working to dislodge fixed oppositions between art and craft decorative and profound and masculine and feminine in art Tracing the history of the women s art movement in Secessionist Vienna from its origins in 1897 at the Women s Academy to the Association of Austrian Women Artists and its radical offshoot the Wiener Frauenkunst Brandow Faller tells the compelling story of a movement that reclaimed the stereotypes attached to the idea of Frauenkunst or women s art She shows how generational struggles and diverging artistic philosophies of art craft and design drove the conservative and radical wings of Austria s women s art movement apart and explores the ways female artists and craftswomen reinterpreted and extended the Klimt Group s ideas in the interwar years Brandow Faller draws a direct connection to the themes that impelled the better known explosion of feminist art in 1970s America In this provocative story of a Viennese modernism that never disavowed its ornamental decorative roots she gives careful attention to key primary sources including photographs and reviews of early twentieth century exhibitions and archival records of school curricula and personnel Engagingly written and featuring more than eighty representative illustrations The Female Secession recaptures the radical potential of what Fanny Harlfinger Zakucka referred to as works from women s hands It will appeal to art historians working in the decorative arts and modernism as well as historians of Secession era Vienna and gender history

Gender Representation in Learning Materials Abolaji S. Mustapha,Sara Mills,2015-08-11 Representations of gender in learning materials convey an implicit message to students about attitudes towards culturally appropriate gender roles for women and men This collection takes a linguistic approach to exploring theories about gender representation within the sphere of education and textbooks and their effects on readers and students within an international context In the opening section contributors discuss theories of representation and effect challenging the conventional Althusserian model of interpellation and acknowledging the challenges of applying Western feminist models within an international context Following chapters provide detailed analyses focusing on a number of different countries Australia Japan Brazil Finland Russia Hong Kong Nigeria Germany Qatar Tanzania and Poland Through linguistic analysis of vocabulary associated with women and men content analysis of what women and men say in textbooks and discourse analysis of the types of linguistic moves associated with women and men contributors evaluate the extent to which gendered representations in textbooks perpetuate stereotypical gender roles what the impact may be on learners and the ways that both teachers and learners interact and engage with these texts
