

I PREPARATORY EXERCISES

For acquiring the greatest possible independence and evenness of the fingers.

ALOYS SCHMITT, Op. 16

Repeat each exercise ten to twenty times. Omit the closing note until the final repetition. Practice each hand separately at first, then both together. Keep the hands steady and quiet at all times. Practice each exercise slowly at first, gradually increasing the tempo as the fingers acquire the necessary strength and flexibility. It is advisable to practice these exercises in all keys, using the same fingering.

The musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is presented in five systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The melody is written in the treble staff, and the accompaniment is in the bass staff. The score is divided into eight measures, with measure numbers 1 through 8 indicated above the treble staff. The melody consists of eighth and sixteenth notes, while the accompaniment features a steady eighth-note pattern. The piece concludes with a final whole note in the treble staff.
