Scenes Of Visionary Enchantment:

Scenes of Visionary Enchantment Dayton Duncan, 2004-01-01 The author recalls his experiences and observations from his four trips along the route followed by the Corps of Discovery revealing his own reflections in the form of essays on the meaning of their momentous journey across the American wilderness Scenes of Visionary Enchantment Jeffrey P. Havens, 2017 This book was more than eight years in the making and is the photographic companion to the novel Fraught With Difficulties The photographs are an effort to visually communicate the story about the Lewis and Clark expedition which was between May 14 1804 and September 23 1806 page 1 Early National America Tim McNeese, 2010 Presents the complex and varied history of the United States from prehistoric times Blood Memory Dayton Duncan, Ken Burns, 2023-10-10 The epic story of the buffalo in America from prehistoric times to today a moving and beautifully illustrated work of natural history inspired by the PBS series American Buffalo The American buffalo our nation's official mammal is an improbable shaggy beast that has found itself at the center of many of our most mythic and sometimes heartbreaking tales The largest land animals in the Western Hemisphere they are survivors of a mass extinction that erased ancient species that were even larger For nearly 10 000 years they evolved alongside Native people who weaved them into every aspect of daily life relied on them for food clothing and shelter and revered them as equals Newcomers to the continent found the buffalo fascinating at first but in time they came to consider them a hindrance to a young nation's expansion And in the space of only a decade they were slaughtered by the millions for their hides with their carcasses left to rot on the prairies Then teetering on the brink of disappearing from the face of the earth they would be rescued by a motley collection of Americans each of them driven by different and sometimes competing impulses This is the rich and complicated story of a young republic's heedless rush to conquer a continent but also of the dawn of the conservation era a story of America at its very best and worst Across America Maurice Isserman, 2009 In 2003 Americans began celebrating the bicentennial of the Lewis and Clark expedition 1803 1806 a journey of discovery that proved a seminal moment in the history of the exploration of the North American continent Poetry Train America John E WordSlinger, 2013-06-09 A colorful combination of storytelling poets poetry and railways presented using America's fifty states as a backdrop 3 men who travel the U S A in the year of 2012 To write a written documentary on Poets and the Railroad in our times When they sleep they get taken back in time to the 19th Century when the roads were built and they have such great experiences and meet key Poets and figures Upon waking they have conversations about Poets from the 20th Century and RxR events Then it goes into their written documentary on Poetry and Poets now Main Characters that Andy and Red and Train Marshal Charlie journey within their Dreams and they are Alphonso G Newcomer Mad Bear Jung Hem Sing Mr Welchberry Patrick O Hara Jimmy New Orleans and many more Stephen E. Ambrose Opening of the West E-Book Boxed Set Stephen E. and the hardships that shaped the American West Undaunted Courage This 1 New York Times bestseller gives a sweeping account of the most momentous expedition in American history Ambrose follows the Lewis and Clark Expedition from Thomas Jefferson's hope of finding a waterway to the Pacific through the heart stopping moments of the actual trip to Lewis's lonely demise on the Natchez Trace Along the way Ambrose shows us the American West as Lewis saw it wild awesome and pristinely beautiful Nothing Like It in the World A riveting account of an unprecedented feat of engineering vision and courage this is the story of the men who built the transcontinental railroad The US government pitted two companies the Union Pacific and the Central Pacific Railroads against each other in a race for funding encouraging speed over caution and their race brilliantly comes to life in Ambrose's telling of the investors who risked their businesses and money the enlightened politicians who understood its importance the engineers and surveyors who risked and sometimes lost their lives and the Irish and Chinese immigrants the defeated Confederate soldiers and all the laborers who did the backbreaking and dangerous work on the tracks battled with love and heartbreak at a time when homosexuality wasn't well understood or accepted And he explores Sumner's critical partnerships with the nation's first generation of Black lawyers and civil rights leaders whose legal contributions to Reconstruction have been overlooked for far too long An extraordinary achievement of historical and constitutional scholarship Charles Sumner brings back to life one of America's most inspiring statesmen whose formidable ideas remain relevant to a nation still divided over questions of race democracy and constitutional law Mountain Man: John Colter, the Lewis & Clark Expedition, and the Call of the American West (American Grit) David Weston Marshall, 2017-05-09 If you seek vicarious adventure these pages await the armchair explorer Providence Journal In 1804 John Colter set out with Meriwether Lewis and William Clark on the first US expedition to traverse the North American continent During the 28 month ordeal Colter served as a hunter and scout and honed his survival skills on the western frontier But when the journey was over Colter stayed behind He spent two more years trekking alone through dangerous and unfamiliar territory charting some of the West's most treasured landmarks Historian David W Marshall crafts this captivating history from Colter's primary sources and has retraced Colter's steps experiencing firsthand how he survived in the wilderness how he pitched a shelter built a fire followed a trail and forded a stream adding a powerful layer of authority and detail Believers Lisa Wells, 2021-07-20 An essential document of our time Charles D Ambrosio author of Loitering In search of answers and action the award winning poet and essayist Lisa Wells brings us Believers introducing trailblazers and outliers from across the globe who have found radically new ways to live and reconnect to the Earth in the face of climate change We find ourselves at the end of the world How then shall we live Like most of us Lisa Wells has spent years overwhelmed by increasingly urgent news of climate change on an apocalyptic scale She did not need to be convinced of the stakes but she could not find practical answers She embarked on a pilgrimage seeking wisdom and paths to action from outliers and visionaries pragmatists and iconoclasts Believers tracks through the lives of these people who are dedicated to repairing the earth and seemingly undaunted by the task ahead Wells meets an itinerant gardener and misanthrope leading a group of nomadic activists in rewilding the American desert She finds a group of environmentalist Christians practicing watershed discipleship in New Mexico and another group in Philadelphia turning the tools of violence into tools of farming guns into ploughshares She watches the world's greatest tracker teach others how to read a trail and visits botanists who are restoring land overrun by invasive species and destructive humans She talks with survivors of catastrophic wildfires in California as they try to rebuild in ways that acknowledge the fires will come again Through empathic critical portraits Wells shows that these trailblazers are not so far beyond the rest of us They have had the same realization have accepted that we are living through a global catastrophe but are trying to answer the next question How do you make a life at the end of the world Through this miraculous commingling of acceptance and activism this focus on seeing clearly and moving forward Wells is able to take the devastating news facing us all every day and inject a possibility of real hope Believers demands transformation It will change
