Emanuel L. Paparella PhD, 2012-08-06 The essays in this book are the distillation of years of reflection writing lecturing and active participation in the ongoing debate on the cultural identity of the European Union the vicissitudes of the transatlantic dialogue the envisioning of new social paradigms the building of more solid and more relevant bridges of understanding between two continents that have a common Western humanistic tradition albeit synthesized to other cultures in America While the approach is personal it remains interdisciplinary and holistic throughout rooted in the poetic philosophy of history of Giambattista Vico and encompassing literature philosophy myth linguistics and political science on the edge of boundaries between the historical grand narrative the religious and even the quotidian and the anecdotal These thirty essays trace the origins of Western Civilization and the synthesis of Humanism and Christianity that is the Renaissance but also Janus like face they look forward to a new Renaissance and humanistic synthesis yet to be envisioned and forged that will dare to be both old and new that will encompass the poetical as well as the rational without losing sight of the universality of our common humanity The journey may be long arduous but it has already begun some sixty years ago Moreover these essays will appeal especially to those readers who are perplexed at the loss of humanistic modes of thought in our post modern technological society A book sure to stimulate the intellect and the imagination of its readers They are given to understand from the outset that Europe more than a geographical political reality is an evolving idea and it is her destiny to live or die as such The readers will be provided with a Vichian chart to assist them in intellectually navigating and journey on this unique idea called Europa Sharing the Journey David Yellin,2017-05-12 This wonderful resource from two authors with an infectious enthusiasm for children s literature will help readers select and share quality books for and with young children Specifically focused on infants through the third grade Sharing the Journey contains descriptive book annotations instructive commentary and creative teaching activities tailored for those important years Extensive book lists throughout will help readers build a library of quality children s literature Books representing other cultures are included to help celebrate diversity as well as cultural connection Genre chapters include poetry fantasy and realistic and historical fiction A chapter on informational books demonstrates how young children can be introduced to and learn to enjoy nonfiction Inexplicable Frederick Julius Kopp,2012-03 Seven INEXPLICABLE near death episodes will take you with me on my tumultuous journey from the Adirondack Mountains to the Blue Ridge Mountains of extreme North Georgia At a legendary Cherokee sacred deep blue pool a geological anomaly is discovered This discovery becomes the Rosetta Stone of Earth s ancient civilizations mysteries as analyzed with the eyes of an electron microscope research scientist The author himself is still amazed and mystified as to which is more inexplicable the half century journey of extraordinary events or the unbelievable discovery which the journey brought him to Black Africa Hollis Ralph Lynch,1973 Compilation of New York Times articles and feature stories on Africa from the 1870s to 1972 Shadows Gaynor Deal,2011-03-14 Imperial Princess Jenevra Couressime is an unwelcome reminder to her family of an incident they would all rather forget the murder of her parents Often ignored fourteen year old Jenevra is not surprised when she is sent from court to a rigidly disciplined life in exile Hopeful that she will never have to see any of her family again Jenevra soon finds a cold satisfaction in the harsh discipline of a Temple Order Jenevra becomes an assassin of chilling efficiency perfectly equipped to serve as protector to her cousin who happens to be the new Emperor But after her return to court thrusts her unwillingly back into palace life and intense military challenges Jenevra must face emotional upheaval and confrontation as she attempts to reconcile with her family As Jenevra contends with senior officers in the imperial army she learns the truth about why she was chosen to bear a talisman that seems intent on pulling her into the darkest shadows of her mind Unexpected twists and turns soon surround a young princess constantly challenged to prove herself and who will soon discover that her carefully constructed defenses are not quite as impenetrable as she once thought A Journey Tony Blair,2010-09-02 In 1997 the biggest Labour victory in history swept England ending eighteen years of Conservative government Prime Minister Tony Blair young charismatic and complex shaped the nation profoundly in the ten years that followed From his work in Northern Ireland to the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan few of his decisions were free from scrutiny and debate Alternately beloved and reviled he was an international figure to a degree matched by few British leaders a role he continues in to this day through the Tony Blair Faith Foundation and his work in the Middle East Now for the first time we see the fascinating journey and difficult choices of the prime minister through his own eyes Grippingly candid and deeply intimate A Journey is a must read political memoir full of startling insights into a host of world leaders including George W Bush and Bill Clinton It is also a book that delves deeply and profoundly into what it means to be in a position of great power today and its emotional and personal toll Memoirs of Sir Wemyss Reid 1842-1885 Stuart J. Reid,2018-05-15 Reproduction of the original Memoirs of Sir Wemyss Reid 1842 1885 by Stuart J Reid The New York Times Book Review ,1991-07 Bergamot Square Bryce Jones,2005-06 The year is 1886 Ainsley Foster survives a tragic accident but she does not walk away unscathed Badly wounded and grieving the death of her parents she returns home to New York City to recover But she soon discovers that her life will never be the same The physical and emotional wounds of the past run far too deep The Davenports old friends of the family take Ainsley under their wing and surround her with warmth and love With their support she begins the slow and painful process of rebuilding her life It proves to be a far more difficult experience than she ever imagined Ainsley learns a painful lesson when society proves unsympathetic to her situation and she struggles to find acceptance Through her relationships with her best friends Lucinda and Wesley and her own inner strength Ainsley finds the courage to battle society's rigid rules and harsh prejudices ultimately triumphing over personal tragedy A Gambler's Journey , The Suicide Archive Doyle D. Calhoun,2024-09-13 Throughout the French empire from the Atlantic and the Caribbean to West and North Africa men women and children responded to enslavement colonization and oppression through acts of suicide In The Suicide Archive Doyle D Calhoun charts a long history of suicidal resistance to French colonialism and neocolonialism from the time of slavery to the Algerian War for Independence to the Arab Spring Noting that suicide was either obscured in or occluded from French colonial archives Calhoun turns to literature and film to show how aesthetic forms and narrative accounts can keep alive the silenced histories of suicide as a political language Drawing on scientific texts police files and legal proceedings alongside contemporary African and Afro Caribbean novels film and Senegalese oral history Calhoun outlines how such aesthetic works rewrite histories of resistance and loss Consequently Calhoun offers a new way of writing about suicide slavery and coloniality in relation to literary history The Biology of Horror , Unearthing the fearful flesh and sinful skins at the heart of gothic horror Jack Morgan rends the genre's biological core from its oft discussed psychological elements and argues for a more transhistorical conception of the gothic one negatively related to comedy The Biology of Horror Gothic Literature and Film dissects popular examples from the gothic literary and cinematic canon exposing the inverted comic paradigm within each text Morgan's study begins with an extensive treatment of comedy as theoretically conceived by Suzanne Langer C L Barber and Mikhail Bakhtin Then Morgan analyzes the physical and mythological nature of horror in inverted comic terms identifying a biologically grounded mythos of horror Motifs such as sinister loci languishment masquerade and subversion of sensual perception are contextualized here as embedded in an organic reality resonating with biological motives and consequences Morgan also devotes a chapter to the migration of the gothic tradition into American horror emphasizing the body as horror's essential place in American gothic The bulk of Morgan's study is applied to popular gothic literature and films ranging from high gothic classics like Matthew Lewis's The Monk Ann Radcliffe's The Mysteries of Udolpho Charles Maturin's Melmoth the Wanderer and Mary Shelley's Frankenstein to later literary works such as Poe's macabre tales Melville's Benito Cereno J S Le Fanu's Uncle Silas H P Lovecraft's The Shadow over Innsmouth Shirley Jackson's The Haunting of Hillhouse Stephen King's Salem's Lot and Clive Barker's The Damnation Game Considered films include Nosferatu Invasion of the Body Snatchers Friday the 13th Halloween Night of the Living Dead Angel Heart The Stand and The Shining Morgan concludes his physical examination of the Gothic reality with a consideration born of Julia Kristeva's theoretical rubric which addresses horror's existential and cultural significance its lasting fascination and its uncanny positive and often therapeutic direction in literature and film Congressional Record United States.
