Death, War, and Sacrifice Bruce Lincoln,1991-08-27 One of the world s leading specialists in Indo European religion and society Bruce Lincoln expresses in these essays his severe doubts about the existence of a much hypothesized prototypical Indo European religion Written over fifteen years the essays six of them previously unpublished fall into three parts Part I deals with matters Indo European in a relatively unproblematized way exploring a set of haunting images that recur in descriptions of the Otherworld from many cultures While Lincoln later rejects this methodology these chapters remain the best available source of data for the topics they address In Part II Lincoln takes the data for each essay from a single culture area and shifts from the topic of dying to that of killing Of particular interest are the chapters connecting sacrifice to physiology a master discourse of antiquity that brought the cosmos the human body and human society into an ideologically charged correlation Part III presents Lincoln s most controversial case against a hypothetical Indo European protoculture Reconsidering the work of the prominent Indo Europeanist Georges Dumzil Lincoln argues that Dumzil s writings were informed and inflected by covert political concerns characteristic of French fascism This collection is an invaluable resource for students of myth ritual ancient societies anthropology and the history of religions Bruce Lincoln is professor of humanities and religious studies at the University of Minnesota

Ireland's Green Larder Margaret Hickey, 2018-05-03 Ireland s Green Larder tells the story of food and drink in Ireland for the first time From the ancient system of the Cide Fields established a thousand years before the Pyramids were built right up to today s thriving food scene Rather than focusing on battles and rulers Margaret Hickey digs down to what has formed the day to day life of the people It s a glorious ramble through the centuries drawing on diaries letters legal texts ballads government records folklore and more The story of how Queen Maeve died after being hit by a piece of hard cheese sits alongside a contemporary interview with one of Ireland s magnificent cheese makers and the tale of the author s day in Clew Bay on the wild Atlantic coast collecting the world s freshest oysters is countered by Jonathan Swift s complaint about dubiously fresh salmon being sold on the streets of Dublin Beautifully illustrated and dotted with recipes there are chapters covering everything from strong tea to the Irish rituals and superstitions associated with food and drink With a light touch and a flair for finding the most telling details Hickey draws on years of research to bring this sweeping history brilliantly to life
