mating game where every now and then one has to bend the rules Jutrída Chinny Aranol, 2022-02-03 Jutrída is a woman in sorrow and pain She was born in Nigeria to a Christian relatively affluent parents but married very young at age 19 into a polygamous pagan family She had not thought of marriage when her parents gave her away to a post war veteran almost twice her age Her husband s very queer behaviors including gross infidelity and lack of interest nor involvement in his family affairs caused Jutrída so much sorrows and pain all through the marriage Events that occurred before her husband s death during the burial funeral ceremonies and all the very queer incidents that occurred during the course of their marriage caused so much fear on Jutrída even after the death of the husband She never told anyone because the husband made her promise never to tell anybody but she now very much longed to open up She derived the inspiration to at least put the issues down in writing after listening to Oprah Winfrey s Super soul programs especially her interview with Tyler Perry Putting the problems down in writing gave her some relief and compiling it into a readable manuscript has brought almost a complete cure as someone out there might have answers to her troubling questions There Is No Ethan Anna Akbari, 2024-06-04 Part memoir part explosive window into the mind of a catfisher a thrilling personal account of three women coming face to face with an internet predator and teaming up to expose them In 2011 three successful and highly educated women fell head over heels for the brilliant and charming Ethan Schuman Unbeknownst to the others each exchanged countless messages with Ethan staying up late into the evenings to deepen their connections with this fascinating man His detailed excuses about broken webcams and complicated international calling plans seemed believable as did last minute trip cancellations After all why would he lie Ethan wasn t after money he never convinced his marks to shell out thousands of dollars for some imagined crisis Rather he ensnared these women in a web of intense emotional intimacy After the trio independently began to question inconsistencies in their new flame s stories they managed to find one another and uncover a greater deception than they could ve ever imagined As Anna Akbari and the women untangled their catfish s web they found other victims and realized that without a proper crime there was no legal reason for Ethan to ever stop There Is No Ethan catalogues Akbari s experience as both victim and observer By looking at the bigger picture of where these stories unfold a world where technology mediates our relationships where words and images are easily manipulated and where truth reality and identity have become slippery terms Akbari gives a page turning and riveting examination of why stories like Ethan s matter for us all

Indian Private International Law Stellina Jolly, Saloni Khanderia, 2021-10-07 This book provides an authoritative account of the evolution and application of private international law principles in India in civil commercial and family matters Through a structured evaluation of the legislative and judicial decisions the authors examine the private international law in the Republic and whether it conforms to international standards and best practices as adopted in major jurisdictions such as the European Union the United Kingdom the United States India s BRICS partners Brazil Russia China and South Africa and other common law systems such as Australia Canada New Zealand and Nepal Divided into 13 chapters the book provides a contextualised understanding of legal transformation on key aspects of the Indian conflict of law rules on jurisdiction applicable law and the recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments or arbitral awards Particularly fascinating in this regard is the discussion and focus on both traditional and contemporary areas of private international law including marriage divorce contractual concerns the fourth industrial revolution product liability e commerce intellectual property child custody surrogacy and the complicated interface of Sharia in the conflict of law framework The book deliberates the nuanced perspective of endorsing the Hague Conference on Private International Law instruments favouring enhanced uniformity and predictability in matters of choice of court applicable law and the recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments The book s international and comparative focus makes it eminently resourceful for legislators the judges of Indian courts and other interested parties such as lawyers and litigants when they are confronted with cross border disputes that involve an examination of India s private international law The book also provides a comprehensive understanding of Indian private international law which will be useful for academics and researchers looking for an in depth discussion on the subject

Rural Origins, City Lives Roberta Zavoretti,2016-12-01 A new understanding of rural urban migration and inequality in contemporary China Many of the millions of workers streaming in from rural China to jobs at urban factories soon find themselves in new kinds of poverty and oppression Yet their individual experiences are far more nuanced than popular narratives might suggest Rural Origins City Lives probes long held assumptions about migrant workers in China Drawing on fieldwork in Nanjing Roberta Zavoretti argues that many rural born urban dwellers are contrary to state policy and media portrayals diverse in their employment lifestyle and aspirations Working and living in the cities such workers change China s urban landscape becoming part of an increasingly diversified and stratified society Zavoretti finds that more than thirty years after the Open Door Reform class formation not residence status is key to understanding inequality in contemporary China
