The Renaissance Nude Thomas Kren, Jill Burke, Stephen J. Campbell, 2018-11-20 A gloriously illustrated examination of the origins and development of the nude as an artistic subject in Renaissance Europe. Reflecting an era when Europe looked to both the classical past and a global future, this volume explores the emergence and acceptance of the nude as an artistic subject. It engages with the numerous and complex connotations of the human body in more than 250 artworks by the greatest masters of the Renaissance: Paintings, sculptures, prints, drawings, illuminated manuscripts, and book illustrations reveal private, sometimes shocking preoccupations as well as surprising public beliefs. The Age of Humanism from an entirely new perspective. This book presents works by Albrecht Dürer, Lucas Cranach, and Martin Schongauer in the north, and Donatello, Raphael, and Giorgione in the south; it also introduces names that deserve to be known better. A publication this rich in scholarship could only be produced by a variety of expert scholars; the sixteen contributors are preeminent in their fields and wide-ranging in their knowledge and curiosity. The structure of the volume, essays alternating with shorter texts on individual artworks, permits studies both broad and granular. From the religious to the magical and the poetic to the erotic, encompassing male and female, infancy, youth, and old age, The Renaissance Nude examines in a profound way what it is to be human.

Naked Politics Brett Lunceford, 2012-06-14 Naked Politics: Nudity, Political Action, and the Rhetoric of the Body by Brett Lunceford examines the rhetorical power of the unclothed body as it relates to protest and political action. This study explores what the disrobed body communicates and how others are invited to make sense of this display. The actions examined range from grassroots protests to those of professionalized social movement organizations. Specifically, Lunceford examines PETA and the use of chained women and the Running of the Nudes activists or women engaging in public breastfeeding as protest action in both online and physical space; the World Naked Bike Ride's worldwide protest against oil dependency and attempt to raise awareness of the vulnerability of cyclists; and a contest held on College Humor that invited women to write their preferred presidential candidate on their exposed breasts and send the picture to them to post on the site. Although these actions may seem to have little in common beyond their use of body exposure, they all share the notions that something can happen when you take your clothes off and that the act of disrobing can have social and political consequences Moreover these groups illustrate the often paradoxical views of the exposed body by both the participants and the observers and how such bodies operate in the public sphere Even when the voice is silent the body still speaks Naked Politics considers what is being said Research Anthology on Feminist Studies and Gender Perceptions Management Association, Information Resources,2022-01-21 Global society has always been impacted by the perception of gender While gender roles may differ in certain cultures many cultures around the world have allowed for the disempowerment and objectification of women Women today still struggle for gender equality whether it be professionally socially or even legally To examine feminism thoroughly however thorough analysis must be conducted on all genders and perceptions The Research Anthology on Feminist Studies and Gender Perceptions explores the application of feminist theory and women empowerment in the 21st century and the role that gender plays in society This book analyzes media representation gender performativity and theory to present a comprehensive view of gender and society Covering topics such as masculinity women empowerment and gender equality this two volume comprehensive major reference work is an essential resource for sociologists community leaders human resource managers activists students and professors of higher education researchers and academicians
