Scenes From A Marriage:

Scenes from a Marriage Ingmar Bergman, 1974 The screenplay of the film Scenes from a marriage by Swedish director and producer Ingmar Bergman Scenes from a Marriage Ingmar Bergman, Emily Mann, 2017-03-16 In Emily Mann's highly theatrical adaptation of Ingmar Bergman's popular 1974 film Scenes from a Marriage audiences are invited into an intimate stage space to collectively experience the human politics of a relationship through all the stages of life from youth to middle age to maturity Mann's adaptation illuminates the universal themes of love identity and vulnerability that are at the heart of Bergman's timeless film exposing how the universal is truly revealed through the specific Socrates and Subtitles William G. Smith, 2014-01-10 A sequel to the author's earlier work Plato and Popcorn A Philosopher's Guide to 75 Thought Provoking Movies this book presents analyses of 95 movies from the Americas and 20 other countries Each entry includes a brief introduction to the film along with a list of philosophical questions to ponder after viewing it Most entries also include a list of additional recommended films The films cover a wide range of genres and topics from the haunting tale of doomed Polish freedom fighters in Kanal's World War II Warsaw to the romantic and passionate story of rekindled love in Australia's Innocence Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Transit □ 'Norden' och 'Europa' Petra Broomans, Ester Jiresch, Janke Klok Klok, Anja Schüppert, 2019-04-30 The IASS International Association for Scandinavian Studies is the international organization for the research of Nordic literature culture and linguistics Since 1956 the IASS conference has been organized every other year In 2016 the 31th IASS conference took place in Groningen Netherlands This 2016 conference revolved around the 21st century as an era characterized by dynamics with different implications These ongoing global transitions are reflected in the humanities the dichotomy between centre and periphery has invaded the literary discourse In many small language areas more translated literature is being published than literature written in the national language This implies that cultural mediators play a major role in the production of literature Their efforts are made visible in a transnational approach to the history of literature Gender and Discourse Deborah Tannen, 1994-07-07 Deborah Tannen's You Just Don't Understand spent nearly four years in cloth and paper on The New York Times Best Seller list and has sold over a million and a half copies Clearly Tannen's insights into how and why women and men so often misunderstand each other when they talk has touched a nerve For years a highly respected scholar in the field of linguistics she has now become widely known for her work on how conversational style differences associated with gender affect relationships Her life work has demonstrated how close and intelligent analysis of conversation can reveal the extraordinary complexities of social relationships including relationships between men and women Now in Gender and Discourse Tannen has gathered together six of her scholarly essays including her newest and previously unpublished work in which language and gender are examined through the lens of sex class linked patterns rather than sex linked patterns These essays provide a theoretical backdrop to her best selling books and an informative introduction which discusses her field of linguistics describes the research methods she typically uses and addresses the controversies surrounding her field as well as some misunderstandings of her work. She argues for instance that her cultural approach to gender differences does not deny that men dominate women in society nor does it ascribe gender differences to women's essential nature. The essays themselves cover a wide range of topics. In one she analyzes a number of conversational strategies such as interruption, topic raising, indirection and silence and shows that contrary to much work on language and gender, no strategy exclusively expresses dominance or submissiveness in conversation. Interruption or overlap can be supportive, silence and indirection can be used to control. It is the interactional context, the participants' individual styles and the interaction of their styles, Tannen shows that result in the balance of power. She also provides a fascinating analysis of four groups of males and females: second, sixth and tenth grade students and twenty-five year olds conversing with their best friends, and she includes an early article co-authored with Robin Lakoff that presents a theory of conversational strategy illustrated by analysis of dialogue in Ingmar Bergman's Scenes from a Marriage. Readers interested in the theoretical framework behind Tannen's work will find this volume fascinating. It will be sure to interest anyone curious about the crucial yet often unnoticed role that language and gender play in our daily lives. New York Magazine, 1987-04-06

New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea. Women on the Edge: Twelve Political Film Practices S. Tay, 2009-10-09

Women on the Edge re-envision women's cinema as contemporary political practices by exploring the works of twelve filmmakers. Moving on from the 1970s feminist adage that the personal is political, Sharon Lin Tay argues that contemporary women's cinema must exceed the personal to be politically relevant and ethically cogent. Directing scenes and senses Peter M Boenisch, 2015-08-01 As European theatre directors become a familiar presence on international stages and a new generation of theatre makers absorbs their impulses, this study develops fresh perspectives on Regie, the Continental European tradition of staging playtexts. Leaving behind unhelpful clichés that pit above all the director against the playwright, Peter M Boenisch stages playful encounters between Continental theatre and Continental philosophy. The contemporary Regie work of Thomas Ostermeier, Frank Castorf, Ivo van Hove, Guy Cassiers, TG STAN and others here meets the works of Friedrich Schiller and Leopold Jessner, Hegelian speculative dialectics and the critical philosophy of Jacques Rancière and Slavoj Žižek in order to explore the thinking of Regie: how to think Regie and how Regie thinks. This partial and sideways look invites a wider reconsideration of the potential of playing theatre today, of its aesthetic possibilities and its political stakes in the global neoliberal economy of the twenty-first century.
