The Film Narratives of Alain Resnais Freddy Sweet, 1981 Alain Resnais James Monaco, 1979 Studies the remarkable work of Resnais whose films include La Guerre est Finie Stavisky and Last Year at Marienban Alain Resnais Lynn A. Higgins, 2021-07-29 Among the most innovative and influential filmmakers of the twentieth century Alain Resnais 1922 2014 did not originally set out to become a director He trained as an actor and film editor and during the sixty eight years of his working life delved into virtually every corner of filmmaking working at one time or another as screenwriter assistant director camera operator and cinematographer special effects coordinator technical consultant and even author of source material From such award winning documentaries as Van Gogh and Night and Fog to the groundbreaking dramas Hiroshima

mon amour Last Year at Marienbad and Muriel Resnais's films experiment with such themes as consciousness memory and the imagination Distinguishing himself from associations with the French New Wave movement Resnais considered his films to be anti illusionist never allowing his spectators to forget they were watching a work of art In Alain Resnais Interviews editor Lynn A Higgins collects twenty one interviews with the filmmaker twelve of which are translated into English for the first time Spanning his entire career from his early short subjects to his final feature film the volume highlights Resnais's creative strategies and principles illuminates his place in world cinema history and situates his work relative to the New Wave American film and experimental filmmaking more broadly Like his films the interviews collected here reveal a creator who is at once an intellectual a philosopher an entertainer a craftsman and an artist

Screenwriters José Guilherme Correa, 2016-07-13 Screen writing is a unique literary form Screenplays are like musical scores in that they are intended to be interpreted on the basis of other artists performances rather than serving as finished products for the enjoyment of their readers They are written using technical jargon and tight spare prose to describe set directions Unlike a novella a script focuses on describing the literal visual aspects of the story rather than on its characters internal thoughts In screen writing the aim is to evoke those thoughts and emotions through subtext action and symbolism Prominent Hollywood script doctors include Steve Zaillian William Goldman Robert Towne Mort Nathan Quentin Tarantino etc while many up and coming screenwriters work as ghost writers This book is a modest catalogue of some of the most prominent screenwriters listed from A to Z The good are sometimes bad and they can be even Ugly Many comments herein included were googled in deference to the multiplicity of information available today yet they reflect exactly or almost what I thought An amazing thing today is how anonymous commentators on the Internet rival and even surpass the poor quality of professional media and specialised literature It all comes down to watching the truth 24 times per second to quote Jean Luc Godard's phrase Not to mention that such truth may include sex scenes violence pedophilia etc We know that a literary masterpiece like Henry James Portrait of a Lady became a film of very poor quality as scripted by Laura Jones We know conversely that a mediocre writer like Mickey Spillane inspired at least one film as remarkable as Kiss Me Deadly thanks to A I Bezzerides script Asa former screenwriter Mr Correa must avow that he found the job most gratifying Writing that looks effortless is often hellish to write and revise It was something he did have to slog through but it proved particularly pleasing Editing discussing finishing your work is particularly gratifying Identifying your flaws and working to mitigate them is also gratifying It is a general perception that creative careers are more interesting and fun than others But the privilege of earning money through imagination and creativity is effectively hard won Please comment at will Please disagree at will Be facetious in your remarks but please be neither vicious nor mean spirited

De/Constituting Wholes Manuele Gragnolati, Christoph F. E. Holzhey, 2017-01-01 How can the power of wholes be resisted without essentializing their parts Drawing on different archives and methodologies including aesthetics history biology affect race and queer the interventions in this volume explore different ways of troubling the consistency and stability of wholes breaking up their closure and making them more dynamic Doing so without necessarily presupposing or producing parts an outside or a teleological development they indicate the critical potential of partiality without parts
