halevi followed by a lively interpretive response. Galli's primary aim is to explore Rosenzweig's statement that his Notes to Halevi's poems exemplify a practical application of the philosophic system he set out in The Star of Redemption. Through an extended multifaceted investigation of Rosenzweig's thought Galli uncovers his philosophy of translation out of which she determines and unravels his philosophic conclusion and his belief that there is only one language. In the final chapters she concentrates on the Notes to the poems and in doing so attempts to philosophize according to Rosenzweig's own mandate: full speech is word and response. Using Stata for Quantitative Analysis Kyle C.
