evocative lyricism from the stage to the page as he invites us to wander with him on his relentless search for God From a joke involving a glass eye in a family that doesn't always see eye to eye a judgmental Grandmonster who makes an almost redeeming connection in her final moments or a crumbling marriage and the surprise of new love Madeira's raw and tender stories illustrate the journey we all share along with wise reflections to get through it Roaming from his evangelical roots to discover a successful career in Americana music Madeira boils away the detritus of religion to discover a faith on the rocks sometimes leaving him stranded on the rocky shore sometimes savored like a smooth drink on a summer's day but always leading to a God not worrying about changing or chastising his broken children but singing in a low guttural hum forged in the heat of his passion for humans a God almighty love song Just like a sweet old hymn can rekindle even a doubting cynic's longing for God Madeira's beckoning voice can turn a wandering heart toward home with laughter and hope
