Altbach, Edith S. Hoshino, 2015-05-08 First Published in 1996 This encyclopedia is unique in several ways As the first international reference source on publishing it is a pioneering venture Our aim is to provide comprehensive discussion and analysis of key subjects relating to books and publishing worldwide The sixty four essays included here feature not only factual and statistical information about the topic but also analysis and evaluation of those facts and figures The chapters are significantly more comprehensive than those typically found in an encyclopedia Building Area Studies Collections Dan C. Hazen, James H. Spohrer, 2007 These essays by noted Area Studies specialists at a number of US research libraries serve as a practical and theoretical guide to university and college administrators library directors and heads of collection development as well as selection practitioners who work to create foreign language collections for research libraries The volume constitutes a general introduction for new practitioners and even the most experienced Area Studies librarians will find useful practical advice for reviewing and refining their existing collecting practices Coverage includes East Asia Latin America Southeast Asia Africa South Asia and the Romance language areas of Europe as well as the German Nordic Netherlandic countries Each essay presents the Area Studies topic in question from an historical perspective and provides background on its present status and anticipated future development Special emphasis is placed on the techniques of both print and digital collecting and on the assessment methods by which collection strengths and future needs are determined Guidelines for expenditures for both collections and collateral activities such as providing access and preservation are provided and contributors also supply extensive documentation for the burgeoning array of online digital resources which have emerged in the past decade The volume editors Dan C Hazen Harvard and James H Spohrer University of California Berkeley also provide a general introduction to the topic and a detailed summary of current cooperative activities in Area Studies collecting ELT in Asia in the Digital Era: Global Citizenship and Identity Suwarsih Madya, Fuad Hamied, Willy A. Renandya, Christine Coombe, Yazid Basthomi, 2018-06-27 This proceedings book captures a wide range of timely themes for readers to be able to foresee the digital era's impact on English teaching in non English speaking countries English used in the global environment the frequent mobile communication and the use of AI based translators are bringing about dramatic changes in our English language learning and teaching Who can provide us the wisdom to know what to do Those scholars going through these complex environmental changes A collection of puzzle pieces may bring us a better contour for the future than a perfectly edited book It's indeed a pleasure reading these insightful pieces to gain wisdom for the future of ELT practices in global contexts Building Asian Families and Communities in the 21st Century Jas Laile Suzana Binti Jaafar, Sherri

McCarthy, 2009-10-02 This book provides an overview of current research in psychology throughout Asia including papers that demonstrate the adaptation of the discipline to issues specific to families and communities within that region of the world The papers which appear here were presented at the 2nd Convention of the Asian Psychological Association hosted by the University of Malaya in Kuala Lumpur Malaysia during June 2008 The Asian Psychological Association APsYA was founded in Bali Indonesia in August 2006 to give a voice to academic psychologists from all countries teaching throughout Asia and to psychologists practicing in China Malaysia Indonesia India Bangladesh Vietnam Cambodia Laos Japan Thailand Korea Pakistan Iran Turkey the Philippines and other countries on the Asian continent Until its recent establishment no large professional organization existed for Asian psychologists Psychology is growing more rapidly as a discipline within Asia than in any other part of the world It is adapting to the philosophies history and religions within Asia as it blends Western science with Eastern practices The information presented here is a valuable window into how the discipline is developing in Asia and a must read for psychologists counsellors academics and others with an interest in psychology throughout the world
