Grieving Hearts in Worship Rev. Dr. Michael E. Landon, 2012-05-25 Grieving Hearts in Worship offers an in depth opportunity to answer challenging questions concerning a growing disconnect between how we grieve and how we worship God Through the use of stories poetry creative worship services and thought provoking discussions Landon shares his unique understanding of the nature of our need for rituals in worship as a beneficial part of our journey towards healing By exploring major thoughts and writings on grief he identifies common threads weaving together a living tapestry that expresses the depth of personal and communal experiences of grief Reading this contemplative approach to discussing grief and its place in worship will open your eyes to a new way of seeing Gods love for the grieving The books practical suggestions offer church leaders and members a blend of topics worship services and reflection questions that include Attitudes About Death and Grief Annual Remembrance Services Finding Hope in Brokenness Anger and Vulnerability in Worship Rediscovering Joy Walking the Labyrinth When A Church Dies Turning Controversy into Church Ministry William P. Campbell, 2010-09-21 One of the most volatile issues facing the Western Church is also one of the least discussed homosexuality Many pastors church members and congregations have become tired of the debate surrounding this topic but do not really understand the issues Pulling away from this controversy doesn t seem to help it keeps cropping up Ninety percent of pastors are aware of members or visitors to their churches who struggle with homosexual tendencies and the same percentage of churchgoers know a relative or friend who wrestles with this concern The media school systems and nearly every sector of society will challenge Christians to give a reasoned response to the escalating gay agenda For twenty five years W P Campbell has studied and debated this topic as it relates to Christ s Church He has come to the conclusion that it will not go away in our generation but it can be coaxed to find its proper place in any congregation when it is tackled with a firm but loving grip Homosexuality in the Church is a guidebook to help Christians and whole congregations do just that It faces the heart of the controversy with the love and compassion of Christ and turns it into effective ministry Framed by the most significant biblical passages related to homosexuality and supported by science psychology and sociology each of the five parts of the book unfold a unique aspect of God s person and purpose As our Creator he has made us to be whole as our King he has provided laws and guidelines to help us remain that way as our Redeemer his power can save us from sin as our Guide his light will guide us out as our Strength he will make our ministry effective As a resource for the church today

this book will Provide readers with a comprehensive overview of the biblical data about homosexuality Inform readers about current scientific psychological and cultural findings related to same sex practice Teach readers Christ like responses to gay rights activists in the Church and help them to know how to avoid extreme stances about homosexuals and the Church that result in alienating others or in supporting sexual sin Offer guidelines and tools to church leaders for mobilizing a congregation to study this topic and to engage in ministry to recovering homosexuals

New Wineskins for Global Mission: Sharon J. Stockdale, Helen Camlin, 1996-06-01 New Wineskins for Global Mission captures the essence of a groundbreaking conference in 1994 where Episcopalians from all over the United States gathered to embrace their role in global missions Filled with powerful testimonies and a passionate call to action this book reveals the urgent need to invite unreached people groups to the Lord's Table The conference's impact was profound leading participants to engage in prayer generous giving and active involvement in missions Now this collection of plenary speeches and workshops serves as a valuable resource equipping churches and individuals with tools to fulfill the Great Commission and share the gospel in a changing world

St. Andrew's Cross, 1926 Christian Herald, 1979 Reconstructing Womanhood, Reconstructing Feminism Delia Jarrett-Macauley, 2005-08-04 Examines concepts of womanhood and feminism within the context of race and ethnicity and highlights the ways in which constructions of womanhood have traditionally excluded black women's experience

Crayons for the City Kevin R. Yoho, 2017-11-09 When a fire severely burned a small boy and displaced his family it left lingering marks on the entire neighborhood As a community pastor Dr Kevin Yoho not only witnessed the visible signs of despair but also came to understand the pain hidden in the flames He will be your guide as you step outside your organizational structures through the practice of what he calls reneighboring Crayons for the City is about training leaders to be a new kind of community network engineer who will realign their organization's priorities resources and values to serve the public good It's a story about how one community of faith improved the lives of hundreds of families by taking a walk across the street with fresh expressions of the good news How do leaders grow and change from holding on to ineffective ministry models to building new connections of grace and gratitude The journey is not an easy one for most Crayons for the City starts with the reader's own context and offers a new methodology of how to engage it Awaken your own capacity to change the world All you need to begin is this book and a box of crayons
