Creating a Nonviolent Culture in a Modern Organization Miriam Baermann, 2021-12-21 Increasing violence amongst youth in society burn out as a widespread disease and scandals in companies are only some of the headlines which appear regularly in the news media Politics scarcely seems to have any success in fighting violence and injustice in society and in the world The thesis here suggests that people do not have to wait for a savior such as a politician but that everyone can contribute to a less violent more peaceful and just world It will be demonstrated that organizations have an enormous influence on society and this book deals with the possibilities which an organization has to contribute to a less violent culture By the term organization all forms of organized groups of people who come together for a certain purpose are meant for example schools clubs public social aids and others whilst we mainly concentrate on companies in our research The intention is to focus particularly on the issues related to the theme of creating a nonviolent culture in the workplace In the first part on culture we deal with several questions regarding culture including such fundamental questions as What is organizational culture What are the dimensions of culture and is it possible to influence it and if yes how does it work In the second part we take a look at the terms violence and nonviolence and a survey of how these aspects occur in society and organizations is made The third part is the largest and deals with the qualities of leadership and with the organizational conditions which are necessary to create a nonviolent culture We hope it will become clearer to the reader that nonviolence is not a strategy or a formula to be used It can appear very different in different situations There are component elements which can promote it and there are certain principles that cannot be violated if one wishes to establish true nonviolence Nevertheless there is no one patent formula nor one exclusively correct way of creating a nonviolent culture It requires considerable creativity and endurance to create it and can take a variety of forms Nursing Administration Laura C. Young, Arlene Nash Hayne, 1988 This advanced text and reference for graduate nursing administration courses and practicing administrators balances management concepts with practical examples from the real world Especially interesting chapters include Games and Playing Strategies and Risk Management EBOOK: Implementing Excellence in your Health Care Organization: Managing, Leading and Collaborating Robert McSherry, Jerry Warr, 2010-07-16 This second book in this practical introductory series on practice issues in healthcare explores the key issues and factors which influence the workings of a healthcare organisation and how these may be addressed through collaborative working and user focused care at an introductory and practical level The book will be presented in three sections Working in Organisations Collaborative working User Focused Care The emphasis of this second text is on how the organization and those who work within it contribute to both positively and negatively the excellence of the healthcare organization and the care it gives Rather than a theoretical tome on team working leadership and change management this book instead highlights and explores the tools and techniques that ALL healthcare staff need to be successful employees and managers delivering excellent care The authors will outline and examine the evidence available for all areas covered both to support and to critique excellence standards and give a lively and practical introduction to the key organizational factors of a healthcare setting Meaty topics abound including Management leadership ethics equity governance user involvement team working interprofessional excellence The focus on multiprofessional working will make this accessible to a variety of healthcare groups In keeping with the series the book will include case examples real life practice and reflective exercises as well as the theory needed to inform delivery of excellence Contributors Claire Brewis Dr Corrina Dickson Dr Lee Ann Fenge Karen Grimwood Dr Sarah Hean Vanessa Heaslip Jenny Kell Melaine McSherry Dr Sabi Redwood Lisa Smith Kevin Stubbings Jackie Tonkin Katie Tucker Leadership Roles and Management Functions in Nursing Bessie L. Leadership and the Elder Care Home Sector

Nadeem Moiden,2003 This study was undertaken to explore whether current leadership in the elder care home sector promotes a balance between personal and work life of healthcare staff A case study approach was used to carry out the study using structured interviews semi structured interview and participant observation as major data collection methods The sample a combination of enrolled nurses experienced and inexperienced carers were representative of the employees in care homes studied This consisted of 18 subjects 10 from a private care home and 8 from a charity care home The structured interviews consisted of all 18 participants and the semi structured interviews consisted of 6 participants from the 18 2 carers and 1 nurse from each setting For participant observation both homes were observed for 8 days from the three months spent in each During interviews data were collected on the leaders style leaders role staff home life and work life and leaders support During participant observation the work environment climate leader and staff interaction were observed and key points were recorded The data were analysed using the Ethnograph v4 0 a program for the analysis of text based data For the research purpose a codebook of 99 codes that would identify different aspects of the data in the interviews and participant observation was created Content and thematic approach were taken towards analysis using the computer software The result from this study showed that 1 staff are seen to prefer their leader to be democratic as there is room for negotiation participation consideration and understanding 2 the staff's perception of the leader is an individualistic as well as every aspect of their needs being met due to variables such as age gender marital status experience dependants education position and language 3 the level of effect of leadership style on the individual is dependent on individual circumstances 4 the extent to which the staff's personal and work life balance are not promoted depends in the different combination of leadership style of the leader as leader is not autocratic democratic or laissez faire at all times 5 the more democratic the leaders are the more understanding and flexible they are in promoting a balance between personal and work life of their followers 6 staff with different personal circumstances and background view their leaders differently 7 none of the staff want their leader to be liberal 8 staff psychosocial needs are not with leadership high in autocratic approach These findings have implications for nurse training and education and leadership development Trained appropriately and applying the results and recommendations from this study the leaders will assist towards staff retention increase productivity and increase the quality of care in the elder care home sector and promote a healthy and cost effective workforce
