

LANGUAGE PRACTICE

The goal of this section is to present and practice the target grammar: agreeing and disagreeing.

- Books closed. Divide the board into four squares. In the top left square, write So am I. In the top right square, write I'm not.
- Elicit statements using I am from the class. For example: I'm from Seoul. I'm 20 years old. Agree and disagree with these statements using So am I and I'm not to explain the difference. When disagreeing, give information that is true for you. For example: I'm not. I'm from Toronto, Canada.
- Write Neither am I and Really? I am in the bottom left and bottom right squares of the grid on the board, respectively. Repeat the above procedure with negative statements. Elicit statements such as I'm not from Canada.
- Books open. Focus attention on the Language Practice box. Show how the statements and the responses, agreeing and disagreeing, use the same verb tense. For example: I stayed ... So did I.
- Direct students to page 114 of the Grammar Reference for more information and practice.

TEACHER RESOURCE CENTER

Launch Unit 1 PowerPoint™ slides on the Teacher Resource Center for additional grammar presentation and practice.

Activity 1

- Explain that students need to match the statements and the responses. Have students notice the use of the same tense in the first statement and its response. Ask if the response agrees or disagrees with the statement. (It agrees.)
- Have students complete the activity on their own.
- Check answers by asking pairs of students to read a statement and its response to the class. Then ask if these agree or disagree.

ANSWERS

1. e 2. f 3. d 4. c 5. a 6. b

EXTENSION

Have students change the statements from affirmative to negative or from negative to affirmative. Then have students change the responses accordingly.

Activity 2

- Write the first conversation on the board. Elicit the response and why the correct answer is So do I. (The speaker agrees with the statement I want to travel to different countries, which is indicated by the additional statement, It's the best thing to do.)
- Have students complete the activity on their own.
- If students have difficulty with the activity, briefly go through the items and elicit whether speaker B agrees or disagrees with speaker A. Next, have students focus on the tenses used in speaker A's statements. Then focus attention back on the Language Practice box.
- Check answers by having pairs of students read the completed conversations to the class.

ANSWERS

1. So do I 3. Really, I don't
2. Neither am I 4. Really, I do

Activity 3

- Focus attention on the example conversation. Make sure students understand that the statement in the first speech bubble is A's line in the first item in Activity 2.
- Explain that students should agree or disagree with A's statements in Activity 2 using the short responses from the Language Practice box and adding some more information about themselves.
- Have students do the activity in pairs.

ANSWERS

Answers will vary.

TEACHER RESOURCE CENTER

Print Unit 1 Worksheet 2 from the Teacher Resource Center for additional in-class speaking practice.

PRONUNCIATION

The goal of this section is to focus on word stress when agreeing and disagreeing.

Activity 1

- Model the examples. Make sure students notice that the subject words, such as I and Rob, are stressed in the responses.
- Play the recording.

Activity 2

- Play the recording again.
- Have students practice saying the examples in Activity 1.

SMART CHOICE ONLINE

Remind students that there are extra grammar practice activities on Online Practice.

This is one of six volumes that present the results of the PISA 2018 survey, the seventh round of the triennial assessment. Volume II, Where All Students Can Succeed, examines gender differences in student performance and the links between students' socio-economic status and immigrant background on the one hand, and student performance and well-being on the other.

Dictionary of Newfoundland English W.J. Kirwin, G. M. Story, J.D.A. Widdowson, 1990-11-01

The Dictionary of Newfoundland English first published in 1982 to regional, national, and international acclaim, is a historical dictionary that gives the pronunciations and definitions for words that the editors have called Newfoundland English. The varieties of English spoken in Newfoundland date back four centuries, mainly to the early seventeenth-century migratory English fishermen of Cornwall, Devon, Dorset, and Somerset, and to the seventeenth to the nineteenth-century immigrants chiefly from southeastern Ireland. Culled from a vast reading of books, newspapers, and magazines, this book is the most sustained reading ever undertaken of the written words of this province. The dictionary gives not only the meaning of words but also presents each word with its variant spellings. Moreover, each definition is succeeded by an all-important quotation of usage which illustrates the typical context in which the word is used. This well-researched, impressive work of scholarship illustrates how words and phrases have evolved and are used in everyday speech and writing in a specific geographical area. The Dictionary of Newfoundland English is one of the most important, comprehensive, and thorough works dealing with Newfoundland. Its publication, a great addition to Newfoundlandia, Canadiana, and lexicography, provides more than a regional lexicon. In fact, this entertaining and delightful book presents a panoramic view of the social, cultural, and natural history, as well as the geography and economics of the quintessential lifestyle of one of Canada's oldest European settled areas. This second edition contains a supplement offering approximately 1500 new or expanded entries, an increase of more than 30 per cent over the first edition. Besides new words, the supplement includes modified and additional senses of old words and fresh derivations and usages.
