Landow, 2006 Thoroughly expanded and updated, this pioneering work continues to be the ur-text of hypertext studies. Toy Stories Tanya Jones, 2017-04-25 Toys, those celebrated childhood cohorts and lead actors in children's imaginative play, have a fantastic history of heroism in fiction. From teddy bears that guard sleeping babies to plastic soldiers and cowboys who lay siege to wooden block castles, toys are often the heroes of the stories children inspire authors to tell. In this collection of new essays, scholars from a great range of disciplines examine fictional toys as protectors of the children they love, as heroes of their own stories, and as champions for the greater good in the writings of A. A. Milne, Hans Christian Andersen, William Joyce, John Lasseter, and many others. Women, Art, and Technology Judy Malloy, 2003 A sourcebook of documentation on women artists at the forefront of work at the intersection of art and technology. The book includes overviews of the history and foundations of the field by, among others, artists Sheila Pinkel and Kathy Brew, classic papers by women working in art and technology, papers written expressly for this book by women whose work is currently shaping and reshaping the field, and a series of critical essays that look to the future.
