A Liberal Catholic Bioethics James F. Drane, 2010 A Liberal Catholic Bioethics opens a new dialogue between Christian reasoning and belief and secular positions in bioethics The well documented book covers in detail internal and external debates and positions of Roman Catholic theology and hierarchy issues of contraception and abortion palliative care and euthanasia caring humanely for the demented the use and abuse of modern technology in medicine The doctrine of Papal infallibility is identified as a main reason in hindering and suppressing a dialogue within the church with the faithful and with other religious and humanist positions Were the Borgia Popes infallible was Pope Urban infallible when he condemned Galileo the author asks He thus carries the debate far beyond specific bioethics issues towards a more humane medicine and culture

Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care

Couverture A Palliative Ethic of Care Joseph Fins,2006 An innovative approach to caring for the terminally ill patient A palliative ethic of care provides deeper insights into why end of life care is so challenging and suggests how to improve the care of the dying Back cover Hospice Care on the International Scene Dame Cicely M. Saunders,1997 This volume explores how hospice care has been taking root throughout much of the world and illustrates how people are finding ways to shape hospice care to the particular needs and resources of their countries and communities The book begins with a hospice mission statement by Dame Cicely Saunders and is followed by an overview of the international hospice movement by Dr Jan Stemsward of the World Health Organization Included are reports from pioneering hospice programs in the Middle East in tropical Africa and Croatia Geriatric Palliative Care R. Sean Morrison,Diane E. Meier,2003-05-08 The theme of this book is that palliative care is the best approach to the care of the chronically ill and frail elderly because of its focus on quality of life support for functional independence and the centrality of the patient s values and experiences in determining the goals of medical care The Oxford Textbook of Palliative Social Work Terry Altilio,Shirley Otis-Green,John G. Cagle,2022 It is so important to advocate for things that may not always seem possible Getting to work with patients families at the end of their life is the ultimate honor Lauren G Markham MSW LCSW APHSW C In this work one witnesses both depths of human suffering and heights of human transcendence that can inspire both awe and fear At those times I have found that surrendering my need to be an expert and instead allow myself to simply be a human is the wisest action Kerry Irish LCSW OSW C FAOSW Palliative Care and End-of-Life Decisions G. Smith,2013-10-22 Total pain management mandates that an ethic of adjusted care be implemented at the end stage of life which acknowledges ethically legally and clinically the use of terminal sedation as efficacious treatment New Titles in Bioethics ,1994 Journal of the American Dietetic Association ,1995 Brain Death and Disorders of Consciousness Calixto Machado,D. Alan Shewmon,2004-03-31 Although some decades have passed there are still worldwide controversies about a concept of human death on neurological grounds There are also disagreements on the diagnostic criteria for brain death whether clinical alone or clinical plus ancillary tests Moreover some scholars who were strong defenders of a brain based standard of death are now favoring a circulatory respiratory standard The study of coma is extremely important because lesions of the brain are responsible for quality of life in patients or cause of death The main goal of Brain Death and Disorders of Consciousness is to provide a suitable scientific platform to discuss all topics related to human death and coma Practical Decision Making in Health Care Ethics Raymond J. Devettere,2009-12-04 For nearly fifteen years Practical Decision Making in Health Care

Ethics has offered scholars and students a highly accessible and teachable alternative to the dominant principle based theories in the field. Devettere's approach is not based on an ethics of abstract obligations and duties but following Aristotle on how to live a fulfilled and happy life in short an ethics of personal well being grounded in prudence the virtue of ethical decision making. This third edition is revised and updated and includes discussions of several landmark cases including the tragic stories of Terri Schiavo and Jesse Gelsinger the first death caused by genetic research. Devettere addresses new topics such as partial birth abortion law embryonic stem cell research infant euthanasia in The Netherlands recent Vatican statements on feeding tubes organ donation after cardiac death new developments in artificial hearts clinical trials developed by pharmaceutical companies to market new drugs ghostwritten scientific articles published in major medical journals and controversial HIV AIDS research in Africa. This edition also includes a new chapter on the latest social and political issues in American health care. Devettere's engaging text relies on commonsense moral concepts and avoids academic jargon. It includes a glossary of legal medical and ethical terms an index of cases and thoroughly updated bibliographic essays at the end of each chapter that offer resources for further reading. It is a true classic brilliantly conceived and executed and is now even more valuable to undergraduates and graduate students medical students health care professionals hospital ethics committees and institutional review boards and general readers interested in philosophy medicine and the rapidly changing field of health care ethics.
