Schilder Trilogy:

The Schilder Trilogy Klaas Schilder, 1940 The Schilder Trilogy K. Schilder, 1938 The Schilder Trilogy K. Schilder, 1979 Christ Crucified Klaas Schilder, Klass Schilder, 2001-11

These superb works are without equal in modern literature. Schilder brings the reader into touch with the spiritual and temporal forces which converged during the Passion Week. He is careful to keep Christ central and he blends in a masterful way this culmination of our Lord's earthly life with historical facts and psychological realities.

Cyril Barber, The Minister's Library: Schilder was a noted Dutch scholar of the early twentieth century. The three volumes of this work were translated by Henry Zylstra. They first appeared in 1937. The three volumes cover three aspects of the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus Christ. They are entitled Christ Crucified, Christ in His Suffering, and Christ On Trial.

In The Minister's Library, Cyril Barber states: "Theologically accurate, abounds in suggestive insights, and provides exegetical illumination for a score of Easter sermons. It is a classic treatment on the passion of Christ. It deserves a place in every pastor's library. The three volumes cover the night of His betrayal to His condemnation; it is a learned, accurate treatment that says a lot about this unique, very important work. It is simply indispensable to the understanding and feeling of the power of the passion of Christ. To put it into the words of the Apostle Paul, all should feel as he did: 'Oh that I might be found in Him to know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, having been conformed to His death, if somehow I may attain to a resurrection out of the dead.' (Philippians 3:9-11). Through the guidance and inspiration of God the Holy Spirit, Schilder has captured the drama and the pathos of Christ's ordeal, and yet also passes on to the reader the triumph and the exultation of Christ as He completes His voluntary submission to the Father's will. Sacrifice and offering, You did not desire, but You prepared a body for Me. You did not delight in burnt offering and sacrifices concerning sins. Then I said, 'Lo, I come.' In the heading of the Book, it was written concerning Me: 'to do Your will, O God.' (Psalm 39:6-9; Heb 10:5-7). No child of God is completely mature until he or she has gone to Gethsemane and followed the trail of Christ as He approached the hour when He must endure unspeakable humiliation, pain, and the suffering of momentary loss of the Father's presence with Him. It is no wonder that He sweat blood at the prospect for He was not ignorant of what He must go through in order to provide salvation for His sheep. The Good Shepherd lays down His life for the sheep. (John 10:11). No one will better draw you down to the depths of this drama, a scene which only one Person could have endured than Schilder. You will not be the same after you have followed Christ through these stirring looks that Schilder gives you; you will be a better Christian by far. This is a Best Set in Print. Schilder was a man of many gifts without any doubt. Anyone who has read his writings, even some of them, will readily acknowledge that he possessed the ability to look at various theological questions in different ways and to express his ideas in sometimes eloquent ways which were often fresh and new. 560 pages, blue hard cover.

Recovering a forgotten theologian. Klaas Schilder (1890-1952) was a prominent Dutch Reformed theologian in the early twentieth century, first as a pastor and then as a professor While his fame spread to North America in the 1940s he is mostly forgotten today In The Klaas Schilder Reader The Essential Theological Writings readers will rediscover this important Dutch theologian Working in the tradition of Abraham Kuyper and Herman Bavinck Schilder applies Dutch Neo Calvinism to the twentieth century This includes secularism the rise and influence of Karl Barth opposition to Nazism and the relation between the church and society The Klaas Schilder Reader contextualizes his work and furthers the neo Calvinist tradition The Schilder Trilogy Klaas Schilder,1938 Karl Barth and American Evangelicalism Bruce L. Ockenga,1979-01-01 A Church for a Secular World Marinus De Jong,2025-09-25 The relationship between the Church and the world has been a subject of debate since the Church s earliest days Stanley Hauerwas with his emphasis on the Church as polis has made a significant contemporary contribution one that has also faced strong criticism This study examines the distinctive insights of second generation neo Calvinist theologian Klaas Schilder 1890 1952 on this issue Neo Calvinism is renowned for its development of Reformed theology particularly in this area and Schilder builds on this tradition with a critical eye Engaging with the increasing secularity of the twentieth century he carefully interacts with Karl Barth s writings while refining his own perspective In doing so Schilder s position comes close to the Anabaptist stance of Hauerwas yet remains firmly rooted in the Reformed understanding of creation T&T Clark Handbook of Neo-Calvinism Nathaniel Gray Sutanto,Cory Brock,2024-01-25 Neo Calvinism critically advances Reformed orthodoxy for the sake of modern life Birthed in the Netherlands at the turn to the twentieth century initiated by Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 and Herman Bavinck 1854 1921 it argued that a life before God entailed the leavening of faith over all human existence While the movement originated in the Netherlands the tradition now has a global reach with practitioners and thinkers applying its insights in diverse ways and in their own contexts This handbook is a genealogical introduction to this lively and modern branch of the Reformed tradition with contributors that reflect its global reach Its four sections chart the theological roots important original figures historical contours and the contemporary influence of neo Calvinism across a diversity of fields Biblical Counsel ,1993 Sola Scriptura ,2017-11-06 Sola Scriptura offers a multi disciplinary reflection on the theme of the priority and importance of Scripture in theology from historical biblical theological and systematic theological perspectives aiming at the interaction between exegesis and dogmatics Brian Brock and Kevin J Vanhoozer offer concluding reflections on the theme bringing the various contributions together The Drama of Preaching Eric B. Watkins,2017-02-16 Preaching is dramatic Through it we hear the voice of the living God as he speaks to us both through the reading and the preaching of the word of God But where do the hearers of sermons fit into the drama This book suggests ways in which the drama metaphor may help to address age old questions about the centrality of the gospel and the place of the hearer in preaching As God in Christ is the central character in the biblical drama of redemption he also calls hearers to understand their role in creatively yet faithfully living according to the biblical script Thus no sermon is complete until God's redemptive work is powerfully proclaimed and his people are instructed in how they too are participating in the Missio Dei In this work Hebrews 11 is employed as a means of showing how God not only reveals his redemptive work to his people but also through them As postmodernism sets the stage of contemporary preaching The Drama of Preaching interacts with some of the particular challenges preachers face in engaging postmodern listeners that they might not only be hearers but doers of the preached word Sola Scriptura Sidney Greidanus, 2001-10-31 This book deals with a key question every pastor faces nearly every week in preparing sermons That question concerns the appropriate manner of treating the historical material of the Scriptures In the history of the Christian Church this material has often served as the basis for moral lessons or intellectual truths This study presents a careful analysis of the way in which this age old controversy surfaced in the revival of redemptive historical theology in the Reformed churches in Holland between the two world wars It also presents the basis for a fresh approach and is thus exceedingly helpful for both pastors and students Many Infallible Proofs Henry Morris, 2021-12-02 Evidence for the inspiration of the Bible the deity of Christ testimony of fulfilled prophecy and the argument for the existence of the God of the Bible The uniqueness of Christianity authenticity of God's Word and character of God Many people in Christian circles today no longer believe that the Bible is reliable in its traditional literal and historical sense They have come to feel that their religious experience must be realized either through some sort of subjective encounter with Christ or else through involvement in social action movements The emphasis is now on relevance and fulfillment rather than truth The purpose of this book is to survey the many infallible proofs of the unique truth and authority of biblical Christianity together with a refutation of its alleged fallacies and a reconciliation of its alleged discrepancies Not only is there no mistake or contradiction in the Bible but also there are innumerable evidences of its divine inspiration and authority Christ on Trial Klass Schilder, 2001-11 These superb works are without equal in modern literature Schilder brings the reader into touch with the spiritual and temporal forces which converged during the Passion Week He is careful to keep Christ central and he blends in a masterful way this culmination of our Lord's earthly life with historical facts and psychological realities Cyril Barber The Minister's Library Schilder was a noted Dutch scholar of the early twentieth century The three volumes of this work were translated by Henry Zylstra They first appeared in 1937 The three volumes cover three aspects of the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus Christ They are entitled Christ Crucified Christ in His Suffering and Christ On Trial In The Minister's Library Cyril Barber states Theologically accurate abounds in suggestive insights and provides exegetical illumination for a score of Easter sermons It is a classic treatment on the passion of Christ It deserves a place in every pastor's library The three volumes cover the night of His betrayal to His condemnation it is a learned accurate treatment That says a lot about this unique very important work It is simply indispensable to the understanding and feeling of the power of the passion of Christ To put it into the words of the Apostle Paul all should feel as

Jesus' Emotions in the Gospels Stephen Voorwinde, 2011-06-16 Examines the emotions of Jesus presented by in the gospels and shows how this may be applied in studying these texts

Jesus' Emotions in the Fourth Gospel Stephen Voorwinde, 2005-11-01 This book seeks to discuss John's references to Jesus emotions in the light of the current debate regarding Johannine Christology The Fourth Gospel refers to Jesus love joy and zeal At times it also portrays him as troubled deeply moved and in tears Do these expressions of emotion underscore Jesus humanity or his divinity The study is set against the background of the emotions of God as found in earlier Jewish literature as well as against that of the emotions of Jesus in the Synoptics and the remainder of the New Testament Voorwinde argues that the covenant provides the most consistent perspective for viewing both the emotions of Yahweh in the Old Testament and the emotions of Jesus in the Gospels The Johannine Jesus is found to fulfil the hitherto incompatible roles of covenant Lord and covenant sacrifice Rather than being expressive only of his humanity Jesus emotions are also found to underscore his divinity This is due to the unique genius of this Gospel with its paradoxical presentation of Jesus whose divinity is manifested most eloquently in his weakness suffering and death Only his tears at the grave of Lazarus can be explained as a human emotion pure and simple All the other emotions because of their strong connections to the cross highlight both Jesus humanity and divinity albeit for various reasons and in highly nuanced ways JSNTS 284
