Reading The Earth A Story Of Wilderneb:

Reading the Earth David Brower, 2000 In the role of elder and sage activist David Brower describes the story of the earth's origins and evolution to three children spinning a cautionary tale of caring for the earth Full color illustrations

Postcolonial Commentary and the Old Testament Hemchand Gossai, 2018-11-01 This is the first volume to provide a wide range of postcolonial interpretations of and commentaries upon significant texts in the Hebrew Bible The volume intersects with the work of the key theorists in postcolonial studies such as Fanon Senghor Said and Spivak as well as with scholars such as Sugirtharajah Kwok Pui lan and Segovia who have applied this theory to biblical studies Texts have been chosen specifically for their relevance to postcolonial discourse rather than seeking to cover each biblical document This volume is designed to demonstrate how historical criticism postmodernism and the important concerns of postcolonial readings may be integrated to obtain an informed explanation of the Hebrew Bible and the writings of early Judaism The chapters are written by scholars who represent a spectrum of national indigenous and diasporic contexts Taken together these perspectives and the interpretations they yield represent a continued expansion of the manner in which Old Testament texts are read and interpreted through postcolonial lenses reminding readers that the interpretive trajectories of these texts are almost inexhaustible As such the volume serves as not only an addition to ongoing scholarship on postcolonialism but also as an expansion of the horizon for dialogue

The Cosmic Journey in the Book of Revelation Joel M. Rothman,2023-05-18 Joel M Rothman considers the significance of cosmology in biblical and extra biblical texts and the role of the cosmic journey in many apocalyptic narratives He posits that Revelation s narrative likewise takes the hearer on a virtual journey through a cosmic story space of great theological significance While scholarship commonly assumes a three tiered cosmos in Revelation Rothman argues that Revelation s narrative operates in a four tiered cosmos with the hyper heaven sitting above the sky heaven earth and abyssal depths a cosmic story space that is recreated in the imagination of the hearers Beginning with a methodology of visual narrative reading Rothman then discusses the assumptions and existing conceptions regarding heaven and earth He stresses that Revelation does not exhibit tension in its portrayal of heaven between heaven as a site of conflict and heaven as the realm in which God truly reigns but rather shows readers a sky heaven characterised by archetypal conflict between powerful sky beings and a hyper heaven defined by full recognition of the Throne In journeying through the sky structure and God space and by analysing the four cosmic layers in operation the distinct nature of the two sky spaces cosmic change and the ideological import of the cosmic structure Rothman demonstrates that the existence of the hyper heaven in contradistinction with the limited lived cosmos of earth and sky heaven is a present guarantee of the final cosmic transformation that creates a new space for human life exclusive of imperial draconian elements

Decolonizing Wesleyan Theology Filipe Maia,2024-02-15 What can movements for decolonization teach Wesleyan theology This book faces this question to show that decolonial voices are reshaping the contours of Methodist and Wesleyan traditions Contributors to this volume include theologians pastors and leaders in the Global South who are leading the people called Methodists to encounter the tradition anew in the radical spirit of decolonization

The Earth Story in the New Testament Norman C. Habel,Vicky Balabanski,2002-10-01 The Earth Bible is an international project including volumes on ecojustice readings of major sections of the Bible The basic aims of the Earth Bible project are to develop ecojustice principles appropriate to an Earth hermeneutic for interpreting the Bible and for promoting justice and healing for Earth to publish these interpretations as contributions to the current debate on ecology ecoethics and ecotheology to provide a responsible forum within which the suppressed voice of Earth may be heard and impulses for healing Earth may be generated The project explores text and tradition from the perspective of Earth employing a set of ecojustice principles developed in consultation with ecologists suspecting that the text and or its interpreters may be anthropocentric and not geocentric but searching to retrieve alternative traditions that hear the voice of Earth and value Earth as more than a human instrument The lead article in Volume V is a reflection in responses to the ecojustice principles employed in the hermeneutic of the project Several articles offer insights into New Testament texts that seem to devalue Earth in favour of heaven The final article by Barbara Rossing challenges the popular apocalyptic notion that in the new age Earth will be terminated A feature of this volume is a dialogue between Norman Habel who argues that John One seems to devalue Earth and two respondents Elaine Wainwright and Vicky Balabanski who is coeditor of this volume with Norman Habel 1 The Torah Story Gary Edward Schnittjer, 2010-06-01 Working knowledge of the Torah is essential for every serious student of the Scriptures Written in an engaging and accessible voice even while digging into difficult and complicated matters at a sophisticated level The Torah Story emphasizes the content of the text itself moving beyond debating dates and theories of authorship into understanding how these five key books of the Bible help us understand the story of salvation Providing flexible options for further study each chapter includes the following Tips and tools for getting started Questions that focus on key issues Key terms to look for Outlines and summaries of the material An interactive workshop designed for students individuals or study groups Challenge questions drawn from the chapter and biblical text Advanced questions for those who want deeper exploration of biblical contexts language and exegetical or theological issues Research project suggestions Discussion activities using films to engage the biblical narrative selected chapters A refreshingly new approach to the Torah neither an introduction nor a commentary The Torah Story provides a model of how to read Scripture intertextually It leaves no doubt as to the overarching unity of the message and composition of the Pentateuch Classroom Libraries for Public Schools Buffalo Public Library (Buffalo, N.Y.), 1902 Reading Revelation Joseph L. Trafton, 2005 Trafton has produced a clear understandable insightful reading of the book of Revelation not an easy task for a book that has left many readers puzzled and confused One of the particular strengths of Trafton's commentary is his close attention to the structure of John's work and the internal connections between various passages of the book Readers will also benefit from Trafton's identification of John's extensive indebtedness to the Hebrew Bible for much of his imagery and ideas Mitchell G Reddish O L Walker Professor of Christian Studies and Chair Department of Religious Studies Stetson University Reading Success, Grade 5, 2008-08-26 Provide focused practice for fifth graders in areas such as comprehension vocabulary language and reasoning Grade appropriate flash cards completion chart and skills matrix are also provided Meets NCTE standards Evidence-Based Reading, Grade 5, 2015-01-05 Evidence Based Reading for grade 5 offers 64 pages of reading practice It is aligned with the Common Core State Standards and includes a reading comprehension rubric a standards alignment chart and pages of reading passages with evidence based questions to encourage higher level thinking and thoughtful answers Each question is designed so that students learn to support their answers with evidence from the text A variety of literature and informational passages are included to engage learners in a range of texts The Applying the Standards Evidence Based Reading series emphasizes close reading by requiring students to answer text dependent questions in both literary and informational texts This is a series of six 64 page books for students in kindergarten to grade 5 Various reading and vocabulary skills are covered and a culminating reflection question for each passage engages students higher level thinking skills Of particular emphasis throughout the series are the Common Core State Standards and the teaching of evidence based reading

Thematic Threads in the Book of the Twelve Paul L. Redditt, Aaron Schart, 2012-08-06 For some years the view has become established that the Book of the Twelve is a systematically structured literary unity An exegesis which takes the final canonical text seriously undertakes to understand the structure and theological intention of this unity The papers collected here attempt to reveal significant structures which overarch the individual components Particular emphasis is placed on the reconstruction of thematic threads which are created when individual prophets take up topics from their predecessors e g Jehovah s Day conversion role of the peoples and intensify them The papers were written between 1999 and 2002 under the aegis of the Society of Biblical Literature s Working Group on The Formation of the Book of the Twelve

To Follow the Lamb Ted Grimsrud, 2022-03-31 For many the book of Revelation seems hopelessly hard to interpret It gives the impression of being full of frightening and confusing visions However To Follow the Lamb A Peaceable Reading of the Book of Revelation shows that Revelation actually is fascinating inspiring and empowering The key to reading Revelation is simple Let s take seriously the opening words of the book that tell us it is a revelation of Jesus Christ Let s expect Revelation to help us understand Jesus and his will for us We may expect that Revelation shares the same basic sensibility that we find in the Gospels and the rest of the New Testament Revelation is an exhortation to discipleship follow the Lamb wherever he goes It offers a sharp critique of the world s empires and of how people of faith find ways to be comfortable within the empires Revelation portrays God as merciful and peaceable but engaged in a battle against the spiritual powers of evil as fought with the weapons of love not worldly violent weapons To Follow the Lamb opens up Revelation s blueprint for faithful living Resistance to the empires and embrace of the compassionate and healing love of the Lamb

Let My People Live Kenneth N. Ngwa, 2022-04-12 Let My People Live reengages the narrative of Exodus through a critical life affirming African hermeneutic that seeks to create and sustain a vision of not just the survival but the thriving of Black communities While the field of biblical studies has habitually divided objective interpretations from culturally informed ones Kenneth Ngwa argues that doing interpretive work through an activist culturally grounded lens rightly recognizes how communities of readers actively shape the priorities of any biblical interpretation In the Africana context communities whose identities were made disposable by the forces of empire and colonialism both in Africa and in the African diaspora across the globe likewise suffered the stripping away of the right to interpretation of both sacred texts and of themselves Ngwa shows how an Africana approach to the biblical text can intervene in this narrative of breakage as a mode of resistance By emphasizing the irreducible life force and resources nurtured in the Africana community which have always preceded colonial oppression the Africana hermeneutic is able to stretch from the past into the future to sustain and support generations to come Ngwa reimagines the Exodus story through this framework elaborating the motifs of the narrative as they are shaped by Africana interpretative values and approaches that identify three animating threats in the story erasure undermining the community's very existence alienation separating from the space of home and from the ecosystem and singularity holding up the individual over the collective He argues that what he calls badass womanism an intergenerational and interregional life force and epistemology of the people embodied in the midwives Miriam the Egyptian princess and other female figures in the story have challenged these threats He shows how badass womanist triple consciousness creates and is informed by communal approaches to hermeneutics that emphasize survival over erasure integration over alienation and multiplicity over singularity This triple consciousness surfaces throughout the Exodus narrative and informs the narrative portraits of other characters including Moses and Yahweh As the Hebrew people navigate the exodus journey Ngwa investigates how these forces of oppression and resistance shift and take new shapes across the geographies of Egypt the wilderness and the mountain area preceding their passage into the promised land For Africana these geographies also represent colonial global and imperial sites where new subjectivities and epistemologies develop

Geoliturgy and Ecological Crisis Jeffrey S. Lamp, 2024-12-15 Geoliturgy and Ecological Crisis The Spiritual Practice of Caring for Creation examines sources and select practices within Christian tradition Scripture the Nicene Creed the Eucharist and fasting from an ecological perspective in order to develop a practical spirituality for living in an ecologically responsible way in the world This spirituality which Jeffrey S Lamp labels Geoliturgy describes a way to read the Bible ecologically and to understand the doctrinal content of the Nicene Creed in ecological terms Lamp then examines the Eucharist and fasting as liturgical and devotional practices that form the structure of a spirituality that extends from church services into the daily lives of the faithful The resulting vision of this study is the reclamation of the biblical mandate for human beings to function as benevolent priestly co rulers with God in creation to prepare creation to become the dwelling place of God American Education, 1902 Class Room Libraries for Public Schools Buffalo Public Library (Buffalo, N.Y.), 1902
