Dicken, 2010-05 Under contract with the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services CMS states conduct surveys at nursing homes to help ensure compliance with federal quality standards Over the past decade there have been reports on inconsistencies in states assessment of nursing homes quality of care including understatement that is when state surveys fail to cite serious deficiencies or cite them at too low a level In 2008 there was a report that 9 states had high and 10 had low understatement based on CMS data for FY 2002 through 2007 This report examines the effect on nursing home deficiency understatement of CMS s survey process workforce shortages and training supervisory reviews of surveys and state agency practices Illus Nursing Home Quality Revisited United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Finance, 2004 Regulating Healthcare Walshe,

Kieran, 2003-06-01 Healthcare organizations in the UK and the USA face a growing tide of regulation accreditation inspection and external review all aimed at improving their performance In the US over three decades of regulation by state and federal government and by non governmental agencies has created a complex costly and overlapping network of oversight arrangements for healthcare organizations In the UK regulation of the government run National Health Service is central to current health policy with the creation of a host of new national agencies and inspectorates tasked with overseeing the performance of NHS hospitals and other organizations But does regulation work This book explores the development and use of healthcare regulation in both countries comparing and contrasting their experience and drawing on regulatory research in other industries and settings offers a structured approach to analysing what regulators do and how they work develops principles for effective regulation aimed at maximising the benefits of regulatory interventions and minimising their costs

Regulating Healthcare is aimed at all with an interest or involvement in health policy and management be they policy makers healthcare managers or health professionals It is particularly suitable for use on postgraduate health and health related programmes
