of an American state with a significantly expanded social policy making role Drawing on a wealth of archival materials much of it unavailable or overlooked until now Sealander examines issues that remain central to American political life Her topics include vocational education policy parent education juvenile delinquency mothers pensions and public aid to impoverished children anti prostitution efforts sex research and publicly funded recreation Foundation philanthropy s legacy for domestic social policy she writes raises a point that should be emphasized repeatedly by students of the policy process Rarely is just one entity a policy s sole author almost always policies in place produced unintended consequences music resonates fully with these transformations
