Encyclopedia of African Literature Simon Gikandi,2003-09-02 The most comprehensive reference work on African literature to date this book covers all the key historical and cultural issues in the field The Encyclopedia contains over 600 entries covering criticism and theory African literature s development as a field of scholarship and studies of established and lesser known writers and their texts While the greatest proportion of literary work in Africa has been a product of the twentieth century the Encyclopedia also covers the literature back to the earliest eras of story telling and oral transmission making this a unique and valuable resource for those studying social sciences as well as humanities This work includes cross references suggestions for further reading and a comprehensive index

Decolonisations of Literature Stefan Helgesson,2022-04-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library This book sets out to understand how the meaning of literature was transformed in the Global South in the post 1945 era It looks at institutional contexts in South Africa mainly Johannesburg Brazil S o Paulo Senegal Dakar and Kenya Nairobi and engages with critical writing in English Portuguese and French Critics studied in the book include Antonio Candido Tim Couzens Isabel Hofmeyr Es kia Mphahlele L opold Senghor Taban Lo Liyong and Ngugi wa Thiong o By reading these intellectuals of the Global South as producers of theory and practice in their own right the book attempts to demonstrate the contingency of what is her called the worlding of the concept of literature Decolonisation itself is seen as a contingent non linear process that unfolds in a recursive dialogue with the past In a bid to offer a more grounded approach to world literature a key objective of this study is therefore to investigate the accumulation of temporalities in institutional histories of critical practice To reach this objective it engages the method of conceptual history as developed by Reinhart Koselleck and David Scott demonstrating how the concept of literature is resemanticised in ways that dialectically both challenge and consolidate literature as a concept and practice in post colonised societies

Reading from the South Charne Lavery,Sarah Nuttall,Sunil Amrith,Gabeba Baderoon,Karin Barber,Rimli Bhattacharya,Antoinette Burton,Khwezi Mkhize,Pumla Dineo Gqola,Danai S Mupotsa,Carolyn Hamilton,James Ogude,Christopher EW Ouma,Madhumita Lahiri,Ranka Primorac,Meg Samuelson,Lakshmi Subramanian,2023-08 Draws together reflective and analytical essays by renowned intellectuals from around the world who critically engage with the work of one of the global South s leading scholars of African print cultures and the oceanic humanities Isabel Hofmeyr

The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati,2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920-2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies

Music and Identity Eric Ayisi Akrofi, Maria Smit, Stig-Magnus Thorsén, 2006-06-01 Due to significant political and social changes over the last decade in their countries and worldwide many scholars in the Nordic nations and in Southern Africa have been researching on music and identity an area with a paucity of literature It is our hope that this book will be beneficial to scholars interested in the field of music and identity This volume is the result of the Swedish South African Research Network SSARN project funded from 2004-2006 by the Swedish International Development Cooperation Agency SIDA and the National Research Foundation NRF of South Africa under the theme Music and Identity SSARN was founded by Stig Magnus Thorsén of the University of Gothenburg Sweden in 2002 when he invited Nordic and Southern African scholars to participate in a research group focusing broadly on the topic Music and Identity Publisher's website

West African Literatures Stephanie Newell, 2006 This study of West African literatures interweaves the analysis of fiction drama and poetry with an exploration of the broader political cultural and intellectual contexts within which West African writers work Anglophone literatures form the central focus of the book with comparative comments on vernacular literature francophone writing and oral literatures and detailed discussion of selected francophone texts in translation e g Senghor Tadjou Beyala Ba Sembene BOOK JACKET The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon Gikandi, 2016-09-05 Why did the novel take such a long time to emerge in the colonial world And what cultural work did it come to perform in societies where subjects were not free and modes of social organization diverged from the European cultural centers where the novel gained its form and audience Answering these questions and more Volume 11 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 explores the institutions of cultural production that exerted influence in late colonialism from missionary schools and metropolitan publishers to universities and small presses How these structures provoke and respond to the literary trends and social peculiarities of Africa and the Caribbean impacts not only the writing and reading of novels in those regions but also has a transformative effect on the novel as a global phenomenon Together the volume s 32 contributing experts tell a story about the close relationship between the novel and the project of decolonization and explore the multiple ways in which novels enable readers to imagine communities beyond their own and thus made this form of literature a compelling catalyst for cultural transformation The authors show that even as the novel grows in Africa and the Caribbean as a mark of the elites mastery of European form it becomes the essential instrument for critiquing colonialism and for articulating the new horizons of cultural nationalism Within this historical context the volume examines works by authors such as Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer George Lamming Jamaica Kincaid V S Naipaul Zoe Wicomb J M Coetzee and many others Reading Contemporary African American Literature Beauty Bragg, 2014-11-12 Reading Contemporary African American Literature focuses on the subject of contemporary African American popular fiction by women Bragg s study addresses why such work should be the subject of scholarly examination describes the events and attitudes which account for the critical neglect of this body of work and models a critical approach to such narratives that demonstrates the distinctive ways in which this literature captures the complexities of post civil rights era black experiences In making her arguments regarding the value of popular writing Bragg argues that black women s popular fiction foregrounds gender in ways that are frequently missing from other modes of narrative production They exhibit a responsiveness and timeliness to the shifting social terrain which is reflected in the rapidly shifting styles and themes which characterize popular fiction In doing so they extend the historical function of African American literature by continuing to engage the black body as a symbol of political meaning in the social context of the United States In popular literature Beauty Bragg locates a space from which black women engage a variety of public discourses

Readings In African Popular Fiction Introduction

In the digital age, access to information has become easier than ever before. The ability to download Readings In African Popular Fiction has revolutionized the way we consume written content. Whether you are a student looking for course material, an avid reader searching for your next favorite book, or a professional seeking research papers, the option to download Readings In African Popular Fiction has opened up a world of possibilities. Downloading Readings In African Popular Fiction provides numerous advantages over physical copies of books and documents. Firstly, it is incredibly convenient. Gone are the days of carrying around heavy textbooks or bulky folders filled with papers. With the click of a button, you can gain immediate access to valuable resources on any device. This convenience allows for efficient studying, researching, and reading on the go. Moreover, the cost-effective nature of downloading Readings In African Popular Fiction has democratized knowledge. Traditional books and academic journals can be expensive, making it difficult for individuals with limited financial resources to access information. By offering free PDF downloads, publishers and authors are enabling a wider audience to benefit from their work. This inclusivity promotes equal opportunities for learning and personal growth. There are numerous websites and platforms where individuals can download Readings In African Popular Fiction. These websites range from academic databases offering research papers and journals to online libraries with an expansive collection of books from various genres. Many authors and publishers also upload their work to specific websites, granting readers access to their content without any charge. These platforms not only provide access to existing literature but also serve as an excellent platform for undiscovered authors to share their work with the world. However, it is essential to be cautious while downloading Readings In African Popular Fiction. Some websites may offer pirated or illegally obtained copies of copyrighted material. Engaging in such activities not only violates copyright laws but also undermines the efforts of authors, publishers, and researchers. To ensure ethical downloading, it is advisable to utilize reputable websites that prioritize the legal distribution of content. When downloading Readings In African Popular Fiction, users should also consider the potential security risks associated with online platforms. Malicious actors may exploit vulnerabilities in unprotected websites to distribute malware or steal personal information. To protect themselves, individuals should ensure their devices have reliable antivirus software installed and validate the legitimacy of the websites they are downloading from. In conclusion, the ability to download Readings In African Popular Fiction has transformed the way we access information. With the convenience, cost-effectiveness, and accessibility it offers, free PDF downloads have become a popular choice for students, researchers, and book lovers worldwide. However, it is crucial to engage in ethical downloading practices and prioritize personal security when utilizing online platforms. By doing so, individuals can make the most of the vast array of free PDF resources available and embark on a journey of continuous learning and intellectual growth.
