Portsmouth Record Series Maps Of Portsmouth:

Historian's Guide to Early British Maps Helen Wallis, Anita McConnell, 1995-04-06 Great Britain and Ireland enjoy a rich cartographic heritage yet historians have not made full use of early maps in their writings and research This is partly due to a lack of information about exactly which maps are available With the publication of this volume from the Royal Historical Society we now have a comprehensive guide to the early maps of Great Britain The book is divided into two parts part one describes the history and purpose of maps in a series of short essays on the early mapping of the British Isles part two comprises a guide to the collections national and regional Now available from Cambridge University Press this volume provides an essential reference tool for anyone requiring to access maps of the British Isles dating back to the medieval period and beyond Manors and Maps in Rural England, from the Tenth Century to the Seventeenth P.D.A.

Harvey, 2023-05-31 P D A Harvey is a historian of medieval rural England with a wide interest in the history of cartography this collection of his essays brings together both these strands It first looks at the English countryside from the 10th century to the 15th investigating problems in particular documents in the village community and in underlying long term changes How landlords drew profits from their property in the eleventh and twelfth centuries how and why there followed changes in the way landed estates were run and in the written records they produced what new light their personal seals can throw on medieval peasants are all among the topics discussed while the local management of large estates and the development of the peasant land market are themes that recur throughout There follow essays on the way maps were brought into the management of landed estates in the 16th and 17th centuries starting with the introduction of consistent scale into mapping a new concept crucially important in the general history of topographical maps The collection closes by looking at some of the traps that both documents and maps set for the historian of the English countryside Early Portsmouth Maps

Harvey, 1993 Reduced size reproductions of maps produced during the period 1485 1603 Lost Landscapes of Plymouth Elisabeth Stuart, 1991 The Map Collector, 1994 Samuel Pepys and the Strange Wrecking of the Gloucester Nigel Pickford, 2023-02-07 A true story of royal intrigue with famed diarist Samuel Pepys as the main protagonist as a fatal shipwreck on the shores of Restoration Britain sparks a mystery that now may finally be solved In 1682 Charles II invited his scandalous younger brother James Duke of York to return from exile and take his rightful place as heir to the throne To celebrate the future king set sail in a fleet of eight ships destined for Edinburgh where he would reunite with his young pregnant wife Yet disaster struck en route somewhere off the Norfolk coast The royal frigate carrying James and his entourage sank causing some two hundred sailors and courtiers to perish The diarist Samuel Pepys had been asked to sail with James but refused the invitation preferring to travel in one of the other ships Why What did he know that others did not Religious and political tensions were rife in the years leading up to the wreck of the Gloucester James was a Catholic as was his wife and there was a large constituency who wished them dead Plots and conspiracies abounded The Royal Navy was itself in disarray badly equipped and poorly organised Could someone on board be to blame for the sinking either from malice or incompetence Nigel Pickford's compelling account of the catastrophe draws on a richness of historical material including letters diaries and ships logs revealing for the first time the full drama and tragic consequences of a shipwreck that shook Restoration Britain The Local Historian ,1978 Issues for autumn 1961 include the Standing Conference for Local History Bulletin Southern History ,1980 Inventory of the County Archives of Ohio Historical Records Survey (Ohio),1938 Maps for Family and Local History William Foot,Geraldine Beech,Rose Mitchell,2004-04 This guide shows you how three great land surveys can provide information on your ancestor's home as well as historical snapshots of your area The tithe Valuation Office and National Farm surveys were comparable to the Domesday Book in their coverage Spanning the period 1836 1943 they provide abundant information on rural and urban localities on dwellings settlements and landscapes and on individual householders and tenants farmers and industrialists The surveys are of value to family and local historians This guide is your companion to researching these records The text explains why and how the surveys were made and shows you how to identify and interpret the records that will put your ancestors or neighbourhood on the map Maps for Family and Local History (2nd Edition) William Foot,Geraldine Beech,Rose Mitchell,2004-04-01 Maps for Family and Local History shows how three great land surveys can provide information on ancestral homes as well as fascinating historical snapshots of specific areas Covering 1836 to 1943 the Tithe Valuation Office and National Farm Surveys provide a wealth of information on rural and urban localities on dwellings settlements and landscapes as well as the status of householders The text gives the rationale behind the surveys and covers each in detail Fully updated by map experts from The National Archives this illustrated guide is the perfect companion to researching those maps Maps of Portsmouth Before 1801 ,1978 Map Librarianship Harold Nichols,1982 Content of the map collection current maps Tracing and buying modern maps Bibliographical notes on selected official mapping services Early maps and their acquisition Maps in local studies Storage General considerations on the retrieval of maps Classification Cataloguing Classifying early and local maps Cataloguing early and local maps Reference and information services Dating and identifying early and local maps Care and preservation of maps Looking to the future Congressional Record United States. named King Philip's War by relaying the stories of Weetamoo a female Wampanoag leader and James Printer a Nipmuc scholar whose stories converge in the captivity of Mary Rowlandson Through both a narrow focus on Weetamoo Printer and their network of relations and a far broader scope that includes vast Indigenous geographies Brooks leads us to a new understanding of the history of colonial New England and of American origins Brooks's pathbreaking scholarship is grounded not just in extensive archival research but also in the land and communities of Native New England reading the actions of actors during the seventeenth century alongside an analysis of the landscape and interpretations informed by tribal history
