Reading Theory An Introduction To Lacan Derrida And Kristeva:

Reading Theory Michael Payne, 1993-08-20 Deconstruction psychoanalysis and semiotics have become part of the vocabulary of contemporary culture Reading Theory introduces the principal texts by Derrida Lacan and Kristeva that are behind these terms and that provide their contexts This book concentrates its attention on making accessible what these three theorists have written rather than offering a synthetic construction of the fashionable terminology of theory Works carefully through key texts by the leading contemporary theorists Clear accessible and introductory Challenges recent attacks on theory and on Derrida Jacques Lacan and Feminist Epistemology Kirsten Campbell, 2004-07-31 Using Lacanian psychoanalysis as a starting point Campbell examines contemporary feminism's turn to accounts of feminist knowing to create new conceptions of the political A Dictionary of Cultural and Critical Theory Michael Payne, Jessica Rae Barbera, 2013-05-06 Now thoroughly updated and revised this new edition of the highly acclaimed dictionary provides an authoritative and accessible guide to modern ideas in the broad interdisciplinary fields of cultural and critical theory Updated to feature over 40 new entries including pieces on Alain Badiou Ecocriticism Comparative Racialization Ordinary Language Philosophy and Criticism and Graphic Narrative Includes reflective broad ranging articles from leading theorists including Julia Kristeva Stanley Cavell and Simon Critchley Features a fully updated bibliography Wide ranging content makes this an invaluable dictionary for students of a diverse range of disciplines Experiencing the Postmetaphysical Self Fionola Meredith, 2004-12-14 This book charts and challenges the bruising impact of post Saussurean thought on the categories of experience and self presence It attempts a reappropriation of the category of lived experience in dialogue with poststructuralist thinking Following the insight that mediated subjectivity need not mean alienated selfhood Meredith forwards a postmetaphysical model of the experiential based on the interpenetration of poststructuralist thinking and hermeneutic phenomenology Since poststructuralist approaches in feminist theory have often placed women's lived experiences under erasure Meredith uses this hermeneutic deconstructive model to attempt a rehabilitation of the singular flesh and blood female existent Kristeva's Fiction Benigno Trigo, 2013-11-01 Psychoanalytic perspectives on Kristeva's fiction Text and Trauma Ian Richard Netton, 2012-12-06 An essay in literary criticism with a difference addressing the nature of blasphemy and using selected novels by Salman Rushdie Najib Mahfuz and Nikos Kazantzakis as case studies Background Noise Brandon LaBelle, 2006-01-01 The rise of a prominent auditory culture reveals the degree to which sound art is lending definition to the 21st Century And yet sound art still lacks related literature to compliment and expand the realm of practice Background Noise sets out an historical overview while at the same time shaping that history according to what sound art reveals the dynamics of art to operate spatially through media of reproduction and broadcast and in relation to the intensities of communication and its contextual framework Bloody Living Rhona Trench, 2010 This book deals with the process of negotiation with the past in the present through the plays of Marina Carr The title frames the work connoting the path towards destruction and the sense of lethargy acquired along the way The book offers an in depth and extensive reading of Carr s plays In doing so it surveys some of the destructive issues represented in the works and provides a series of social and cultural contexts to which the concerns in the works are related Carr is best known for her trilogy The Mai Portia Coughlan and By the Bog of Cats and more recently Woman and Scarecrow The Cordelia Dream and Marble The plays are regularly concerned with notions of identity in the context of self destruction self estrangement and displacement This book applies Julia Kristeva s theory of abjection to Carr s plays in an effort to structure the loss the author identifies in the works Themes of memory history and myth are examined in the context of these concerns in provocative and confrontational ways The Change in Female Subjectivity in Women's Fiction Hasibe Ambarcioğlu, 2024-04-02 This book aims to provide readers with an inclusive reading of Kristevan theories on subjectivity focusing on semiotic and symbolic phases of the infant abjection melancholy love and revolution It presents three different types of novels from three well known female authors in order to study their female characters who are subjects in process trying to overcome their psychological maladies In each part different eras have been chosen to see how female subjectivity has changed throughout the Feminist Waves starting from the Victorian period until the Third Wave With its feminist stance this book is expected to appeal to the students researchers and academicians particularly those in the fields of sociocultural studies and literature

Mixed News Jay Black, 2013-12-02 This volume addresses some of the central issues of journalism today the nature and needs of the individual versus the nature and needs of the broader society theories of communitarianism versus Enlightenment liberalism independence versus interdependence vs co dependency negative versus positive freedoms Constitutional mandates versus marketplace mandates universal ethical issues versus situational and or professional values traditional values versus information age values ethics of management versus ethics of worker bees commitment and compassion versus detachment and professional distance conflicts of interest versus conflicted disinterest and talking to versus talking with All of these issues are discussed within the framework of the frenetic field of daily journalism a field that operates at a pace and under a set of professional standards that all but preclude careful systematic examinations of its own rituals and practices The explorations presented here not only advance the enterprise but also help student and professional observers to work through some of the most perplexing dilemmas to have faced the news media and public in recent times This lively volume showcases the differing opinions of journalistic experts on this significant contemporary issue in public life Unlike previous books and monographs which have tended toward unbridled enthusiasm about public journalism and trade press articles which have tended toward pessimism this book offers strong voices on several sides of this complex debate To help inform the debate a series of voices journalistic interviews with practitioners and critics of public journalism is interspersed throughout the text At the end of each essay a series of quotes from a wide variety of sources In other words augments each chapter with ideas and insights that support and contradict the points used by each chapter author The Communication Theory Reader Paul Cobley, 1996 This collection of readings is designed to provide easy access to Communication Theory Many of the essays in the Reader have previously been difficult to obtain and many have appeared in contexts where their relevance for communications media and cultural studies was not immediately apparent The Reader presents the most important work which has shaped the field as it stands today The articles are grouped in subject sections with an editor's introduction indications of further reading together with a glossary and comprehensive bibliography

Reconstructing Contexts Robert D. Hume, 1999 This book attempts to justify and theorize old historicism defining archaeo historicism as a method by which scholars can reconstruct past context in order to apply it to the interpretation of works and events of that time If such reconstruction is to be more than wildly impressionistic it must be grounded in hard evidence handled according to clear rules In this intriguing and rigorous analysis Robert Hume identifies legitimate objects for reconstruction and proposes procedures and principles by which such interpretation may be pursued He then examines the failures of the same method which works only when adequate evidence can be found In particular Hume flatly denies the intellectual legitimacy of literary history as it is commonly practised and attempts to disentangle such history from the practice of historicism The final chapter is devoted to a cogent discussion of how archaeo historicism relates to various forms of contemporary theory Hume offers a profusion of examples of good and bad historicist reconstruction and interpretation drawing largely on English literature but also on American and other world literatures theatre history and music theory Although addressed primarily to literary critics this wide ranging and bold work will be of interest to historians and cultural critics as well

Contemporary British Fiction Nick Bentley, 2008-08-27 This critical guide introduces major novelists and themes in British fiction from 1975 to 2005 It engages with concepts such as postmodernism feminism gender and the postcolonial and examines the place of fiction within broader debates in contemporary culture A comprehensive Introduction provides a historical context for the study of contemporary British fiction by detailing significant social political and cultural events This is followed by five chapters organised around the core themes 1 Narrative Forms 2 Contemporary Ethnicities 3 Gender and Sexuality 4 History Memory and Writing and 5 Narratives of Cultural Space

Ecocritical Theory Axel Goodbody, Kate Rigby, 2011-09-13 One of the more frequently lodged serious and justifiable complaints about ecocritical work is that it is insufficiently theorized Ecocritical Theory puts such claims decisively to rest by offering readers a comprehensive collection of sophisticated but accessible essays that productively investigate the relationship between European theory and ecocritique With its international roster of contributors and subjects it also militates against the parochialism of ecocritics who work within the limited canon of the American West Bringing together approaches and orientations based on the work of European philosophers and cultural theorists this volume is designed to open new pathways for ecocritical theory and practice in the twenty first century

Rhine Crossings Aminia M. Brueggemann, Peter Schulman, 2006-06-01. Rhine Crossings explores the conflicts and resolutions that have characterized the relationship between France and Germany over the past two centuries. Despite their varying outlooks on life and style, the French esprit and the German wesen and despite three bloody wars, the Franco-Prussian and the two world wars, there has always been and still is a vital intellectual, political and cultural exchange between these former archenemies. The essays in this book detail the admiration and antagonism in French and German attempts to seek each other out while keeping their individual senses of self. Focusing on representative works of literature, film and philosophy, the contributors identify the problems vexing these countries: war, economic competition as well as possible solutions, the Maastricht treaty, increasing youth exchange. From the literary salons of the eighteenth century to the trenches of the twentieth, from a love-hate relationship to one of cooperation and peace, this book investigates the unique and volatile dialectic between these two nations and cultures.

Monet, Narcissus, and Self-Reflection Steven Zalman Levine, 1994. Steven Z. Levine provides a new understanding of the life and work of Claude Monet and the myth of the modern artist. Levine analyzes the extensive critical reception of Monet and the artist's own prolific writings in the context of the story of Narcissus, popular in late nineteenth century France. Through a careful blending of psychoanalytical theory and historical study, Levine identifies narcissism and obsession as driving forces in Monet's art and demonstrates how we derive meaning from the accumulated verbal responses to an artist's work

The Liminality of Fairies Piotr Spyra, 2020-05-13
Examining the fairies of medieval romance as liminal beings this book draws on anthropological and philosophical studies of liminality to combine folkloristic insights into the nature of fairies with close readings of selected romance texts Tracing different meanings and manifestations of liminality in Sir Gawain and the Green Knight Sir Orfeo Sir Launfal Thomas of Erceldoune and Robert Henryson's Orpheus and Eurydice the volume offers a comprehensive theory of liminality rooted in structuralist anthropology and poststructuralist theory Arguing that romance fairies both embody and represent the liminal The Liminality of Fairies posits and answers fundamental theoretical questions about the limits of representation and the relationship between romance hermeneutics and criticism The interdisciplinary nature of the argument will appeal not just to medievalists and literary critics but also to anthropologists folklorists as well as scholars working within the fields of cultural history and contemporary literary theory

Changing anarchism Jonathan Purkis, James Bowen, 2018-07-30 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license The massive protests against globalisation in recent years have re-awoken interest in anarchism Changing anarchism sets out to reposition anarchist theory and practice by documenting contemporary anarchist practice and providing a viable analytical framework for understanding it The contributions here from both academics and activists raise challenging and sometimes provocative questions about the complex nature of power and resistance to it The areas covered include sexuality and identity psychological dependency on technology libertarian education religion and spirituality protest tactics mental health and artistic expression and the ongoing metaphorical wars against drugs and terror This collection epitomises the rich diversity that exists within contemporary anarchism as well as demonstrating its ongoing relevance as a sociological tool

Sex in Imagined Spaces Caitriona Dhuill, 2017-07-05 From Thomas More onwards writers of utopias have constructed alternative models of society as a way of commenting critically on existing social orders In the utopian alternative the sex gender system of the contemporary society may be either reproduced or radically re-organised Reading utopian writing as a dialogue between reality and possibility this study examines the relationship between historical sex gender systems and those envisioned by utopian texts Surveying a broad range of utopian writing from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries including Huxley Zamyatin Wedekind Hauptmann and Charlotte Perkins Gilman this book reveals the variety and complexity of approaches to re-arranging gender and locates these re-arrangements within contemporary debates on sex and reproduction masculinity and femininity desire taboo and family structure These issues occupy a position of central importance in the dialogue between utopian imagination and anti-utopian thought which culminates in the great dystopias of the twentieth century and the postmodern re-invention of utopia
