The Near and Distant God Ian Cooper, 2017-12-02 Poetry and philosophy from the time of Kant to the mid twentieth century are centrally concerned with the question of how the Spirit or the Holy Spirit is present in the world This book argues that the development of modern poetry in German and English can be seen as a protracted response to the religious crises of post Idealist thought The German tradition develops through poets such as Holderlin as much as through philosophers such as Hegel and Nietzsche and in England German ideas profoundly influenced the British Idealist school Cooper's compelling study makes parallel readings of German and English writers with deeper historically based affinities than has previously been realised Eduard Morike and Gerard Manley Hopkins both churchmen each studied Idealism as undergraduates in their respective countries each responded to it in his spiritual verse And we find similar parallels in two of the defining works of twentieth century poetry between Rilke's response to Nietzsche in the Duino Elegies and Eliot's response to Bradley in the Four Quartets Ian Cooper is Centenary Research Fellow at Selwyn College Cambridge

Material Inscriptions Andrzej Warminski, 2016-06-30 This book focuses on the practice and pedagogical value of rhetorical reading Its readings follow an itinerary from poetic texts such as those by Wordsworth and Keats through theoretical or philosophical texts by Descartes and Nietzsche to narrative     Contemporary Scottish Poetry and the Natural World Monika Szuba, 2019-06-24 With an exciting and provocative approach to the reading of landscape and the non human world in the work of four major Scottish poets this groundbreaking book merges phenomenology and ecocritical literary criticism     The Oxford Handbook of European Romanticism Paul Hamilton, 2016-01-14 The Oxford Handbook to European Romanticism brings together leading scholars in the field to examine the intellectual literary philosophical and political elements of European Romanticism The book focuses on the cultural history of the period extending from the French Revolution to the uprisings of 1848 It begins with a series of chapters examining key texts written by major writers in languages including French German Italian Spanish Russian Hungarian Greek and Polish amongst others A second section then explores the naturally inter disciplinary quality of Romanticism exemplified by the different discourses with which writers of the time set up an internal comparative dynamic These chapters highlight the sense a discourse gives of being written knowledgeably against other pretenders to completeness or comprehensiveness of self understanding of the time Discourses typically advance their own claims to resume European culture collaborating with and at the same time trying to assimilate each other in the process The main examples featured here are history geography drama theology language philosophy political theory the sciences and the media Each chapter offers an original and individual interpretation of an inherently comparative world of individual writers and the discursive idioms to which they are historically subject Together the forty one chapters provide a comprehensive and provocative overview of European Romanticism

Hölderlin, the Poetics of Being Adrian Del Caro, 1991 Here is a comprehensive introduction for the English reader to the poetry of Friedrich Hölderlin Here is a comprehensive introduction for the English reader to the poetry of Friedrich Hölderlin The poet is studied in the context of the romantic age but as one who imparted depth to the movement and influenced the critical debates of the 20th century Adrian Del Caro presents a detailed readable discussion of Hölderlin's major poems that clarifies but does not lose sight of the powerful formulations that animate Hölderlinian spirit Hölderlin's specific effort in the determination of the direction of modern man had to do with the relationship of poetry to being Del Caro draws on the contributions of Nietzsche and Heidegger within the theoretical framework of the question of being Hölderlin the poet of poets is presented at work and in his works as the instrument of conviviality binding mortal to mortal and mortal to divine

Reading on the Edge Cyraina E. Johnson-Roullier, 2000-05-18 Reading on the Edge explores the notion of multiple cultural identity and exile in the work of Marcel Proust James Joyce and James Baldwin Focusing on the cultural politics of modernism through the prism of cultural theory the book reconceives each author's work while at the same time redrawing modernism's traditionally Eurocentric disciplinary boundaries The book therefore has wide implications for our understanding of modernism and the modernist canon

The Philosophy of Exemplarity Jakub Mácha, 2022-10-28 This book offers an original philosophical perspective on exemplarity Inspired by Wittgenstein's later work and Derrida's theory of deconstruction it argues that examples are not static entities but rather oscillate between singular and universal moments There is a broad consensus that exemplary cases mediate between singular instances and universal concepts or norms In the first part of the book M cha contends that there is a kind of difference between singular examples and general exemplars or paradigms Every example is in part also an exemplar and vice versa Furthermore he develops a paracomplete approach to the logic of exemplarity which allows us to say of an exemplar of X neither that it is an X nor that it is not an X This paradox is structurally isomorphic to Russell's paradox and can be addressed in similar ways In the second part of the book M cha presents four historical studies that exemplify the ideas developed in the first part This part begins with Plato's Forms understood as standards paradigms before considering Kant's theory of reflective judgment as a general epistemological account of exemplarity This is then followed by analyses of Hegel's conceptual moment of particularity and Kuhn's concept of paradigm The book concludes by discussing the speculative hypothesis that all our knowledge is based on paradigms which following the logic of exemplarity are neither true nor false The Philosophy of Exemplarity will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in philosophy of language logic history of philosophy and literary theory

Textual Practice Terence Hawkes, 2005-07-20 More than just a study of texts and new literary theory Textual Practice employs critical approaches to such diverse disciplines as philosophy history gender and media studies

The Vegetative Soul Elaine P. Miller, 2012-02-01 The Vegetative Soul demonstrates that one significant resource for the postmodern critique of subjectivity can be found in German Idealism and Romanticism specifically in the philosophy of nature Miller demonstrates that the perception of German Idealism and Romanticism as the culmination of the philosophy of the subject overlooks the nineteenth century critique of subjectivity with reference to the natural world This book's contribution is its articulation of a plant-like subjectivity The vision of the human being as plant combats the now familiar conception of the modern subject as atomistic autonomous and characterized primarily by its separability and freedom from nature Reading Kant Goethe Hölderlin Hegel and Nietzsche Miller juxtaposes two strands of nineteenth century German thought comparing the more familiar animal understanding of individuation and subjectivity to an alternative plantlike one that emphasizes interdependence vulnerability and metamorphosis While providing the necessary historical context the book also addresses a question that has been very important for recent feminist theory especially French feminism namely the question of the possible configuration of a feminine subject The idea of the vegetative subject takes the traditional alignment of the feminine with nature and the earth and subverts and transforms it into a positive possibility Although the roots of this alternative conception of subjectivity can be found in Kant's third Critique and its legacy in nineteenth century Naturphilosophie the work of Luce Irigaray brings it to fruition

Intrigues Gabriel Riera, 2006 This book examines the possibility of writing the other and explores whether an ethical writing that preserves the other as such is possible It also discusses what the implications are for an ethically inflected criticism Emmanuel Levinas and Maurice Blanchot whose works constitute the most thorough contemporary exploration of the question of the other and of its relation to writing are Riera's main focus Critics in recent years have discussed an ethical moment or turn characterized by the other's irruption into the order of discourse The other becomes a true crossroads of disciplines since it affects several aspects of discourse the constitution of the subject the status of knowledge the nature of representation and what that representation represses gender power Through close readings of texts by Heidegger Levinas and Blanchot this book examines how the question of the other engages the very limits of philosophy rationality and power
