A History of the Book in America David Paul Nord, Joan Shelley Rubin, Michael Schudson, 2015-12-01 The fifth volume of A History of the Book in America addresses the economic social and cultural shifts affecting print culture from World War II to the present During this period factors such as the expansion of government the growth of higher education the climate of the Cold War globalization and the development of multimedia and digital technologies influenced the patterns of consolidation and diversification established earlier The thirty three contributors to the volume explore the evolution of the publishing industry and the business of bookselling The histories of government publishing law and policy the periodical press literary criticism and reading in settings such as schools libraries book clubs self help programs and collectors societies receive imaginative scrutiny as well The Enduring Book demonstrates that the corporate consolidations of the last half century have left space for the independent publisher that multiplicity continues to define American print culture and that even in the digital age the book endures Contributors David Abrahamson Northwestern University James L Baughman University of Wisconsin Madison Kenneth Cmiel d 2006 James Danky University of Wisconsin Madison Robert DeMaria Jr Vassar College Donald A Downs University of Wisconsin Madison Robert W Frase d 2003 Paul C Gutjahr Indiana University David D Hall Harvard Divinity School John B Hench American Antiquarian Society Patrick Henry New York City College of Technology Dan Lacy d 2001 Marshall Leaffer Indiana University Bruce Lewenstein Cornell University Elizabeth Long Rice University Beth Luey Arizona State University Tom McCarthy Beirut Lebanon Laura J Miller Brandeis University Priscilla Coit Murphy Chapel Hill N C David Paul Nord Indiana University Carol Polsgrove Indiana University David Reinking Clemson University Jane Rhodes Macalester College John V Richardson Jr University of California Los Angeles Joan Shelley Rubin University of Rochester Michael Schudson University of California San Diego and Columbia University Linda Scott University of Oxford Dan Simon Seven Stories Press Ilan Stavans Amherst College Harvey M Teres Syracuse University John B Thompson University of Cambridge Trysh Travis University of Florida Jonathan Zimmerman New York University

Great Books by German Women in the Age of Emotion, 1770-1820 Margaretmary Daley, 2022 Literature written by women in German during the period long known patriarchally as the Age of Goethe was largely lumped in with other unserious or artistically unworthy works under the category Trivialliteratur literally trivial literature Using insights from Gender Studies yet acknowledging the need for a literary canon Great Books by German Women offers a critical interpretation of six canon worthy German novels written by women in the period for which it coins the term Age of Emotion The novels are chosen because they depict women s ordinary yet interesting lives and equally because each displays formal strengths that yield prose particularly able to express emotion The first Sophie von La Roche s Die Geschichte des Fr auleins von Sternheim The History of Lady von Sternheim draws on the tradition of the epistolary novel while also finding new ways to depict empathetic emotions The second Friederike Unger s Julchen Gr unthal brings to the Frauenroman or women s novel the use of irony to portray a heroine s emotions during her coming of age The next novels add lyricism to their prose to capture sensual emotions Sophie Mereau's Blütenalter der Empfindung The Blossoming of Feeling imagines women's affinity for the philosophical sublime while Caroline Wolzogen depicts female desire in her Agnes von Lilien The fifth novel Die Honigmonathe The Honeymoon by Karoline Fischer explores the agony that extreme emotions cause not only for women but also for men The last novel Caroline Pichler's Frauenwürde The Dignity of Women expands the focus from a young heroine to multiple mature characters while maintaining the centrality of women's talents and emotions Finally this study accords honorable mention to some other women's novels before concluding that the influence of these six works was in no way trivial either in portraying women's lives and emotions or in the history of German literature Reading Materials Rona Kaufman, 2002 Reading Matters Catherine Sheldrick Ross, Lynne (E.F.) McKechnie, Paulette M. Rothbauer, 2006 Drawing upon data published in a variety of scholarly journals and monographs as well as their own research findings the authors shatter some of the popular myths about reading and offer a cogent case for the library's vital role in the life of a reader

Massey, 2002 This reader is designed to supplement any core textbook in Introduction to Mass Communication The goal of the reader is to help students think more critically about the media By drawing from a wide variety of sources and political and cultural viewpoints this collection is predicated on the fact that students learn about the media mainly through the media by reading or hearing about media in media publications or broadcasts These articles are drawn mostly from popular and alternative media and take a hard and critical look at the political and social forces that drive media decision making Kaffir Boy in America Mark Mathabane, 1989 Mathabane recounts his new life in America and provides a fascinating explanation on Americans' mores The Reading Context Dorothy U. Seyler, 2003-07 The Reading Context provides extensive reading skills practice at a new value price of under 25 Designed for developmental reading courses Grades 9 The Reading Context emphasizes reading as a three step prepare read respond process The book starts where developing readers need to start with an explanation of the context created by author work and reader It also stresses the importance of thinking about who the writer is what the author s purpose is what kind of work students are about to read and what they can expect to gain from it Reading selections have been chosen to hold student interest while representing the kinds of material they will meet in college assignments textbook material from business to psychology from advertising to history from health to education Chapters are filled with short prose pieces for illustration and practice and each chapter concludes with two or three longer reading selections In each chapter clear explanations of each reading skill are supported by numerous exercises

Religion and Politics in the Contemporary United States R. Marie Griffith, Melani McAlister, 2008-06-09 This collection of essays from a special issue of American Quarterly explores the complex and sometimes contradictory ways that religion matters in contemporary public life Religion and Politics in the Contemporary United States offers a groundbreaking cross disciplinary conversation between scholars in American studies and religious studies The contributors explore numerous modes through which religious faith has mobilized political action They utilize a variety of definitions of politics ranging from lobbying by religious leaders to the political impact of popular culture Their work includes the political activities of a very diverse group of religious believers Christians Jews Muslims Hindus Buddhists and others In addition the book explores the meanings of religion for people who might contest the term those who are spiritual but not religious for example as well as activists who engage symbols of faith and community but who may not necessarily consider themselves members of a specific religion Several essays also examine the meanings of secular identity humanist politics and the complex evocations of civil religion in American life No other book on religion and politics includes anything like the diversity of religions ethnicities and topics that this one does from Mormon political mobilization to attempts at Americanizing Muslims in the post 9 11 United States from Cesar Chavez to James Dobson from interreligious cooperation and conflict over Darfur to the global politics surrounding the category of Hindus and South Asians in the United States
