Reading The Social Body:

Understanding Phenomenological Reflective Practice in the Social and Ecological Fields Peter Westoby, 2022-07-21 This book introduces social practitioners community development workers social workers organisational change facilitators social ecological cultural and political activists to a phenomenological tradition of reflective practice Critiquing reductionist linear and ossified thinking in the social and ecological fields the book offers an exciting new alternative that is honouring of the uncertainty of all living and therefore emergent social processes Linking phenomenology and Goethe's delicate empiricism the book challenges practitioners to observe and work with living processes As such the book charts two stories two inquiries One personal and the other social The first is the personal phenomenological inquiry into the author's own practice a search to make sense of the nuanced and subtle practice that he brings to the social world The second journey is the inquiry into how this social practice shaped as it is by a confluence of three rivers dialogue and community soul and depth psychology Goethe and delicate activism along with other thinkers on observation and aliveness can be understood in the context of a wider phenomenological reflective practice This second journey draws on years of experience and research in Brazil South Africa Australia New Zealand and parts of Europe Presenting a philosophical personal and practical analysis it offers a new approach to observation and action while working with aliveness and complexity within the social and ecological fields It will be of interest to all scholars and students of social work and community development and particularly courses on social complexity

Pregnancy and Birth Karen O'Donnell, 2024-08-30 Pregnancy is a period of time that institutes great change in the lives of those who are pregnant Regardless of whether a pregnancy concludes with the birth of a live child or not there are experiences that are common for many people who are pregnant Yet as a site of theological reflection pregnancy is underrepresented This landmark book seeks to begin the conversation within theology about pregnancy the positive and negative experiences and the potential for pregnancy to be understood theologically Chapters consider a number of avenues in this exploration from early pregnancy loss to trauma in labour from adoption to the end of reproductive years at the onset of menopause Throughout this book seeks to understand the resources that theology brings to the experiences of pregnancy as well as the situations of oppression and underrepresentation that currently exist Allowing for intersections of race parenting childlessness and disability this book approaches pregnancy from different theological perspectives in order to complexify the theological response and engagement as well as produce constructive resources for both the academy and the church Contributors include Chine McDonald Julie Gittoes Margaret Kamitsuka and Rachel Muers

Centuries of Holiness Richard Valantasis, 2005-02-18 Richard Valantasis brings us a guide to the spiritual life for the smart seeker who wants to be fully attuned to God interactive with other believers connected to the wider world in which humans live engaged with the physical universe committed to service to the poor and disenfranchised and finally postmodern Adopting a literary device first used in the fourth century by the Desert Father Evagrius Pontikos Richard Valantasis offers a century of spiritual texts a hundred short essays from 800 to 900 words on a hundred spiritual themes Believing that tradition is the action of the Holy Spirit making available the wisdom of the past in a new idiom and a time Valantasis moves from the premodern spiritual world of the Christian tradition to the postmodern realities of our current world and back again Sample entries Conversion Sanctification Incarnate Living Discernment Divine Indwelling Union with God Ennui Progress Holy Dying Habitual Prayer Thorns and Impediments Praying the Bodies Spiritual Direction Emotional Ecology Seeing Double The Body Transparent Temptation Consolations The Devil Visions of Deification Humility The Sex Obsession Janet R. Jakobsen,2023-04-11 The Sex Obsession connects perversity and possibility in American politics Reading the French Enlightenment Julie Candler Hayes,1999-07-15 In this 1999 book Julie Candler Hayes offers an ambitious reinterpretation of a crucial aspect of Enlightenment thought the rationalizing and classifying impulse Taking issue both with traditional liberal and contemporary critical accounts of the Enlightenment she analyses the writings of Denis Diderot Emilie Du Ch telet the Abb de Condillac Buffon d Alembert and numerous others to argue for a new understanding of systematic reason as complex paradoxical and ultimately liberating Hayes examines the tensions between freedom and constraint abstraction and materialism linear and synoptic order that pervade not only philosophic and scientific discourse but also epistolary writing fiction and criticism Drawing on the insights of a wide range of theorists from Adorno Habermas and Foucault to Deleuze and Derrida she offers a dialogue between the eighteenth century and our own an ongoing exploration of the question what is Enlightenment

Defining the Victorian Nation Catherine Hall,Keith McClelland,Jane Rendall,2000-05-25 Defining the Victorian Nation offers a fresh perspective on one of the most significant pieces of legislation in nineteenth century Britain Hall McClelland and Rendall demonstrate that the Second Reform Act was marked by controversy about the extension of the vote new concepts of masculinity and the masculine voter the beginnings of the women s suffrage movement and a parallel debate about the meanings and forms of national belonging Fascinating illustrations illuminate the argument and a detailed chronology biographical notes and a selected bibliography offer further support to the student reader The Science of Reading Adrian Johns,2023-04-05 For the first time the story of how and why we have plumbed the mysteries of reading and why it matters today Reading is perhaps the essential practice of modern civilization For centuries it has been seen as key to both personal fulfillment and social progress and millions today depend on it to participate fully in our society Yet at its heart reading is a surprisingly elusive practice This book tells for the first time the story of how American scientists and others have sought to understand reading and by understanding it to improve how people do it Starting around 1900 researchers convinced of the urgent need to comprehend a practice central to industrial democracy began to devise instruments and experiments to investigate what happened to people when they read They traced how a good reader s eyes moved across a page of printed characters and they asked how their mind apprehended meanings as they did so In schools across the country millions of Americans learned to read through the application of this science of reading At the same time workers

fanned out across the land to extend the science of reading into the social realm mapping the very geography of information for the first time Their pioneering efforts revealed that the nation's most pressing problems were rooted in drastic informational inequities between North and South city and country and white and Black and they suggested ways to tackle those problems Today much of how we experience our information society reflects the influence of these enterprises This book explains both how the science of reading shaped our age and why with so called reading wars still plaguing schools across the nation it remains bitterly contested

Fabricating Pleasure Karin A. Wurst, 2005 Traces how the German middle class created a unique form of domestic culture that fused consumption with high culture in fashionable forms of entertainment Entertainment defined as occasions for creating pleasure added an important dimension to the lifestyle and self definition of the German middle class around the turn of the nineteenth century Modern forms of culture and consumption appearing around this time not only enhanced pleasure in physical sensations but also enabled imaginary sensations in the absence of actual stimuli Desiring rather than having became an important mode of cultural consumption linking products and practices with self image serving to express social identity in an increasingly more anonymous society a society where the modern freedom of choice brought with it a loss of tradition and the stability attached to it Fabricating Pleasure traces the creation of this unique form of domestic culture showing how the bourgeoisie of late eighteenth and early nineteenth century Germany fused consumption with high culture Author Karin Wurst illuminates the sociohistorical context and the emergence of the modern middle class its differentiation and its conception of culture In her thoughtful analysis Wurst reconstructs the roles of Empfindsamkeit sensibility and the new love paradigm examining the change in mentality they fostered through the reconceptualization of pleasure and entertainment The book also discusses the relationship between print culture using Bertuch's Journal des Luxus und der Moden as its prime example and an increase in social mobility From art and music to fashion and travel Wurst places these popular forms of entertainment and pleasurable diversion in their social and historical contexts and also shows how they have remarkable bearing on present day debates on cultural literacy

Reading Capitalist Realism Alison Shonkwiler, Leigh Claire La Berge, 2014-04 Presents approaches to the question of the relation between capitalism and narrative form partly by questioning how the realism of austerity privatization and wealth protection relate to the realism of narrative and cultural production

Ethics and Politics in Modern American Poetry John Wrighton, 2012-06-25 From the Objectivists to the poetry this thoughtful and innovative book explores the dynamic relationship between the ethical imperative and poetic practice revitalizing the study of the most prominent post war American poets in a fresh provocative way Contributing to the turn to ethics in literary studies the book begins with Emmanuel Levinas philosophy proposing that his reorientation of ontology and ethics demands a social responsibility In poetic practice this responsibility for the other it is argued is both responsive to the traumatized semiotics of our shared language and directed towards an emancipatory social activism Individual chapters deal with Charles Olson's The

Maximus Poems including reproductions of previously unpublished archive material Gary Snyder's environmental poetry Allen Ginsberg's Beat poetics Jerome Rothenberg's ethnopoetics and Bruce Andrew's Language poetry Following the book's chronological and contextual approach their work is situated within a constellation of poetic schools and movements and in relation to the shifting socio-political conditions of post-war America In its redefinition and extension of the key notion of poethics and as guide to the development of experimental work in modern American poetry this book will interest and appeal to a wide audience

Scent and Scent-sibilities Kelvin E. Y. Low, 2008-12-18 Smells are distinct and ubiquitous They envelope us enter our bodies and emanate from us Yet they remain relegated to the background of everyday life experiences This book attempts to highlight the social salience of smell in social actors day to day encounters where issues involving morality and social othering presentation of self and personhood intertwine with analyses of smell as a social conduit These encounters include the experiences of anosmic individuals which capture non-olfactive social worlds that are rarely addressed hitherto Further deliberations on olfaction in relation to social memberships of race class and gender elucidate upon social boundaries of inclusion and exclusion constructed vis-à-vis smell as a social marker Olfactive adjudications of race and class are then expanded upon through the author's discussion of various smellscape in the context of Singapore Olfaction sanitary discipline and olfactive simulacra are also expounded upon thereby underscoring the control and manipulation of scents in the contexts of modernity and postmodernity Smells therefore offer insights into the workings of social relations and power structures in society By predicating analyses on empirical data procured from Singapore along with case studies from the region and beyond this study draws much needed attention on smell which has been a neglected sense in the wider literature In addition the concurrent employment of the other senses will also be explicated which therefore demonstrates the social character of smell and other sensory modalities through historical and contemporary milieus This book is a pioneering effort in offering sociocultural interpretations of scents based on primary and secondary data analysed using the trajectory of sociology of everyday life

Cosplay and the Dressing of Identity Vivian Asimos, 2024-10-13 Featuring several images of cosplay a fun and fascinating look at the power and meaning of this cultural phenomenon Cosplay born from the fusion of costume and play transcends mere dress up by transforming enthusiasts of TV shows movies books or video games into living embodiments of their cherished characters This book is a close exploration of the vibrant world of cosplay showing what makes it so captivating for so many Vivian Asimos frames cosplay as an enactment and embodiment of mythology revealing its inherent complexity and in so doing provides valuable insight into cosplayers' experiences Exploring cosplay performances the skills involved and its community she shows how cosplayers build a strong connection to the characters and stories they treasure and ultimately how they are constructing their own identities

Symbol and Sacrament Louis-Marie Chauvet, 1995 This work comes at an opportune hour a time in which many complain that contemporary theology lacks a general theory of sacraments Chauvet charts a reorientation in sacramental theology from the scholastic treatments which appropriated the metaphysical categories of causality and substance to develop an essentially instrumentalist appreciation of grace in favor of an approach through the category of symbol In this approach the subject is as much grasped and transformed by the symbolic representation as is the object being interpreted Chauvet commands a wealth of scholarship which he deploys to powerful effect His work in developing a foundational theology of sacramentality will remain the standard for years to come Dazzling Bodies Richard Valantasis,2014-10-23 Spirituality is always developed and nurtured in community and communities have particular spiritualities Dazzling Bodies promotes practices and performances as the basis for individual and community spiritual formation by analyzing specific experiences and real life situations in personal and corporate life Three bodies are delineated as the basis for spiritual formation the physical body the social body and the corporate body Drawing on theories of communication semiotics social semiotics and narrative theory the book examines personal and corporate spiritual formation both by plotting the ways community systems create solidarity and by analyzing community systems for the modulation of power at work Dazzling Bodies explores the development of a specific language system for each community taking the sermon as the primary instrument of community formation Liturgy and worship receive special attention A theory of asceticism based on specific performances founded in renewed social relationships and forming an alternative symbolic universe provides parameters for individual and corporate spiritual formation Advertising Myths Anne Cronin,2012-11-12 Advertising is often portrayed negatively as corrupting a mythically pure relationship between people and things In Advertising Myths Anne Cronin argues that it is better understood as a matrix of transformation that performs divisions in the social order and arranges classificatory regimes Focusing on consumption controversies Cronin contends that advertising is constituted of circuits of belief that flow between practitioners clients regulators consumers and academics Controversies such as those over tobacco and alcohol advertising she argues distil these beliefs and articulate with programmes of social engineering aimed at altering consumption patterns This book will be essential reading for students and academics of advertising and consumption

Queer Democracy Daniel D. Miller,2021-08-25 Queer Democracy undertakes an interdisciplinary critical investigation of the centuries old metaphor of society as a body drawing on queer and transgender accounts of embodiment as a constructive resource for reimagining politics and society Daniel Miller argues that this metaphor has consistently expressed a desire for social and political order grounded in the social body's imagined normative shape or morphology The consistent result from the concord discourses of the pre Christian Stoics all the way through to contemporary nationalism and populism has been the suppression of any dissent that would unmake the social body's presumed normativity Miller argues that the conception of embodiment at the heart of the metaphor is a fantasy and that negative social and political reactions to dissent represent visceral dysphoric responses to its reshaping of the social body He argues that social body's essential queerness defined by fluidity and lack of a fixed morphology spawns queer democracy expressed through ongoing social and political practices that aim to extend liberty and equality to new social domains Queer Democracy articulates a new departure for the ongoing development of theoretical articulations linking queer and trans theory with political theory It will appeal to both academic and non academic readers engaged in research on political theory populism US religion gender studies and queer studies

The Circulation of Knowledge in Early Modern English Literature Sophie Chiari, 2016-03-09 With its many rites of initiation religious educational professional or sexual Elizabethan and Jacobean education emphasized both imitation and discovery in a struggle to bring population to a minimal literacy while more demanding techniques were being developed for the cultural elite The Circulation of Knowledge in Early Modern English Literature examines the question of transmission and of the educational procedures in 16th and 17th century England by emphasizing deviant practices that questioned reassessed or even challenged pre established cultural norms and traditions This volume thus alternates theoretical analyses with more specific readings in order to investigate the multiple ways in which ideas then circulated It also addresses the ways in which the dominant cultural forms of the literature and drama of Shakespeare's age were being subverted In this regard its various contributors analyze how the interrelated processes of initiation transmission and transgression operated at the core of early modern English culture and how Christopher Marlowe William Shakespeare and Thomas Middleton or lesser known poets and playwrights such as Thomas Howell Thomas Edwards and George Villiers managed to appropriate these cultural processes in their works

The Cambridge Companion to Durkheim Jeffrey C. Alexander, Philip Smith, 2005-05-26 An authoritative and comprehensive collection of essays redefining the relevance of Durkheim to the human sciences in the twenty first century

The Social Science Encyclopedia Adam Kuper, 2003-12-16 The Social Science Encyclopedia first published in 1985 to acclaim from social scientists librarians and students was thoroughly revised in 1996 when reviewers began to describe it as a classic This third edition has been radically recast Over half the entries are new or have been entirely rewritten and most of the balance have been substantially revised Written by an international team of contributors the Encyclopedia offers a global perspective on the key issues within the social sciences Some 500 entries cover a variety of enduring and newly vital areas of study and research methods Experts review theoretical debates from neo evolutionism and rational choice theory to poststructuralism and address the great questions that cut across the social sciences What is the influence of genes on behaviour What is the nature of consciousness and cognition What are the causes of poverty and wealth What are the roots of conflict wars revolutions and genocidal violence This authoritative reference work is aimed at anyone with a serious interest in contemporary academic thinking about the individual in society
