Research Handbook on Design Thinking Karla Straker, Cara Wrigley, 2023-03-02 This Research Handbook includes carefully chosen contributions to provide a well rounded perspective on design thinking Encouraging debate and development for future research in design conceptualisation this forward thinking Handbook raises crucial questions about what design thinking is and what it could be (Re)theorising More-than-parental Involvement in Early Childhood Education and Care Alicja R. Sadownik, Adrijana Višnjić Jevtić, 2023-08-24 This open access book provides a critical thought provoking and stimulating overview of theories applied worldwide to conceptualise collaborations between early childhood education and children s families The book starts with a critical reflection on the colonial undertones of parental involvement PI and acknowledges a strong political will to improve this aspect of early childhood education and care The chapters in the book describe and discuss various theories including the cultural historical wholeness approach Bronfenbrenner s ecology of human development the theory of social capital the theory of collaboration family school partnership models proposed by Epstein and Hornby Bourdieu s social theory the theory of practice architectures the discourse narrative theory and posthumanism By proposing the concept of more than parents the authors aim to embrace both the diversity of intergenerational family configurations and the agency of materiality artifacts and the involvement of more than human actors Researching Practices Across and Within Diverse Educational Sites Susan Whatman, Jane Wilkinson, Mervi Kaukko, Gørill Warvik Vedeler, Levon Ellen Blue, Kristin Elaine Reimer, 2023-11-06 The authors explore the role of educational research in uncertain risky times Theoretical arguments and empirical examples of the in situ development of research practices in Australia Canada Finland and Norway are provided arising from reflection upon and dialogue about researching practices with particular groups Transforming Practices Stephen Kemmis, 2022-01-29 This textbook shows how people can and do transform the world through transforming their practices and the practice architectures that shape them and contributes to contemporary practice theory It provides an authoritative comprehensive and contemporary account of the theory of practice architectures illustrated through examples drawn from years of research by participants in the Pedagogy Education and Praxis international research network from Australia New Zealand Finland Norway Sweden the Netherlands Colombia and the Caribbean Its content provides a variety of resources for researchers who are new to research using the theory of practice architectures It includes tables to assist with the analysis of practices and provides clear examples to aid understanding and application This textbook provides readers with a thorough grounding in the theory and ways the theory of practice architectures has been used in investigations of social and educational practice The Action Research Planner

Stephen Kemmis, Robin McTaggart, Rhonda Nixon, 2013-11-12 A fully updated and reworked version of the classic book by Stephen Kemmis and Robin McTaggart now joined by Rhonda Nixon The Action Research Planner is a detailed guide to developing and conducting a critical participatory action research project The authors outline new views on participation based on Jürgen Habermas's notion of a public sphere practice as shaped by practice architectures and research as research within practice traditions They provide five extended examples of critical participatory action research studies The book includes a range of resources for people planning a critical participatory research initiative providing guidance on how to establish an action research group and identify a shared concern research ethics principles of procedure for action researchers protocols for collaborative work keeping a journal gathering evidence reporting and choosing academic partners Unlike earlier editions The Action Research Planner focuses specifically on critical participatory action research which occupies a particular critical niche in the action research family The Action Research Planner is an essential guide to planning and undertaking this type of research

The Theory of Practice Architectures Peter Grootenboer, Christine Edwards-Groves, 2024-01-01 This book provides an overview of the Theory of Practice Architectures TPA and the associated Theory of Ecology of Practices in a manner accessible for a broader audience The authors are part of the authorial team that developed the Theory of Practice Architectures from a strong empirical base with its initial publication in Changing Practices Changing Education Kemmis et al Springer 2014 This book follows on from that publication with a singular focus on the Theory of Practice Architectures and shows how it can be used as a theoretical framework for a range of empirical research projects It first outlines and describes both the Theory of Practice Architectures and the Theory of Ecology of Practices illustrating them with a range of relevant practical examples Then it focuses explicitly on designing and undertaking empirical research analyzing data and reporting findings using the Theory of Practice Architectures In this way this book shows specifically and overtly explicate ways that research can be designed and how data can be collected and analyzed drawing on the Theory of Practice Architectures as a foundational framework It also showcases a range of specific examples to allow readers to see the ideas as they have been employed in practice

Practice Theory Perspectives on Pedagogy and Education Peter Grootenboer, Christine Edwards-Groves, Sarojni Choy, 2017-01-16 This book examines the way in which the practice turn in education and pedagogy offers unique perspectives on the nature of educational work Through a plurality of practice theories deeper understandings emerge about a range of education and concepts providing useful tools for advancing and developing practice theory in education and pedagogy The book discusses the related and dual perspectives of pedagogy as both a teaching and an upbringing practice It also explores education in a range of contexts and sectors beyond school including VET tertiary and non formal settings Education is seen as serving a dual purpose the development of individuals and the betterment of societies and community and this conceptualisation of education underpins the book It acknowledges that there are diverse understandings and perspectives of practice theory pedagogy and education each of which is contestable and ripe for further development and this is examined throughout the book This book was developed alongside an invited symposium held in June 2015 in Brisbane Australia where the authors and interested others gathered to discuss practice theory perspectives on pedagogy and education The title Practice Theory Perspectives on Pedagogy and Education captures the central overarching focus that underpins the book Changing Practices, Changing Education Stephen Kemmis, Jane Wilkinson, Christine Edwards-Groves, Ian Hardy, Peter Grootenboer, Laurette Bristol, 2013-11-08 This book aims to help teachers and those who support them to re imagine the work of teaching learning and leading In particular it shows how transformations of educational practice depend on complementary transformations in classroom school and system level organisational cultures resourcing and politics It argues that transforming education requires more than professional development to transform teachers it also calls for fundamental changes in learning and leading practices which in turn means reshaping organisations that support teachers and teaching organisational cultures the resources organisations provide and distribute and the relationships that connect people with one another in organisations The book is based on findings from new research being conducted by the authors the research team for the 2010 2012 Australian Research Council funded Discovery Project Leading and Learning Developing Ecologies of Educational Practice
