Scents Of A Woman:

Art Scents Larry Shiner, 2020-02-11 Although the arts of incense and perfume making are among the oldest of human cultural practices it is only in the last two decades that the use of odors in the creation of art has begun to attract attention under the rubrics of olfactory art or scent art Contemporary olfactory art ranges from gallery and museum installations and the use of scents in music film and drama to the ambient scenting of stores and the use of scents in cuisine All these practices raise aesthetic and ethical issues but there is a long standing philosophical tradition most notably articulated in the work of Kant and Hegel which argues that the sense of smell lacks the cognitive capacity to be a vehicle for either serious art or reflective aesthetic experience This neglect and denigration of the aesthetic potential of smell was further reinforced by Darwin's and Freud's views of the human sense of smell as a near useless evolutionary vestige Smell has thus been widely neglected within the philosophy of art Larry Shiner's wide ranging book counters this tendency aiming to reinvigorate an interest in smell as an aesthetic experience He begins by countering the classic arguments against the aesthetic potential of smell with both philosophical arguments and evidence from neuroscience psychology anthropology history linguistics and literature He then draws on this empirical evidence to explore the range of aesthetic issues that arise in each of the major areas of the olfactory arts whether those issues arise from the use of scents with theater and music sculpture and installation architecture and urban design or avant garde cuisine Shiner gives special attention to the art status of perfumes and to the ethical issues that arise from scenting the body the ambient scenting of buildings and the use of scents in fast food Shiner's book provides both philosophers and other academic readers with not only a comprehensive overview of the aesthetic issues raised by the emergence of the olfactory arts but also shows the way forward for further studies of the aesthetics of smell

Past Scents Jonathan Reinartz, 2014-03-30 In this comprehensive and engaging volume medical historian Jonathan Reinartz offers a historiography of smell from ancient to modern times Synthesizing existing scholarship in the field he shows how people have relied on their olfactory sense to understand and engage with both their immediate environments and wider corporal and spiritual worlds This broad survey demonstrates how each community or commodity possesses or has been thought to possess its own peculiar scent Through the meanings associated with smells osmologies develop what cultural anthropologists have termed the systems that utilize smells to classify people and objects in ways that define their relations to each other and their relative values within a particular culture European Christians for instance relied on their noses to differentiate Christians from heathens whites from people of color women from men virgins from harlots artisans from aristocracy and pollution from perfume This reliance on smell was not limited to the global North Around the world Reinartz shows people used scents to signify individual and group identity in a morally constructed universe where the good smelled pleasant and their opposites reeked With chapters including Heavenly Scents Fragrant Lucre and Odorous Others Reinartz's timely survey is a useful and entertaining look at the history of one of our most important but least understood senses

Scents and Sensibility Catherine Maxwell, 2017-10-20 This lively accessible book is the first to explore Victorian literature through scent and perfume presenting an extensive range of well known and unfamiliar texts in intriguing and imaginative new ways that make us re think literature's relation with the senses Concentrating on aesthetic and decadent authors Scents and Sensibility introduces a rich selection of poems essays and fiction exploring these texts with reference to both the little known cultural history of perfume use and the appreciation of natural fragrance in Victorian Britain It shows how scent and perfume are used to convey not merely moods and atmospheres but the nuances of the aesthete or decadent's carefully cultivated identity personality or sensibility A key theme is the emergence of the olfactif the cultivated individual with a refined sense of smell influentially represented by the poet and critic Algernon Charles Swinburne who is emulated by a host of canonical and less well known aesthetic and decadent successors such as Walter Pater Edmund Gosse John Addington Symonds Lafcadio Hearn Michael Field Oscar Wilde Arthur Symonds Mark Andr Raffalovich Theodore Wratislaw and A Mary F Robinson This book explores how scent and perfume pervade the work of these authors in many different ways signifying such diverse things as style atmosphere influence sexuality sensibility spirituality refinement individuality the expression of love and poetic creativity and the aura of personality dandyism modernity and memory A coda explores the contrasting twentieth century responses of Virginia Woolf and Compton Mackenzie to the scent of Victorian literature

Aroma Constance Classen,David Howes,Anthony Synnott,2002-11-01 Smell is a social phenomenon given particular meanings and values by different cultures Odours form the building blocks of cosmologies class hierarchies and political odours They can enforce social structures or transgress them unite people or divide them empower or disempower The authors argue that the sociology of smell is repressed in the modern West and its social history ignored This book breaks the olfactory silence of modernity It offers the first comprehensive exploration of the cultural role of odours in Western history from antiquity to the present It also covers a wide variety of non Western societies Its topics range from the medieval concept of the odour of sanctity to the aromatherapies of South America and from olfactory stereotypes of gender and ethnicity in the modern West to the role of smell in postmodernity Its subject matter will fascinate anyone who likes to nose around in the inner workings of culture      Woman's Home Companion ,1923      The Most Elusive Scent of All Arthur Winarczyk,2013-05-23 A tale told by a dimension a living consciousness to which some psychic minds are attune to A tale about the Sicilian Mafia in the 18th century The consciousness projects mental images of this period Images of people faces rarely distinct in different situations The opening words of Chapter 8 is one way to explain such projections With night came a fierce storm with thunder and lightning and dark visions Maria slept poorly tossing and turning The tale is developed to fit cohesively into those images A tale about a Way of Life not about organized crime In the depression of the 1930s it was the gangster Al Capone who organized soup kitchens for hungry children in Chicago USA such a compassionate deed Why To aid the very poor is as much a trait of the Sicilian Mafia as are profits from prostitution Prostitution always has been one of the largest sources of revenue for the Mafia The Mafia Way of Life is not easily understood One reason is that word Mafia is a modern invented word This tale is about the people that became part of the Mafia in that period about their background and what led them to accept this Way of Life People like Pedro an ox of a man and bodyguard or Paulo so talented and saving the life of a woman who would become his wife sets him on a path of no return of Anastasia and Romeo a high class prostitute and a killer who fall in love Central to the tale is the seduction of the first Mafia priest which begins with mysterious notes slid under the church door in a room full of women I saw her face When the Vatican hears a whisper in the wind young Sister Lucy becomes the key to solving the mystery what does Mafia want with our priests Some still want the Sicilian Mafia to be a myth but read a modern researched book such as Into the Heart of the Mafia by David Lane and the question you may ask is not who in Sicily is Mafia but who is not It is a Way of Life ancient in origin The reader needs to bear in mind too that the original womans perfumes could only be made from an essence of a flower found on a tree that only grows in Italy Thus the Most Elusive Scent mentioned all too often could have been the first true perfume ever discovered Any wonder that scent had a powerful effect on men And if we were to ask the Sicilian Mafia dimension what is the one word that can best explain Sicilian Mafia the answer is si Italian for yes Only a born Sicilian can say si and cosa nostra our thing our way the Mafia way of saying those words In Sicily there is even a Mafia cosa nostra museum and it is ever so popular with tourists

Perfume on the Page in Nineteenth-Century France Cheryl Krueger, 2023-06-26 Despite long standing assertions that languages including French and English cannot sufficiently communicate the experience of smell much of France's nineteenth century literature has gained praise for its memorable evocation of odours As French perfume was industrialized democratized cosmeticized and feminized in the nineteenth century stories of fragrant scent trails aligned perfume with toxic behaviour and viewed a woman's scent as something alluring but also something to be controlled Drawing on a wealth of resources Perfume on the Page in Nineteenth Century France explores how fiction and related writing on olfaction meet permeate and illuminate one another The book examines medical tracts letters manuscripts posters print advertisements magazine articles perfume manuals etiquette books interviews and encounters with fragrant materials themselves Cheryl Krueger explores how the olfactory language of a novel or poem conveys the distinctiveness of a text its unique relationship to language its style and its ways of engaging the reader its signature scent Shedding light on the French perfume culture that we know today Perfume on the Page in Nineteenth Century France follows the scent trails that ultimately challenge us to read perfume and literature in new ways
