Scenario A Of Poems:

Theory into Poetry, 2022-05-20 At the beginning of the 21st century there is still no generally accepted comprehensive definition of the lyric or differentiated modern toolkit for its analysis The reception of poetry is largely characterised either by an empathetic identification of critics with the lyric persona or by exclusive interest in formal patterning The present volume seeks to remedy this deficit All the contributors theorise the lyric to overcome the impasse of an impressionistic and narrowly formalistic critical debate on the genre Their papers focus on a variety of different questions the problem of establishing a framework for definition and classification the search for dynamic and potent critical approaches investigations of poetry's cultural performance and its fundamental relevance for the construction of group cohesion The essays collected in this volume offer a consciously polyphonic range of theories and interpretations suggesting to the reader a variety of theoretical frameworks and practical illustrations of how a discussion of poetry may be firmly grounded in modern literary theory

100 Poems to Break Your Heart Edward Hirsch, 2021 We are not so much diminished as enlarged by grief by our refusal to vanish or to let others vanish without leaving a verbal record The poet is one who will not be reconciled who is determined to leave a trace in words to transform oceanic depths of feeling into the faithful nuances of art Poetry companions us Poems are written in solitude but they reach out to others which makes poetry a social act It rises out of one solitude to meet another Poems of terrible sadness and loss trouble and challenge us but they also make us feel less alone and more connected Our own desolations become more recognizable to us more articulate something shared We become less isolated in our sorrow and thus are befriended by the words of another There is something ennobling in grief that is compacted expressed and transfigured into poetry Book jacket

A Matter of Geography: A New Perspective on Medieval Hebrew Poetry Uriah Kfir, 2018-03-12 A Matter of Geography A New Perspective on Medieval Hebrew Poetry takes a ground breaking approach to the relationships between centers of medieval Hebrew poetry and their implications regarding matters of poetics It shows on the one hand how literary efforts by members of the Spanish school of secular poetry from its zenith in the eleventh century to the thirteenth century helped gradually shape its predominance On the other hand it presents thirteenth century Hebrew poets from Iraq Egypt Italy and Provence and charts the different strategies of these peripheral authors who had to cope with Iberian fame The analysis which draws on concepts from literary and cultural theories provides close readings of many works in both the original Hebrew and in most cases for the first time an English translation Kfir's book makes a strong case for the craft vibrancy and richness of Medieval Hebrew poetry as rooted in place Highly recommended for scholars of medieval Hebrew poetry poetry aficionados and historians David B Levy Touro College in Association of Jewish Libraries 8 4 2018

The Language of Contemporary Poetry Lesley Jeffries, 2022-09-30 This book introduces a new way of looking at how poems mean drawing on the framework first developed in the author's book Critical Stylistics but applied here to aesthetic more than ideological meaning The aim is to empower readers of poetry to articulate the features of poetic language that they come across and explain to themselves and others why these features convey the meanings that they do While this volume focuses on contemporary poets writing in English and mostly based in the UK and Ireland the framework will work just as well for other eras poetry as well as for other cultures and languages

Blank Splendour David Collings, 2024-07-31 Certain moments in British Romantic poetry and art depict a state from which the attributes of existence time and space subject and object language and visuality have fallen away leaving a domain prior to the world and to thought the condition of mere existence As Blank Splendour demonstrates poems by Wordsworth Coleridge Keats and Clare as well as paintings by Turner evoke a condition that transpires in a time without time a life without life David Collings argues that these works invite us to move beyond the subtle remnants of ontology that linger in current versions of posthuman thought such as affect theory and speculative realism by opening up a domain of affect without affect a world without objects Anticipating the philosophers Emmanuel Levinas and Maurice Blanchot these works bring into view the mode of a deconstruction that emerged before the linguistic turn one that meditates on the blank condition underlying modernity Ultimately Blank Splendour reveals how these works speak to our own moment when thought forced to contemplate its own extinction enters a new form of mere existence Postcoloniality and Indian English

Poetry SUBRAT KUMAR SAMAL,2015-09-16 This book aims at study and analysis of the poetry of the first four major poets of the postcolonial trend in the Indian context It examines and explores the various aspects and characteristics of their poetry which can qualify them on the double standards of both being Indian and modern at the same time in a justifiable manner
