Scenes From The Classics:

Scenes from Tamil Classics Sellathamby Sriskandarajah, 2010-01-04 Scenes from Tamil Classics is a book about Tamil poetry Tamil is one of the very few living classical languages of the world and has a rich and copious literary musical and religious tradition This book is primarily intended for expatriate Tamils particularly to the children of Tamil immigrants in Europe Australia and North America who are in danger of becoming increasingly alienated from their cultural roots The intention of the book is to create an awareness and a sense of belonging among those expatriate children who are caught up in an uncomfortable tension between the culture of their own family and ethnic community and the culture of the wider society around them This book is an attempt to give a taste of Tamil literature through the medium of English In the selected extracts the author paints in the details of the story or the situation which the poet has left unsaid and draws out the inferences and allusions lying implicit in the poem He thus brings the scene to life and prevents the eye of the reader from passing too swiftly and superficially over the text Instead he stimulates the reader to reflect on the action and the feelings expressed and enables him or her to appreciate more fully the artistry of the poem In addition to extracts from ancient and medieval Tamil classics Scenes from Tamil Classics provides a wide ranging survey of Tamil literature This is a fresh and original book which leads the reader into a world which is many centuries and thousands of miles distant from our own Beyond the particular readership mentioned above there is much in these pages to give delight to anyone with an interest in literature and in the human condition

Military Departures, Homecomings and Death in Classical Athens Owen Rees, 2022-01-13 This volume sheds new light on the experience of ancient Greek warfare by identifying and examining three fundamental transitions undergone by the classical Athenian hoplite as a result of his military service his departure to war his homecoming from war having survived and his homecoming from war having died As a conscript a man regularly called upon by his city state to serve in the battle lines and perform his citizen duty the most common military experience of the hoplite was one of transition he was departing to or returning from war on a regular basis especially during extended periods of conflict Scholarship has focused primarily on the experience of the hoplite after his return with a special emphasis on his susceptibility to Post Traumatic Stress Disorder PTSD but the moments of transition themselves have yet to be explored in detail Taking each in turn Owen Rees examines the transitions from two sides from within the domestic environment as a member of an oikos and from within the military environment as a member of the army This analysis presents a new template for each and effectively maps the experience of the hoplite as he moves between his domestic and military duties This allows us to reconstruct the effects of war more fully and to identify moments with the potential for a traumatic impact on the individual

Visualizing Harbours in the Classical World Federico Ugolini, 2020-05-14 In recent years there has been intense debate about the reality behind the depiction of maritime cityscapes especially harbours Visualizing Harbours in the Classical World argues that the available textual and iconographic evidence supports the argument that these representations have a symbolic rather than literal meaning and message and moreover that the traditional view that all these media represent the reality of the contemporary cityscapes is often unrealistic Bridging the gap between archaeological sciences and the humanities it ably integrates iconographic materials epigraphic sources history and archaeology along with visual culture Focusing on three main ancient ports Alexandria Rome and Leptis Magna Federico Ugolini considers a range of issues around harbour iconography from the triumphal imagery of monumental harbours and the symbolism of harbour images their identification across the Mediterranean and their symbolic ideological and propagandistic messages to the ways in which aspects of Imperial authority and control over the seas were expressed in the iconography of the Julio Claudian Trajan and Severii periods how they reflected the reputational growth and power of the mercantile class during the Imperial era and how the use of imagery reflected euergetism and paideia which would inform the Roman audience about who had power over the sea
