Readings In Judaism Christianity And Islam:

Readings in Judaism, Christianity and Islam Corrington, John Corrigan, 1998 Readings for all three religions are arranged to allow for the identification of similarities and differences among the traditions A brief introduction sets each reading in its time and place and in many cases provides commentary on the significance of the material Jews, Christians, Muslims John Corrigan, Frederick Denny, Martin S Jaffee, Carlos Eire, 2016-01-08 Thematic examination of monotheistic religions The second edition of Jews Christians Muslims A Comparative Introduction to Monotheistic Religions compares Judaism Christianity and Islam using seven common themes which are equally relevant to each tradition Provoking critical thinking this text addresses the cultural framework of religious meanings and explores the similarities and differences among Judaism Christianity and Islam as it explains the ongoing process of interpretation in each religion The book is designed for courses in Western and World Religions The Sacred Books of Judaism, Christianity and Islam Various Authors, 2022-05-17 The Sacred Books of Judaism Christianity and Islam presents an intricate tapestry of texts that are foundational to the three major monotheistic faiths This anthology not only compiles significant scriptures such as the Hebrew Bible the New Testament and the Quran but also explores them through a comparative lens revealing the interconnections and distinct theological frameworks that have shaped religious thought and practice throughout history The literary style embraces scholarly rigor while remaining accessible inviting readers to contemplate the profound narratives hymns and legal codes that define each tradition The contributors to this collection a diverse group of scholars and theologians bring their expertise in religious studies historical contexts and scriptural interpretation Their insights are informed by years of academic inquiry and personal engagement with faith traditions allowing for a nuanced presentation of scriptures that acknowledges both their historical origins and contemporary relevance This work emerges from a growing scholarly interest in dialogical approaches to understanding religion in our pluralistic world This anthology is highly recommended for anyone interested in the shared roots and distinctive elements of these faiths as it fosters a deeper appreciation for the sacred narratives that continue to resonate in the lives of millions Whether you are a student of theology a curious seeker or an interfaith practitioner this compilation serves as an essential resource for understanding how these texts inform ethical social and spiritual dimensions in today's global society Judaism, Christianity, and Islam Amanullah De Soudy, Michelle A. Gonzalez, William S. Green, 2020-10-15 Judaism Christianity and Islam An Introduction to Monotheism shows how a shared monotheistic legacy frames and helps explain the commonalities and disagreements among Judaism Christianity and Islam and their significant denominations in the world today Taking a thematic approach and covering both historical and contemporary dimensions the authors discuss how contemporary geographic and cultural contexts shape the expression of monotheism in the three religions It covers differences between religious expressions in Israeli Judaism Latin American Christianity and British Islam Topics discussed include scripture creation covenant and identity ritual ethics peoplehood and community redemption salvation life after death gender sexuality and marriage This introductory text which contains over 30 images a map a timeline chapter afterthoughts and critical questions is written by three authors with extensive teaching experience each a specialist in one of the three monotheistic traditions Interpreting Scriptures in Judaism, Christianity and Islam Mordechai Z. Cohen,Adele Berlin,2016-06-06

This comparative study traces Jewish Christian and Muslim scriptural interpretation from antiquity to modernity with special emphasis on the pivotal medieval period It focuses on three areas responses in the different faith traditions to tensions created by the need to transplant scriptures into new cultural and linguistic contexts changing conceptions of the literal sense and its importance vis vis non literal senses such as the figurative spiritual and midrashic and ways in which classical rhetoric and poetics informed or were resisted in interpretation Concentrating on points of intersection the authors bring to light previously hidden aspects of methods and approaches in Judaism Christianity and Islam This volume opens new avenues for interdisciplinary analysis and will benefit scholars and students of biblical studies religious studies medieval studies Islamic studies Jewish studies comparative religions and theory of interpretation The Concept of Tolerance in

Judaism, Christianity and Islam Catharina Rachik,Georges Tamer,2025-10-06 Tolerance as a universal value of modernity is not usually associated in popular consciousness with religion which is often regarded as inherently intolerant This volume addresses the hermeneutics of tolerance as it pertains to Judaism Christianity and Islam Each author offers a distinctive theological interpretation of traditional sources elucidating the potential and limitations of tolerance in the monotheistic thought Additionally the book presents examinations of the promotion of tolerance in diverse historical and cultural contexts illustrating both similarities and differences between the three religions The evidence presented in this volume demonstrates that tolerance occupies an important place in Judaism Christianity and Islam Gender Justice in Muslim-Christian

Readings Anne Hege Grung,2015-09-29 In recent decades women in the Christian and Islamic traditions have been negotiating what it means to participate in religious practice as a woman within the two traditions and how to interpret canonical scripture This book creates a shared space for Muslim and Christian women with diverse cultural and denominational backgrounds by making meaning of texts from the Bible the Koran and the Hadith It builds on the reading and discussion of the Hagar narratives as well as 1 Timothy 2 8 15 and Sura 4 34 from the New Testament and the Koran respectively by a group of both Christian and Muslim women Interpretative strategies and contextual analyses emerge from the hermeneutical analysis of the women s discussions on the ambiguous contributions of the texts mentioned above to the traditional views on women This book shows how intertextual dialogue between the Christian and Islamic traditions establishes an interpretative community through the encounter of Christian and Muslim readers The negotiation between a search for gender justice and the Christian and Islamic traditions as lived religions is extended into a quest for gender justice through the co reading of texts In times when gender and the status of women are played into the field of religious identity politics this book shows that bringing female readers together to explore the canonical texts in the two traditions provides new insights about the texts the contexts and the ways in which Muslim Christian dialogue can provide complex and promising hermeneutical space where important questions can be posed and shared strategies found Eve and Adam Kristen E. Kvam, Linda S. Schearing, Valarie H. Ziegler, 1999-05-15 This anthology surveys more than 2 000 years of Jewish Christian and Muslim commentary and debate on the biblical story that continues to raise questions about what it means to be a man or to be a woman Sacrifice in Judaism, Christianity, and Islam David L. Weddle, 2017-09-19 Common features of sacrifice Theories of sacrifice Sacrifice in Jewish tradition Sacrifice in Christian tradition Sacrifice in Islamic tradition The Challenge of the Mosaic Torah in Judaism, Christianity, and Islam, 2020-10-12 The aim of The Challenge of the Mosaic Torah in Judaism Christianity and Islam is to address the theological issues arising when different ancient religious groups inside three Abrahamic religions attempted to understand or define their opinion on the Mosaic Torah Twelve articles explore various instances of accepting modifying ignoring criticizing and vilifying the Mosaic Torah They demonstrate a range of perspectives of ways in which the Mosaic Torah has formed a challenge These challenges include Persian religious policy when the Mosaic Torah was formed intra Jewish discussions e g Samaritans religious practices the New Testament debates of ritual laws and interreligious debates on validity of the Torah stipulations with Christians and Muslims All the papers were discussed at the international conference The Challenge of the Mosaic Torah in Judaism Christianity and Islam organized by bo Akademi University and held in Karkku Finland 17 18 August 2017

Judaism, Christianity, and Islam: The Classical Texts and Their Interpretation, Volume II F. E.

Peters, 1990-08-15 F E Peters has taken the basic texts of the three related and competitive religious systems we call Judaism Christianity and Islam and has juxtaposed them in a topical and parallel arrangement according to the issues that most concerned all these children of Abraham Through these extensive passages and the author s connective commentary the three traditions are shown with their similarities sometimes startlingly underlined and their well known differences now more profoundly exposed What emerges from this ambitious work is a panorama of belief practice and sensibility that will broaden our understanding of our religious and political roots in a past that is by these communities definition still the present Throughout the work we hear an amazing variety of voices some familiar some not all of them central to the primary and secondary canons of their own tradition alongside the Scriptural voice of God are the words of theologians priests visionaries lawyers rulers and the ruled From publisher description Gender in Judaism and Islam Firoozeh Kashani-Sabet, Beth S. Wenger, 2015 This book addresses a range of topics including gendered readings of texts legal issues in marriage and divorce ritual practices and women s literary expressions along with feminist influences within the Muslim and Jewish communities and issues affecting Jewish and Muslim women in contemporary society The volume focuses attention on the theoretical innovations that gender scholarship has brought to the study of Muslim and Jewish experiences

At a time when Judaism and Islam are often discussed as though they were inherently at odds this book offers a reconsideration of the connections between these two traditions

Muslim Christian Relations Observed Robert Setio, 2019-01-01 The Indonesian Dutch Consortium on Muslim Christian Relations brought together academics intellectuals as well as social activists from both countries Christians and Muslims alike While what is published here is the academic output the impact of the consortium has therefore been much broader The contributions are organized according to five generative themes Identity Religion and State Gender Hermeneutics and Theology of Dialogue The book has attracted attention already before its publication It is hoped that this project will inspire continuous efforts for interreligious dialogue

Muslimisch christliche Beziehungen Vergleichende Untersuchungen und Beobachtungen in Indonesien und den Niederlanden Wissenschaftler Intellektuelle und Aktivisten aus den Niederlanden und Indonesien Muslime und Christen Frauen und Männer haben sich hier erstmals in einem Konsortium zusammengefunden um miteinander ins Gespräch zu kommen Während mit diesem Band das Ergebnis vielfältiger gemeinsamer Forschungsprojekte vorgelegt wird hat ihre Initiative darüber hinaus eine viel größere Breitenwirkung in Kirche und Gesellschaft Die Beiträge sind anhand von fünf generativen Themen geordnet Identität Religion und Staat Gender Hermeneutik und Theologie des Dialogs Das Buch hat bereits vor seiner Veröffentlichung großes Interesse auf sich gezogen und kann weitere Bemühungen um interreligiöse Dialoge in den verschiedensten Kontexten inspirieren

Judaism, Christianity, and Islam: The Classical Texts and Their Interpretation, Volume III F. E. Peters, 2018-06-05 Invoking a concept as simple as it is brilliant F E Peters has taken the basic texts of the three related and competitive religious systems we call Judaism Christianity and Islam and has juxtaposed them in a topical and parallel arrangement according to the issues that most concerned all these children of Abraham Through these extensive passages and the author's skillful connective commentary the three traditions are shown with their similarities sometimes startlingly underlined and their well known differences now more profoundly exposed What emerges from this unique and ambitious work is a panorama of belief practice and sensibility that will broaden our understanding of our religious and political roots in a past that is by these communities definition still the present The hardcover edition of the work is bound in one volume and in the paperback version the identical material is broken down into three smaller but self contained books The third The Works of the Spirit focuses on spirituality and worship and contains material on monasticism theology mysticism and the End Time Throughout the work we hear an amazing variety of voices some familiar some not all of them central to the primary and secondary canons of their own tradition alongside the Scriptural voice of God are the words of theologians priests visionaries lawyers rulers and the ruled The work ends as does the same author's now classic Children of Abraham in what Peters calls the classical period that is before the great movements of modernism and reform that were to transform Judaism Christianity and Islam

The Character of David in Judaism, Christianity and Islam, 2021-11-29 King David if one of the most central figures in all of the major monotheistic traditions He generally connotes the heroic past of the more imagined than real ancient Israelite empire and is associated with messianic hopes for the future Nevertheless his richly ambivalent and fascinating literary portrayal in the Hebrew Bible is one of the most complex of all biblical characters This volume aims at taking a new critical look at the process of biblical creation and subsequent exegetical transformation of the character of David and his attributed literary composition the Psalms with particular emphasis put on the multilateral fertilization and cross cultural interchanges among Jews Christians and Muslims

Judaism, Christianity, and Islam Francis E. Peters, 1990 F E Peters has taken the basic texts of the three related and competitive religious systems we call Judaism Christianity and Islam and has juxtaposed them in a topical and parallel arrangement according to the issues that most concerned all these children of Abraham Through these extensive passages and the author's connective commentary the three traditions are shown with their similarities sometimes startlingly underlined and their well known differences now more profoundly exposed What emerges from this ambitious work is a panorama of belief practice and sensibility that will broaden our understanding of our religious and political roots in a past that is by these communities definition still the present Throughout the work we hear an amazing variety of voices some familiar some not all of them central to the primary and secondary canons of their own tradition alongside the Scriptural voice of God are the words of theologians priests visionaries lawyers rulers and the ruled From publisher description
